

PRUSSIAN DESPATCH.)

Bar-Le-Duc, Monday.

ent that the Emperor Napoleon which appears to be confirmed, several days nothing has been y.

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT.)

Bar-Le-Duc, Friday.

don to-day, 4.15 afternoon).— 10 of the National Guard Mobile ity of booty was captured by inehauld. From this experience at these men are not very dan-spondent of the Echo, under date ing, telegraphs that the Emperor ouring, by the medium of special al Courts, to obtain guarantees ce of his dynasty and the in- ench territory. The Prussians w army of 350,000 men prepared ecessary, against foreign inter-oner has entered Lough Swilly, A French man-of-war supposed as seen off Inishowen head on ATTLE NEAR RHEIMS.

Paris, Monday.

rial arrived at Mezieres on Sun- ie Emperor was also expected Prussian Army Corps of about ns on Saturday on the heights is believed that the Prussians near between Epernay and ns are being made for the er place. Letters from Rheims discipline of the French troops axed, that there was a great s on the march. A Foreign ; at Tours. Preparations to advance are being made within o forty leagues from Paris. The supplied with 800 rounds of nse quantities of provisions of ally arriving in Paris, and the is proceeding on a large scale, R. Garvey, Esq., of a daughter.

Holmes—At Kingsland-park, Dublin, the wife of Edward Litton Holmes, Esq., of a son.
Leach—At Belsize-park, Dublin, the wife of Francis Leach, Esq., of a son.
MacKaige—At Sandymount-road, Dublin, the wife of Wm. MacKaige, of a son.
Rearden—At Mount View, Cork, the wife of John Rearden, jun., of a daughter.
Whately—At Chapel-street, Belgrave-square, London, the wife of the Rev. Edward Whately, M.A., rector of St. Werbergh's, Dublin, of a daughter.
Gregory—At Robertson-terrace, Hastings, the wife of Capt. J. Gregory, Deputy-Commissioner, Assam, of a daughter.
Fisher—At the Vica age, Kenningtoun, the wife of the Rev. E. H. Fisher, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Doolan and Cooper—August 20th, at St. Peter's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. J. F. Patten, Craven Westenra Doolan, of Brighton-square, Dublin, Esq., son of the late Palmer Doolan, of Derry House, Shinrone, J.P., to Abbie Mary, widow of Wm. Cooper, Esq., late Royal Engineer C.S., and daughter of the late J. Smith, solicitor.
Hanna and Hunter—In the First Antrim Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Robert Hanna, Gloucester-street, Dublin, to Annie, only daughter of the late Joseph Hunter, Esq., Killeally, Antrim.
Milman and Moore—At Abbey Church, Francis John, eldest son of Sir William Milman, Bart., of Levaton, Woodlands, Devon, and 55, Rutland Gate, Hyde Park, London, to Katarine Grace, second daughter of Stephen C. Moore, Esq., D.L., of Barne, county Tipperary.
Madden and Dillon—At the Cathedral, Marlborough-street, Dublin, by special license, James Patrick Madden, Talbot-street, Dublin, and Oberstown House, Lusk, to Mary Josephine, youngest daughter of Thomas Dillon, of Bachelor's-walk, Dublin.
O'Mahony and Brown—At St. James's, Piccadilly, London, Redmond O'Mahony, Captain 24th Regt., to Mary Taylor, daughter of the late Wm. Henry Brown, of Philadelphia, U.S.A.
Barrett and Thompson—At York, Captain S. Barrett, 3rd (King's Own) Hussars, to Laura Emilia, daughter of Childers H. Thompson, Esq.

DEATHS.

Kennedy—This morning, in Bedford-row, aged nine years, Agnes, the beloved daughter of Mr. D. Kennedy, 133, George-street,—a most interesting child.
Pennefather—At Waterfall View, Fair View, Harriette, relict of the late Richard Pennefather, Esq., of Ballynira, Thurles.
Thornbury-Hawkins—At Sydney, Australia, drowned while on a boating party, Dr. Anthony William Thornbury-Hawkins, eldest son of the late Ralph Thornbury, Esq., of Dublin.
Newcombe—At Clonskeagh, county Dublin, William Newcombe, Esq., son of the late Richard Newcombe, Esq., of Ballycrystal, King's County.
Farrell—At Naas, Patrick Joseph, eldest son of Patrick Farrell, T.C.
Doran—At Eccles-street, Dublin, Agnes Mary, youngest daughter of The O'Ferrall Doran.
Croly—At Harcourt-street, Dublin, George Chapman, son of Dr. Henry Gray Croly, F.R.C.S.I.
Byrne—At the residence of her son-in-law, William Orr, Esq., Osborne House, Seapoint, Elizabeth, relict of the late Roderick Byrne, Esq., Lurgan, county Armagh.
Chinnery—At Church-street, Cavan, Rosina, wife of William Chinnery, Esq., Quartermaster Cavan Militia.
Drummond—At Bertie House, Twickenham, the Right Hon. Alberic Drummond, Lord Willoughby de Eresby.
Woodford—At the Royal Hospital, Chelsea, Field-Marshal Sir Alexander Woodford, G.C.B., Colonel of the Scots Fusilier Guards.

THE

WANTED
dress, and ab

1, Gerge-stre
July 28

WANTED be open to m Distillery. I ability, &c., Address wi
of Mr. G. ST
August 25.

THE Guar
nesday, receive tender
September, 1 following arti
quality, and free :—

Port Wine,

Check, per per piece; Li EST.

Combs, per Stones, fit for at labour yar

Coffins—To inch thick, r
paint, and w
made any dep for by the fc shrouding.

All persons tender to be Tenders m as sureties for be in a sealec
not later tha
on outside wit
&c., as the ca

August 30.