

tara, April 21.
 as unfortunately I murder of the After 2 o'clock,
 iver flying from this the detach-
 and the cavalry
 t they had great 30, it being swolty retreat, alas!
 ldiers, perceiving
 attack was most have been found amongst the dead
 I chiefs, Christos
 remainder are pro-
 use the last that
 . The bodies of en put on board has been brought

. THEAGENES."
 IGGAND GANG.
 or and of Justice,

Tossini who was ation. He states ce at three hours
 he inhabitants of food; that during om their way to n the morning of place; that they ridge on the Man the carriages of o Marathon; that afternoon on their m this place they licus, where they following two men
 of military men, d with them, and se them if he saw y were; that from os, and thence by h a view to reach t they had come troops; and that by some soldiers,
 e has been killed.
 go another exami-rmation that this ard over the two nd that he himself

Monarch of Eu-

MICHALEPULOS.

"

den, of a son.
 At Belgrave-square, London, the Hon. Mrs. George Tryon, of a son, stillborn.
 At Oulton Park, the Hon. Mrs. Egerton, of a daughter.
 At Mansfield-street, London, Lady Marian Wilbraham, of a daughter.
 At Admiralty House, Auckland, New Zealand, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel Elliot, 18th Royal Irish, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

On Saturday, the 30th April, at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Marlborough-street, Dublin, by the Rev.
 M. Wheeler, P.P., Stamullen, county Meath, assisted by the Rev. W. Purcell, Administrator, Patrick Coleman, Esq., Elm Grove, county Meath, to Maria Alice Wilhelmina, only child of the late William Leake, Esq., of Rathkeale Abbey, county Limerick.

On Monday, the 25th ult., at St. Michael's Chapel, by the Rev. Thomas Browne, P.P., Mr. Michael William Galvin to Minnie, eldest daughter of Mr. Thomas Ray, both of this city.

At the Presbyterian Church, Clonmel, James d'Altera Dowsley, Esq., solicitor, to Mary, daughter of the late John Ward Dowsley, Esq., M.D., of Clonmel.

At the R. C. Church, Rathgar, Dublin, John S., eldest son of Sir William Carroll, M.D., T.C., J.P., Upper Fitzwilliamstreet, Dublin, to Mamie Eliza, second daughter of Samuel F. Fitzpatrick, Esq., of Pista, Rathgar.

At St. Philip's Church, Milltown, county Dublin, William J. Clayton, Bushfield-avenue, Dublin, eldest son of the late James Clayton, Esq., Belgrave-road, Rathmines, to Mary Ida, younger and only surviving daughter of John Lee, Esq., Rydal Mount, Milltown.

At Thornbury, Major-General Pierrepont Mundy, son of the late Godfrey Basil and the Hon. Mrs. Mundy, to Geraldine Henrietta, daughter of the Rev. M. F. S. Townsend, of Castle Townsend, county Cork, and Vicar of Thornbury, Gloucestershire.

At the Parish Church, Old Milverton, William Draper, surgeon, York, to Catherine Anne, eldest daughter of Robt.
 Baker, Esq., H.M.'s Inspector of Factories, Walpole Villa, Leamington.

DEATHS.

At 60, William-street, on the 4th inst., George Brown Donald, aged 3 years and 7 months, only beloved child of Thomas Donald, Hermitage, Castleconnell.

On last night, at Mary-street, in this city, Mr. George Norris, aged 69 years.

At his residence, Dunmore East, county Waterford, the Rev. Henry Prittie Perry, Rector of Tullanelan, county Tipperary.

Dr. James Graham, Surgeon of the Tipperary Light Infantry, and Medical Officer of the Cashel Union Workhouse.

At his residence, Cashel, county Tipperary, James Cody, Esq.

At Clogheen, county Tipperary, Judith, relict of the late Thomas Hickey, Esq.

Margaret Josephine, infant daughter of Michael Ryan, Esq., Clonmel.

At Mountzephyr, co. Cork, Anna, wife of John Philpott, Esq.

At his residence, Mall, Tralee, Mr. Andrew Shea, T.C.
 At Fiddan Castle, county Galway, Maria, wife of Edward Blaquiére, Esq.

At his father's residence, Killiney, Surgeon Frederick Hasler, jun., third son of Surgeon F. H. H. Hasler.

At Talbot-street, Dublin, Honoria Mary, wife of James P.
 Madden, Esq.

At the Rectory, Blyborough, Lincolnshire, the Rev. Wm.
 Paley-Graham.

At Cambridge-square, Hyde-park, London, James Robert Gaussen, Assistant-Surgeon Royal Artillery, youngest son of Charles Gaussen, Esq., of Gardiner's-place, Dublin.

At his residence, Vicarage-park, Plumstead, Major Andrew Orr, Royal Artillery, son of the late Andrew Orr, Esq., Milburn House, Coleraine, Ireland.

spirit, card, &c., Saffron, and every article Stable.

J. LAIRD
 118, GEORGE-ST

IMPOR

SPRING

In New
 In New
 For all o
 Beautifully
 famed fo excellence and moder

ROCKE, HOGA

CECIL-S

March 22.

It is Deserved
 THE MOST CER

MCMASTER'S Univer
 rant, simple and s
 to a luxuriant growth, an colour.

Sold by all Chemists a
 3s. each.

March 15.

Grazing to Le

AT (

WITHIN one mile of the 10th MAY, a

M. HAI

Will Let by Auction on th
 the Lands of Clino for Gr 1st of November next.

Terms

MICHA

April 30

To I

C CRAGBEG Dwelling
 dence of General S and beautifully Planted village of Clarina, adjoi sidence of the Right I within five miles of the C

This very desirable I every accommodation fo with Gardens, Lawn, and containing about ten statu
 the 1st instant to a respe

Application

ROBE

May 5.

33, C