

in charge of two of the neutrality
by the transfer-
the war steamer.

NORTH OF

hens, Tuesday.
lier was attacked military. Three quisition of 50,000
M. Ceaudelocque
aken as hostages ;
l.
sday, 9.50 a.m.
esscul, chief town
leine, twenty-five

werin, Tuesday.
been placed under
Duke of Macklen-

SION.

rence, Tuesday.
ference yesterday
tred, the French
lorence. M. Thiers
e. A Royal decree customs line bel the rest of the also introduces the
finances, coinage,

ERDUN.

Lille, Tuesday.
om the neighbour-
at the garrison in a
ay hors de combat.
ant the Prussians
ed an assault, but

BAKI.

Lille, Tuesday.
ted at Lille to take North. He will be

e has placed at the eral several vessels
o perform the ser-
orts in case commu-

NST THE BOM- PARIS.

ernment will not in-

Leake and Irvine—At the Roman Catholic Cathedral, Marlborough-street, Dublin, Dr. Jonas Richard Leake, Assist.-Surgeon, H.M.'s 80th Regt., eldest son of Jonas Leake, Esq., M.D., Lougham House, Twickenham, Middlesex, late of Rathkeale, county Limerick, to Louisa, second daughter of Edward C. Irvine, Esq., of Belfast.
Thomas and Jubb—At the Parish Church, Bray, county Wicklow, the Rev. Francis Heaton Thomas, A.M., Christ's Church, Carysfort, Blackrock, to Frances Jane, widow of the late Richard Jubb, Esq., of Cliffe, Yorkshire, and Glen East, county Waterford.
Molony and Galway—At Dublin, Patrick John Molony, Esq., J.P., of Cragg, county Clare, to Lydia, only daughter of the late Richard Galway, Esq., of Dublin.
Fleming and Heffernan—At St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Irishtown, Clonmel, John M. Fleming, Esq., Butlerstown, county Waterford, to Bridget, widow of the late Mr. P. Heffernan.
M'Carthy and Bremner—At Christ Church, Bray, county Wicklow, Dr. D. A. M'Carthy, R.N., to Christina, youngest daughter of Alexander Bremner, Esq., of Benmore, Queenstown, county Cork.
Hogan and Lewis—At the Roman Catholic Church, Queens-town, county Cork, William Hogan, Scott's Square, to Lizzie Sarah, second daughter of Captain Thomas Lewis, and niece to Mrs. Garthwaite, Rob Roy Hotel, Queens-town.
Maguire and Kilgarriff—At Dublin, Patrick Maguire, Esq., Enniskillen, son of Charles Maguire, Esq., Bundoran, to Mary, youngest daughter of Joseph Kilgarriff, of Dublin.
Safford and Jodrell—At St. Margaret's, Westminster, Capt. D. I. Safford, 97th Regiment, youngest son of the Rev. J. Safford, rector of Mettingham, Suffolk, to Heloise Napier, eldest daughter of the Rev. Henry Jodrell, rector of Gisleham, Suffolk.

DEATHS.

Irwin—This morning, suddenly, at her residence, 14, Upper Mallow-street, Bithia, beloved wife of William Irwin, Esq.
O'Connell—On the 18th inst., after a protracted illness, Mr. William O'Connell, leather merchant, late of William-st., aged 46 years.
Bowen—At Camira, Ballymackey, Nenagh, Edward Neville Cole, youngest son of Robert Cole Bowen, of Bowen's Court, county Cork, Esq.
Green—At Ade-aide Cottage, Clonmel, the infant daughter of James Ellis Green, Esq.
Pennafather—At the Palace, Kilkenny, the Rev. William Pennafather, A.M., Rector of Callan, and Precentor of the Cathedral of St. Canice, second son of the late Chief Justice Pennafather, and brother-in-law of the Lord Bishop of Ossory, Ferns, and Leighlin.
Le Febure—At Winton-road, Dublin, Catherine, widow of the late Joseph M. Le Febure, formerly of Gorey, county Wexford.
Cole—At Dawson-street, Dublin, John Willoughby Sneed Cole, Esq., of Bloomfield, Malahide.
Browne—At Aitramont Lodge, county Wexford, Arthur Browne, Esq., of Newtown, county Roscommon.
Alley—Sarah Arabella, eldest daughter of the late Rev. Geo. Ailey, rector of Moymett parish, Trim, co. Meath.
Arnold—At her residence, Blackrock, Eliza Anne Arnold, eldest daughter of the late James Arnold, of Dublin.
Browne—At her mother's residence, Langford-place, Cork, Charlotte Elizabeth, youngest daughter of the late Rev. William Browne, rector of Dungarvan, co. Kilkenny.
O'Leary—In Cork, Alice Mary Farmer, youngest daughter of the late James O'Leary, Esq., of Lucan.
Butler—At Shrewsbury-road, Bayswater, Margaret, widow of the late Thomas Lapp Butler, Esq., 77th Regiment, and niece of the late Major-General Sir James Dennie, K.C.B.
Nugent—At Pau, Charlotte, wife of Arthur Nugent, county Down.
Stucley—At Murree, India, Lewis George Orchard Stucley, Lieut. H.M.'s 80th Regt., second son of Sir Geo. Stucley, Bart.

lively. Several of the keys, and two pushed a c was drawn by two small h of the children were also s cess is exceedingly simple ners. She herself carries to the patients in the I everything there arrange lent manner. She has ha white sheets and coverlet up. By her order flowers and a concert was given b haus, on which occasion th in their beds into the cou has caused several old ser marchioness to be summon also visited the wounded drath, to the latter of wh for the male and fem
wounded, with whom sh friendly manner. Her like his handsome old
it is always a pleasure t splendid child. The Cro doubt possesses a great fond of simplicity and goo here desired to place a Castle, but she refused th arrived with her children cognised or saluted her been expected, and she rally one of her children o
out. It is no wonder s especially those of the m an open hand for the in their need; many of th
returning home."

On Saturday afternoon
o'clock, M. Foda, who w Mr. Stroud, of Camden has lately acted in that c was driven with his wife high spirited horse. Wl road, Eltham, the jingl attached to some vans c take fright, and the anim control it, darted along On reaching the turning c
to Chislehurst Common, effort to guide the horse not succeed in time. On a ditch, the spring broke detached from the body galloped away. The tra
pletely over, and the oc M. Foda was picked up ful wound in the skull, a sensible, was severely
much shaken.