

ling of this
 ARMIES.
 Evening.
 ng Post, the writes — "I n authority,
 00 Prussians
 hic communi-
 cy. Accord-tive strength
 other before
 s, 325,000."

OF NANCY
 ACMAHON'S
 RISONERS—SIEGE.
 ris, Sunday.
 occupation of
 y communica-
 ses anxiety to Corps, which
 by the Crown
 headquarters
 now expressed succeeded in nication with
 to Chalons,
 ps. It is be-strong garrison
 ve battle of the
 before Chalons.
 fence and fully
 being provided
 and the police
 ply of water to
 of MacMahon's
 ng their way to invested that re to be placed

Fox and Atkinson—At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, Charles Michael Fox, Capt. 34th Regt., son of Ed. Vigor Fox, Esq., of North Rode, Cheshire, to Elizabeth Ford, second daughter of the late Edward Atkinson, Esq., Seaford Hall, Donabate, county Dublin.
 Shaw and Little—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, John, son of the late Robert Shaw, Esq., of Westmeath, to Esther, fourth daughter of the late Wm. Little, Esq., Sub-Inspector, Royal Irish Constabulary.
 Trench and Rawlins—At St. Stephen's Church, Dublin, Henry Bloomfield Trench, Esq., eldest son of Henry Trench, Esq., of Cangort Park, King's County, to Jessie, only child of the late Wm. Charles Rawlins, Esq.
 Kelly and O'Donoghue—At Westland-row Church, Dublin, Richard, second son of Richard Kelly, Esq., Middle Gardiner-street, Dublin, to Mary, eldest daughter of Michael O'Donoghue, Esq., Cork.
 Young and Moriarty—At the Roman Catholic Church, Cahirciveen, county Kerry, Mr. John Young, proprietor of the Valencia Hotel, to Miss Ellen Moriarty, eldest daughter of Mr. Maurice Moriarty, merchant, Cahirciveen.
 Moore and Joy—At Fairfield Church, Buxton, the Rev. J. Charles Moore, eldest son of the Rev. J. L. Moore, D.D., Vice-Provost of Trinity College, Dublin, to Mary Annette Susan, daughter of Henry Holmes Joy, Q.C., LL.D., of Mountjoy-square, Dublin.
 Kennedy and Oulton—At the Church of SS. Philip and James, Holyrood, the Rev. Lancelot Studdert Kennedy, A.M., rector of Newdigate, Surrey, and son of the late Dean of Clonfert, to Kate Louisa, daughter of the Rev. Richard Oulton, B.D., Garrison Chaplain at Belfast.

DEATHS.

Evans—On the 15th inst., at the residence of his son, Dr. Evans, Bradford, Yorkshire, Samuel Evans, Esq., of the firm of Francis Spaight and Sons, sincerely and deservedly regretted by his family and friends.
 Fraser—In this city, of disease of the heart, suddenly, though not quite unexpected, Charles Fraser, Esq., V.S., well known and thoroughly appreciated for his kindly disposition, good nature, gentlemanly manners, and skill in his profession. He has been for years a resident in Limerick, and has been well deserving of the esteem and respect in which he was held by all classes.
 Reynolds—At his residence, Wood Park, Rathmines, county Dublin, William Reynolds, Esq., J.P.
 Dundas—At the Rectory, Moynalty, Ada Maria, second daughter of the Rev. W. J. Dundas.
 Haynes—At his residence, Crossbarry, co. Cork, Abraham Haynes, Esq.
 Hatchell—At Fortfield, Terenure, the Right Hon. John Hatchell.
 Weir—At his residence, Beach, Queenstown, county Cork, Mr. John Weir.
 Carden—At Gathart-road, South Kensington, London, Thomas Carden, Esq., of River Lyons, King's Co.
 Wigmore—At Queenstown, county Cork, Thomas Wigmore, late of Ballyvaddock, near Midleton.
 Acheson—At College-hill, Highbury, Martha, relict of the late Joseph Acheson, Esq., of Dublin.
 Burton—At Woodlands Lodge, Blackheath, Rear-Admiral George Guy Burton.
 Barbor—At Suenton House, Nottingham, suddenly, Major Robert Douglas Barbor, late of the Enniskillen Dragoons.
 McCallum—At his residence, Leith Cottage, Maryon-road, Woolwich, Gr.—Mr. Robert McCallum, Royal Artillery.
 Welchman—At Leamington, Major-General John Welchman, H.M.'s Bengal Army.

1, Gerge-street, and 31, DUBLIN
 July 28

AN Old Established District Agent on Commission. One having a connection with the leading Wholesale Merchants and large Dealers. First-class references and security. Address T. C. B., W. H. Middle Abbey Street, Dublin. August 13.

Good Plain Cook and The

A RESPECTABLE young man in a suitable situation as above in a situation found willing and obliging; can be trusted, and will do a little washing. Address to E.F., Office of the Times, Dublin. August 16.

A YOUNG MAN, of good education and long and satisfactory disservice, highly recommended by his last employer, thoroughly understands his business in every department, wants a situation as above. Application to be made to Mr. Boyd, William-street, Limerick. August 16.

Limerick Corps

Town Hall
A SPECIAL MEETING of the Council will be held at the Town Hall, on THURSDAY the 12th of Aug., 1870, at the hour of Ten o'clock, pursuant to a requisition, signed by the Council. If a sufficient number of the Council do not attend within the time mentioned, no business will be transacted.

GENERAL BUSINESS
 To receive Reports from Committees.
 To Read Correspondence.
 To open Tenders (if any.)

NOTICE OF MEETING
 T. C. Parker—That at the meeting of the Council, I will move that the committees of this Corporation be referred to the Press. August 16.