hoggets from 24s to 30s. Bacon pigs sold at 56s per cwt.

ENNIS, THIS DAY.

The woman named Neylan, found guilty on yesterday of the unlawful possession of the £5 note, was in consequence of three former convictions, sentenced to five years penal servitude, which terminated the Crown business.

THREATENING NOTICE.

It is alleged that Mr Studdert, who at present resides in the dwelling and farm of Rossleven, near this town, lately occupied by Mr Michael Kerin, JP, has been served with a threatening notice. A former tenant, Mr Moran, also received a similar warning, in consequence of which he had abandoned it.— The widowed lady, who has been anxious to set the place to a good tenant, is suffering much persecution by the attempts to prevent her from dealing with respectable persons.

PROVINCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

ROBBERY OF AMERICAN BONDS.

John Phillips, who was arrested a short time ago on board the homeward Guion steamer Idaho, was brought into Cork on Saturday before Messrs Starkie and O'Brien, charged with a larceny of American bonds, amounting to 40,000 dollars. A warrant from the Chief Secretary was received, empowering the prisoner's detention in gaol till demanded by the American Government. The necessary proofs of the prisoner's guilt not having yet arrived, the prisoner was remanded for eight days. From letters received from America it appeared that the prisoner was collector of Inland Revenue, New York; and, irregularities being noticed in the tobacco account, his presence was requested at Washington. Instead, however, of proceeding there, he took passage in a steamer for this country, where he was arrested, through a cable despatch.

MURKIN ON BOARD SHIP.—Six sailors belonging to the ship John Banks, Captain Reynolds, from San Francisco, with wheat, which arrived in Cork, on Saturday, were arrested under warrants for mutiny.
The ship left San Francisco in November last, and on the 28th of January the crew refused to work.
The first and second mate sent forward to order the men to duty, and on entering the fore-castle, the second mate was attacked by the prisoners with knives and iron bolts. He escaped with difficulty, having received a severe stab wound in the arm. The captain, seeing the disposition of the men, armed himself and his officers with revolvers, being apprehensive of serious consequences. He did not place the offenders under arrest, or ask them to work, so that the captain and officers had to work the ship themselves. It afterwards transpired that a conspiracy had been formed to murder the captain and officers, and take the ship into Liverpool, and that they were only deterred from carrying out their san-guinary object by fear, knowing that the captain and officers were armed, and prepared to resist violence.
The prisoners will be brought before the magistrates to-day.

A large rick of hay, the property of Mr Sitton Cullen, a respectable farmer, residing at Tincurry, near Ennisbrosky, was maliciously set fire last Friday night and consumed on Saturday.

ESCAPE OF A LUNATIC.—As Mr Wilkinson, the sexton of the parish church of Nenagh was engaged in the vestry room previous to the opening of the doors for Divine service on Sunday morning his attention was attracted to a loud knocking at the door, on opening which he saw a man, apparently about thirty years of age, wrapped up in a rug of blankets, but with no other article of clothing whatsoever. In reply to the sexton; the stranger demanded admission to the Church, but the former, at once perceiving that the poor fellow was insane, immediately sent for the Constabulary, and Const.
McGettigan having arrived, he recognized him as a pauper lunatic from the workhouse, named Laurence Keating. It was subsequently ascertained that Keating made his escape from the top story of the infirmary on the previous night, and it is said that he made his descent by means of a line made of a number of sheets knotted together. When taken charge of by the police the poor fellow's feet were cut and bleeding, and he must have been wandering about the neighbourhood of the town the greater part of the night, as he was heard shouting by several persons. On a former occasion he escaped from the workhouse, and was not found for a whole day, when it was ascertained that the clothes he had on were lost by or stolen from him. O'Neil Quin, Esq., the medical officer of the workhouse, reported the circumstance to the board of guardians at the time, and stated that Keating was a dangerous lunatic, voters of the polling day, for refreshments, by leave of the agent. Patrick Coleman, of Ardagh, deposed that he was visited the night before the election, and threatened if he did not support Martin. The same occurred to Michael Boyce, of Ardagh, and to Thomas Boyce. Francis Dowdall, of Ballymahon, was beaten subsequent to the election, at which he was polled for Captain Greville. Michael Brady's house, at Ardagh, was fired into because he would not promise to vote for Martin. Captain Greville was examined, and stated that his father paid all the expenses of the contest. The trial is expected to close to-morrow.

OUTRAGE IN THE KING'S COUNTY.—On Saturday, as the afternoon train for Dublin, conveying Chief Justice Monahan and the members of the bar from Tullamore, approached the Geashill station, a stone was thrown by some person which broke one of the windows of the first class carriage in which the Crown Council were sitting, but, happily, without doing any personal injury. The police authorities at Geashill were informed of the occurrence, but as yet no clue has been discovered as to the perpetrator of the outrage.
