DEATHS

On the 18th inst., at his residence, No. 2, Eccles-street, Dublin, John Thomas Verdon, Esq., who is deeply regretted by his widow and a very large circle of friends. Mr. Verdon, who was himself a gentleman greatly known and respected in Dublin, was father of the late Alderman Verdon, who was three times Mayor of Sligo, and proprietor of the Sligo Champion, in those times, during the O'Connell agitation, when political excitement ran high, and who yet gained a deserved popularity in that town during his Corporate and Mayoralty career.
 This morning, at 125, George-street, Limerick, Laura, youngest child of Mr. Richard Perse, aged 7 months.
 On the 23rd inst., at Millbrook Cottage, Ballycough, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with Christian resignation, trusting in the merits of his Redeemer, Mr. William Musgrave, aged 90 years.
 On the 29th of December, at 83, Gold-street, Brooklyn, Mrs. Hannah Barry, relict of Richard Barry, merchant, of Limerick, in the 78th year of her age.
 At Kingstown, Agnes Perse, daughter of Lieut-Colonel Thomas Page Eyre, of Eyrecourt, co. Galway.
 At Great Great George's-street, Cork, Michael Sullivan, Esq.
 At South Abbey, Youghal, Captain Wm. Hill, late of the 9th Regiment.

GENTLEMEN,—Permit me to return you my most sincere thanks for the kind support you rendered me on the occasion of electing an Auditor for your Borough, and placing my name, as you so kindly have done, by a large majority, at the head of the poll. Though my worthy opponent took an earlier start, made a most indefatigable canvass, which secured for him very many of my most intimate and personal friends, yet the popular feeling so forcibly expressed on that occasion secured for me a decisive majority. The duties attached to the office, where your interests are so deeply concerned, shall receive, in connection with my esteemed friend and colleague, Mr. James Nash, my most serious attention.
 I am, Gentlemen,
 Your's respectfully,
WILLIAM PURCELL.
