(Oct. 6).

HARVEST THANKSGIVING AT ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S CHURCH.—The annual harvest thanksgiving was celebrated in this Church on Sunday, the 2nd inst. The services as usual were choral, those at 11.30 and 7 being prefaced by the harvest hymn, "Come ye thankful people, come," sung in procession, and concluded by Psalm 150 in the morning, and 147 in the evening, chaunted as the choir left the Church. The congregations were very large, and the offertories given to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel amounted to £26. The Church was beautifully decorated with corn, grapes, and flowers.

THE HOUSE, OFFICES, AND LANDS CALLED

Albert Villa,

At CORBALLY, near Limerick.

THE HOUSE is beautifully situated for a Gentleman's Residence, containing a spacious hall and staircase, dining-room and drawing-room, both large; five bedrooms, servants' bedrooms, kitchens, pantries, and water closet, with an excellent cellar, and extensive basement accommodation. The House has been newly painted and papered throughout, in a superior manner, and is ready for immediate occupation without any outlay whatever.

The OFFICES are in a state of thorough repair, and comprise two stables and coach house, with loft over all, cow house, cart house, piggeries, and other useful concerns, in an excellent yard.

The LANDS (all in grass) extend to 23 acres and 3 perches Irish plantation measure, (equal to 37 acres 1 rood and 1 perch statute measure), including an excellent walled-in garden. The Land is of prime quality for grazing or tillage, and is capable of yielding very large returns.

The property is bounded on one side by the Shannon, and from the House there is a splendid view of the richly wooded scenery on the river. The property itself is well planted, and there is an excellent entrance gate and Lodge. The distance from Limerick is about one mile.

The HOUSE and LANDS will be Let together, or separately, or the Interest in the whole will be Sold.

For orders to view, and for further particulars, apply to WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Esq., Manager Provincial Bank of Ireland, Limerick; or to JOHN BARRINGTON, Esq., Solicitor, George Street, Limerick.
