

state of higher effi-

L ACCOUNT.

Vednesday, Noon. The heights at Saar- f mitrailleuses was the Emperor and afterwards a Prus- the railway bank a ie mitrailleuses fired ie detachment wast mber on the ground. he same line, and rench artillery effi- cts of the mitral-

VICTORY.

the following com- ed not be said that he events of the war in accordance with accounts should be y, we may pretty l that they will comical reckless ot Paradol's most a pistol shot as the heart. That the Prussians, de- is substantially, or, do not doubt—true ave driven, or have ittle German force at But whether this d much of a vic- It takes at once a which it presents our own view of gn is accurate. En- stand and define the is intended for a bat- from Zweibrucken to in a purely defensive vancing from Saar- orted by the full re- orce in an endeavour with Metz. If this of the French at more than a with- cordance with their at quarter."

CORRESPONDENTS, al Batrik telegraphed ter of the late William A. Williams Kerr, Esq., Kilmore, Moyvally, county Kildare. Hornibrook and Wood—At Trinity Church, Rathmines, co. Dublin, Thomas Henry, eldest son of Thomas Hornibrook, Esq., of Harbour Hill, Kinsale, to Mary Jane, eldest daughter of the late Samuel Wood, Esq., A.M., M.B., of Bandon. Butler and Mahoney—At the Roman Catholic Church, Lis- ronagh, John, son of Michael Butler, Esq., Murnanes, Callan, county Kilkenny, to Judith, eldest daughter of William Mahoney, Esq., Parkville, Clonmel. Pim and Gray—At Monkstown Church, co. Dublin, Richard Pim, Esq., Monkstown, to Adelaide, daughter of Robert Gray, Esq., J.P., of Temple-hill, county Dublin. Webster and Margesson—At Cowfold, Sussex, Frederick, son of the late Sir Godfrey Webster, Bart., to Julia Helena, daughter of the Rev. W. Margesson, of Woodring- fold, Sussex. Conry and Pickard—At St. George's Church, Stonehouse, Devon, Thomas Conry, Esq., Assistant-Surgeon R.N., to Isabella Mary, daughter of Colonel Pickard, R.M.L.I. McBean and Beveridge—At St. Peter's Episcopal Chapel, Kirkcaldy, Major McBean, H.M.'s 93rd Sutherland High- landers, to Victoria, daughter of Henry Beveridge, Esq., J.P., Kirkcaldy, N.B. Dreys and Parkinson—At the Hotel de Ville, Brussels, and afterwards at the British Legation, Nicolas Henry Trieze Dreys, Esq., to Marguerite Susan, fourth daughter of the late William Handcock Parkinson, M.D., F.R.C.S.I., of Dublin. Hoskyns and Thimbleby—At St. George's, Hanover-square, London, the Rev. Charles H. W. Hoskyns, to Elizabeth Annie, daughter of Thomas Thimbleby, Esq., of Spilsby, Lincolnshire.

DEATHS.

Smyth—At his residence, Drumlohan, parish of Kilcornan, county of Limerick, on the night of Saturday, the 30th July, James Smyth, Esq., P.L.G., aged 56 years, sincerely and deservedly regretted by a numerous circle of friends and acquaintances. Wingfield—At Kellyville, Queen's County, Captain R. T. Wingfield, late of H.M.'s 52nd and 36th Regiments, only son of the Hon. and Rev. W. Wingfield. Graham—At Newlands, county Dublin, Lieutenant-Colonel George Templer Graham, of Somersetshire. Symes—At his residence, Bonnybrook, Artane, Geo. Symes, Esq. White—At St. John's, Enniscorthy, county Wexford, Allen White, Esq. Hepenstal—At her residence, Sandymount, county Dublin, Susan Hepenstal, daughter of the late George Hepenstal, Esq. Whyte—Sarah, wife of William Whyte, Esq., Marlborough- street, Dublin. Caithness—At Barrogill Castle, the Right Hon. Louisa Georgina, Countess of Caithness. Dillon—At Ryde, Charles Richard George, eldest son of the Hon. Gerald and Lady Louisa Dillon. Calvert—At Ockley Court, Dorking, Surrey, Lieut.-Colonel Charles William Calvert, 2nd Royal Surrey Militia, late of the Queen's Bays, and 23rd Royal Welsh Fusiliers. Hosken—At Llandfaelog, near Brecon, the Rev. Thomas Butterfill Hosken. Newall—At Wakeneld, William Edward Newall, Adjutant 3rd Administrative Battalion West York Rifle Volunteers, and late Captain 8th (King's) Regiment. Chichester—At Bridge Cottage, Chertsey, Edmund Prideaux Chichester, late Capt. 7th Dragoon Guards. Stevenson—Suddenly, at Glangwilly, Carmarthenshire, H. Stevenson, Captain R.H.A., second surviving son of J. N. Stevenson, Esq., of Hayne, Morstonhampstead, Devon, Lieut.-Colonel South Devon Militia.

No. 3—Premium £11 3s. These Policies are off- stances precluding the sli- Every information to i Apply to JOHN BERN Mart an July 2.

Desirable

THE undersigned wis request of some of dertaken an agency for 1 known Malvern Water Schweppe and Co. J. Schweppe & Co.'s Soc J. Schweppe & Co.'s Mal J. Schweppe & Co.'s Len Bbttles must be paid f be allowed for when retu

J. J. TEA DEALER ANI 41, GEOI

W. MORT GUN, PISTOL and RIF and Gun-Pow 17, PATR LIM Repairs executed Mecha Every requisite May 7

THE GROO

APPPRENT WANTED, for the TICE, respecta dress, and able to write JOHN N 1, Gerge-street, and 31, July 28

IRISH AND ITALIA PI WREH GRATES, C H Of the Newest Desi JAMP 140, GEOI Ln February 15, 1870.