

Pianofortes and Harmoniums.

MR. KELLER

WILL import the largest and most magnificent Stock of Pianofortes ever sent to Ireland in August.

HARMONIUMS.

Mr. EVANS, the Inventor of the Harmonium in 1844, is making expressly for Mr. Keller the largest Walnut Harmonium, with 16 stops, and his patent Gonopodaion, or Knee Swell, ever seen in Limerick, and also a new design, and first Harmonium of the kind ever sent to Ireland. This Harmonium is called the Chancel.

Pianoforte Tuning, Regulating, repairing, &c. Mr. KELLER attends to this important part of his business personally. As Mr. Keller is pronounced by the highest of the Nobility of Ireland, and the leading Firms in London to be unrivalled as a Tuner he considers it unnecessary to publish Testimonials.

Oct. 5.

LIMMER'S SELF-RAISING FLOUR makes delicious BREAD, PUDDINGS, CAKES, and all kinds of PASTRY, entirely superseding Yeast or Baking Powder, and effecting a great saving of time and labour. It is very Nutritious, Easy of Digestion, Economical in use, and Perfectly Pure and Wholesome (in this respect differing entirely from the various deleterious "Powders" now being offered to the Public). One trial will prove its superiority. Sold in 1 lb., 2 lb., and 3 lb. Packets by all the Principal Grocers and Corn Dealers in Town and Country. Wholesale—St. Mary's Granary, Upper St. Irlington, London, N. Sold in Limerick by Bennie & Sons, April 22.

THE LATE REV. J. O. STENSON.

A FUND is being raised for the Widow and Children of this estimable Clergyman.
