

gns. Dr. Smyth, of to him, but medical the venerable Henry ad come, and his spi- d.—Belfast News-Let- st brutal murder has The victim is an old tion a sweep. Judg- (the body, the crime some days ago. A l to get over a wall alway road, and just dral, and discovered nettles. The head is nest was opened on red to throw light on

TION IN WATERFORD. vere lighted and some boughs in sympathy nterfered, and were

VAL RESERVE.—On greatest activity was ruits for the Royal l been posted through by direction of the dvantages of the ser- ave been engaged in ip Pallas lies in Car- recruits and exercise ble to proceed on the

the new Protestant on Friday in the pre- A number of resolu- t the fate of the Go- ill, and viewing with e Orange cause in the made at disturbance, d peaceably. In the Johnston said :—We t civil and religious part, am not one to are fully and reso- the Government of eeds and classes to a religious liberty, we protestant or Orange- ad see Romish ascen- e. The calm observer e seen that there is ime that there is an o crush liberty in land will show them- gress and liberty by a Ultramontane con-eldest son of P. Smithwick, Esq., Shanbally, co. Tipperary, to Charlotte, Caroline, youngest daughter of the late Admiral William Webb, and granddaughter of the late Sir Willoughby Lake, K.C.B.

MacFarlane and M'Kay—At Ballingarry Church, James Francis Lennox MacFarlane, Esq., Lieut. 3rd Dragoon Guards, eldest son of H. J. MacFarlane, Esq., Huntstown House, county Dublin, to Mary Eliza Adette, eldest daughter of the late Manners M'Kay, Esq., of Moreen, county Dublin, formerly of the 3rd Dragoon Guards, and grand-daughter of Thomas J. Bunbury, Esq., of Lisbryan, county Tipperary.

Lloyd and Vincent—At Castleblayney, county Monaghan, Dr. William H. Lloyd, R.N., eldest son of William Lloyd, Esq., of Waterford, to Phoebe Jane, daughter of the late Lieut.-General William Vincent, H.E.I.C.S.

Dowlan and Cooper—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Westena Dowlan, Esq., of Belgrave-square, Dublin, son of the late A. P. Dowlan, of Derry House, Shinrone, J.P., to Abigail M., relict of William Cooper, Esq., R.E.D., and daughter of the late John Smith, solicitor.

French and Hone—At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, William Michael French, Lower Pembroke-street, Dublin, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, eldest son of the late Rev. Edwd. French, rector of Ballyscullion, Diocese of Derry, to Frances Browning, daughter of Thomas Hone, Esq., of Yapton, Monkstown.

Glanville and Price—At Killybegs Church, Edward Samuel Glanville, Esq., of Dublin, to Jane, eldest daughter of B. Price, Esq., of Killybegs, county Donegal.

Cambie and Fay—At St. James's Church, Bridgetown, Nova Scotia, Henry J. Cambie, Esq., C.E., youngest son of the late Charles Cambie, Esq., J.P., formerly of Castletown, county Tipperary, to Helen, only daughter of John B. Fay, Esq., of Bridgetown, N.S.

DEATHS.

Dunbar—August 18th, at Cullinagh, Newcastle West, in her 60th year, Honorine, relict of the late Joseph Dunbar, Esq., of Cork.

Hutchinson—18th inst., at 20, Clarendon-place, Plymouth, Charlotte Frances, the beloved wife of William Lacy Hutchinson, Esq., Royal Artillery.

Hannington—On the 17th inst., at Eversholt-street, Oakley-square, London, Ellen, the beloved wife of R. T. R. Hannington, after childbirth.

Dacre—After a short illness, to the inexpressible grief of his sorrowing relatives in Clonmel, the Rev. George Dacre, Senior Chaplain of the Forces at Colchester, aged 51.

Harley—At Thurles, John Benjamin, son of the Rev. C. B. Harley.

Shortt—At Triton-ville-road, Sandymount, county Dublin, Jane Charlotte Emma, only child of the late Edward F. Shortt, Esq., late of Pallas, county Tipperary.

Scott—At Little George's-street, Waterford, Richard, infant son of Dr. Scott, T.C.

Owen—At Fitzwilliam-terrace, Bray, the residence of her brother, Florence, relict of the late Robert H. Owen, Esq., Q.C.

Cartan—At Dundalk, Mary, wife of Mr. Joseph Cartan, proprietor of the Dundalk Democrat.

Cresswell—At King's Lynn, Norfolk, the Hon. Charlotte F. G. Cresswell, wife of F. J. Cresswell, Esq.

Cunningham—At Clarendon-road, Kensington, London, Alice Cunningham, wife of Major-General Alexander Cunningham, Royal Engineers (Bengal Retired).

Hughes—At Totnes, the Rev. Hugh Hughes, D.D., rector of St. John's, Clerkenwell, London.

Roose—At Brighton, John Charles Roose, Esq., eldest son of the late Sir David Roose, of Dublin.

Chambers—At Brighton, Henry Chambers, late Captain of the 51st Light Infantry and Ceylon Rifle Regiments.

Fleming—At Warwick-gardens, Kensington, W., London, Elizabeth Oke, wife of Sir Valentine Fleming, late Chief Justice of Tasmania.

MAJESTY

M. H.

HAS received ord 200 I for her Majesty's Servit old, and standing 15 ha Parties having Hors Sale, will find a ready rpository,

On SATURDAY being the Great on which occasion sever tend to purchase Horse ticulars of which shou sible.

August 23

Desirable

THE undersigned wi request of some of dertaken an agency for known Malvern Wate Schweppe and Co. J. Schweppe & Co.'s So J. Schweppe & Co.'s Mal J. Schweppe & Co.'s Le Bbttles must be paid be allowed for when ret

J. J.

TEA DEALER AN 41, GEO

Lower Shannon S PLEASURE

THE ROSA STEAM (permitting) to le Sea, calling at Tarber On MONDAY, 29th Returning from By this Excursion, portunity of seeing the rick to Loop Head.

Fares Out ar The 'Rosa' will not c on the above day, nor t

Limerick, 23rd Augu

nt. 'mid