SPRING W: WORK.

Advantages of the late and present general spring is largely taken in getting Farmers appear year by year m ore disposed to depend upon pa-turage in preference to tillage. The high price given for butter and beef together with the high wages to be paid for and the co- parative scarcity of agricultural labourers combine to adopt this system of farming make it profitable and agony of mind until Tuesday at noon, when she took from a cupboard a bottle containing laudanum, and drank a quantity of the contents. She was only prevented drinking the whole by a servant named Alice White, who took the bottle from her mistress's hand. Mrs Grindley went to the room where her husband's body was laid out, and she lay down on the bed beside it. The servant, greatly alarmed, ran for Dr. Taylor, who soon came and tried to administer an emetic, but she refused to have, and his efforts to persuade her were of no avail. She persisted in lying by the side of her deceased husband. She lingered until half-past nine on Tuesday night, when she expired in the presence of the doctor.—Liverpool Mercury.
