

stantly allow ing refused to
 resorted to for
 ne all in our
 pital of France
 e who, having
 lacks the cou-
 ae consequence
 or the blood of
 the impending

HIS TROOPS.
 eographs that
 cessed the Itallows:—"We vigorous, I old
 principles, we
 ely the French
 lic. I am very old soldiers, re-
 onour of Italy.
 e battle of our
 of your cheers
 ch." This ad-
 ts of "Viva la
 publique Fran-
 ole yesterday,

S IN THE
 France has now
 the armies of the north, the
 otal strength of

RESISTANCE.
 e desire to con-
 er the present
 pedantic. The
 nce. The Go-
 fence, and that
 that a Consti-
 e resolution of
 tive for calling
 g that the Ashe existing Mid be scarcely a
 recommend an

Tabuteau—At Stirling Castle, the wife of Capt. A. G. Tabuteau, 93rd Sutherland Highlanders, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

- Tippetts and Deacon—On the 1st Oct., at St. Paul's Church, Landour, East Indies, by the Rev. J. Moore, Chaplain, Alfred M. Tippetts, Surgeon 5th Northumberland Fusiliers, to Mary Elizabeth Isabella D'Courcy Deacon, only child of the late Colonel Charles Clement Deacon, 61st Regt.
- Nugent and Whitty—At St. Stephen's Church, Dublin, Geo. Nugent, Esq., of Greenville, county Cavan, fourth son of the Rev. Edmond Nugent, of Charleville, county Dublin, to Elizabeth, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Ravenscroft Whitty, Esq., of Ricketstown House, county Carlow.
- Peat and Magill—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Mr. Henry Peat, Rathmines, to Anne, daughter of George Magill, Esq., of Wellington House, Dublin.
- Crompton and Romilly—At St. John's, Paddington, London, Henry Crompton, second son of the late Mr. Justice Crompton, to Lucy Henrietta, youngest daughter of Lord Romilly.
- Goodlake and Curwen—At St. Peter's, Eaton-square, London, Colonel Gerald Goodlake, V.O., A.D.C. to the Queen, Coldstream Guards, to Margaret, only child of Robert Ewing Curwen, Esq.
- Branfill and Shakespear—At Bangalore, Major Brydges R. Branfill, H.M.'s Indian Army, to Amy, third daughter of Brigadier-General G. B. Shakespear.

DEATHS.

- Owen—On the 7th inst., at Rose Cottage, near this city, in the prime of life, after a few days' illness, Mr. G. C. Owen, sincerely regretted by his family and numerous friends.—His remains were conveyed by train for interment to the family burial-place, Portlaw, county Tipperary.
- Slattery—Nov. 6, at Derrynahilla, Feakle, co. Clare, Bridget, the beloved wife of Mr. Michael Slattery, in the 57th year of her age.
- Unthank—At the residence of her brother-in-law, R. Southall, Esq., Elm Villa, Kingston-hill, London, Margaret, wife of Gabriel Fisher Unthank, of Limerick, aged 56 years.
- Hyland—At Ballitore House, Ballitore, Thomas Hyland, Esq., formerly of the Royal Navy, and General Post-office, Edinburgh, and in later years Postmaster-General at Hong Kong.
- Monks—Isabella, youngest surviving daughter of the late Denis Monks, Esq., of Dominick-street, Dublin.
- Holton—At her lodgings, Lower Dorset-street, Dublin, Mrs. Louisa Harriett Holton, of Mardyke Parade, Cork, relict of Thomas Holton, Esq., formerly of George-street, Cork.
- M'Auley—At Upper Fitzwilliam-street, Dublin (the residence of her son-in-law, T. Brinsley Sheridan, Esq.), Catherine, wife of Richard M'Auley, Esq., Rathbeggan, county Meath.
- Kennedy—At Clapham-road, London, Alexr. L. Kennedy, Esq., late of H.M.'s Customs, London, and last surviving son of the late Rev. Alexander Kennedy, of Cork.
- Gill—At Limes-terrace, Lewisham, the Rev. Henry Gill, D.D., one of the London District Secretaries of the British and Foreign Bible Society, and youngest brother of the Revs. William and George Gill.
- Graham—At East Levant, near Chichester, Captain Henry Oliver Graham, Madras Staff Corps.

tenders, sealed and manples, to be left with the Goveron the above day of meeting.
 10th November, 1870.

Stable and Coa

WANTED, a two Coach House in A convenient supply of water
 Apply to the Hall Porter

A COOK

WANTS a Situation,
 business in all the
 good testimonials and Address M. P., Mrs. Blac

OFFICIAL IGNORANCE!—The
 nal letter from the chief ma-
 corporation:—"Dear Sur, to be made a mare, and shal you if you will send me down provisions fetting for the occ brother the old mare, and the
 I am, Sur," &c.

Answer:—"Sir,—In obed
 I have sent two bushels of tl you have to treat the old ma bran to make a mash."—Blar

DUNVILLE & Co., Belfast, of whisky in the world. T is recommended by the medi ference to French brands. S cases for home use or exports application to Messrs. DUN Irish Distilleries, Belfast,

WM. YOUNGER & Co.'s India Pale and Edinburgh A and in the highest state of tained from Bottlers and Purchasers of the Ales in observe signature and trad Breweries, Edinburgh; Lin wick-street, Beware of ot
 stituted,