CHRONICLE OFFICE, 7 p.m.

The Times Versailles correspondent telegraphs that the Duke of Mecklenburg utterly defeated the French yesterday near Artenay. The Germans took 12 guns.

THE EASTERN QUESTION. TEXT OF PRINCE GORTSCHAKOFF'S REPLY.

The following is the full text of Prince Gortschakoff's reply to Lord Granville, being a despatch addressed to Baron Brunnow, dated 20th November, 1870:—

Monsieur le Baron,—The Ambassador of England has read and left with me a copy of Lord Granville's despatch in reply to our communication of October, 19th. I hastened to submit it to his Majesty the Emperor. Our august master was pleased to point out that it contained in the first page an expression of the earnest desire of the Cabinet of London to preserve cordial relations between England and Russia; and secondly, an assurance that the Cabinet would not have refused to enter into an examination of the Treaty of 1856, so far as it had been modified by circumstances. As for the question of strict right stated by Lord Granville, we have no wish to enter into any discussion, recall any precedent, or cite any example. Such a controversy would ENGLISH SCHOOL BOARD ELECTIONS.—Lord Howard of Glossop, the Roman Catholic candidate in the Westminster district for the London School Board, has not been elected. Lord Howard made every possible exertion to obtain a seat. Mr. W. H. Smith, M.P., was first on the list. Mrs. Gray, a lady candidate for Chelsea, was not elected. Miss Garrett heads the poll in Marylebone with nearly 50,000 votes, Professor Huxley, second and Mr. Hepworth Dixon sixth. Seven were returned. Miss Emily Davies stands at the head of the poll in Greenwich; Dr. Miller, a Roman Catholic priest, and Rob Roy Macgregor are the other successful candidates. Three Nonconformists and two Churchmen are returned for Lambeth. Canon Cromwell, Lord Lawrence, Mr. Grey, and Dr. Kid are believed to be the winners in Chelsea. Messrs. Reed and Torrent, M.P., returned for Hackney and Finsbury. Only one working man is successful—Lucraft for Finsbury.
