

... 10s. each; Mr. Michael
ld to Mr. Shaw, county
s at £9 12s. 6d.; Messrs.
I bought 5 bullocks from
t £23 each; 8 from Mr.
ifers from Mr. J. Spaight ers from Mr. Molony at er fat cattle at £18 each.
obert Sheehy, Killeedy
rown colt by "Planet," Meath.

... EP.
orly supplied, although
nd. Mr. L. Kelly sold
ers for £3 7s 6d each, to a
of Adare, sold 40 hog-O'Dea of Patrick's-well,
ach; Mr. Frost of Smiths-
Mr. James Shine, at £2
k Connell, Co. Cork, sold
ach; Mr. M'Inerney, Co.
hoggets to Mr. Sheahan,
y, Six-mile-bridge, sold a
h; Lady Massy's steward Malone, at £2 5s. each;
fteen) to Mr. Shine, at £2
sold eleven h. at £2 7s.
4s. each.

INTELLIGENCE.

(CORRESPONDENT.)
SESSIONS—FRIDAY.
—Ed. Curling, Esq., in the M. moned William Power for d premises as weekly tene-
after notice to quit, &c.
adant was to prove that it
ad after a very long investi-
vidence was, in the opinion of a yearly holding. Dis-ce, with 10s. costs.
nmoned Michael M'Namara
it of game on Sunday last,
had two dead hares in his
was proved, but as a doubt sed by Mr. Cosgrove, attor-
case was adjourned for 14
the Law Adviser.

... rose, Coroner, held an in-Friday, the 28th inst., on ild of Mary Somers, which,
he night before, there was a ad been strangled. It was e was examined as to certain

Henderson and Hayes—On the 28th inst., by the Rev. W. Kingsland, Chapel, Bradford, Yorkshire, by the Rev. W. Kingsland, Andrew Henderson to Annie Sewell, eldest daughter of the late James Hayes, of this city.
Clibborn and Courtenay—At the Cathedral, Waterford, Henry Eugene, youngest son of the late Barclay Clibborn, of Anner Park, Clonmel, Esq., to Mary, eldest daughter of Edward Courtenay, of John's Hill, Waterford, Esq.
Gifford and Murdoch—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Geo. Gifford, of Clontarf, county Dublin, Esq., to Prudentia, daughter of the late Robert Murdoch, of Leeson-street, Dublin, and Crievelands, county Monaghan, Esq.
Jefferys and Mansfield—At St. Ann's Church, Dublin, Frank Jefferys, of Berner-street, London, to Jane Elizabeth, eldest daughter of William Mansfield, of Dublin.
Miller and Deverelle—At Monasterevan Church, Joseph Miller, of Dublin, to Kate, youngest daughter of the late Weldon Page Deverelle, Esq., Cloneygeth House, Monasterevan.
Hone and Hone—At Clontarf Church, county Dublin, James S. Hone, late 13th Hussars, of St. Doulogh's Park, county Dublin, Esq., to Lucy, eldest daughter of the late Addison Hone, of Rosevale, Raheny, in the same county.
Lowry and Lyons—At Magheragall Church, county Antrim, John Colvill Lowry, Esq., son of the late James Corry Lowry, of Mountjoy-square, Dublin, and Rockdale House, county Tyrone, to Constance Adelaide Hastings, daughter of W. T. B. Lyons, Esq., D. L., Brookhill, Lisburn.
Burton and Davenport—At Skeffington, Leicestershire, Captain Charles Burton, 99th (Lanarkshire) Regt., youngest son of the late W. F. Burton, Esq., Burton Hall, Carlou, to Mary Edith, daughter of the Rev. J. C. Davenport.
Festing and Legrew—At St. Peter's, Bournemouth, Captain E. Robert Festing, Royal Engineers, to Frances Mary, youngest surviving daughter of the late Rev. Arthur Legrew, rector of Caterham.

DEATHS.

O'Carroll—This morning, to the great regret of all who knew him, Francis O'Carroll, Esq., F.C.D., Resident Mathematical and English Assistant at the Limerick Collegiate Academy.
Kelly—On the 27th inst., Francis, son of Mr. James Kelly, Clenagh Castle, Newmarket-on-Fergus, aged 3½ years.
Lutton—At the Manse, Stephen-street, Sligo, William John, second son of the Rev. William Lutton, Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Minister.
Stoker—At his residence, Dyke House, Cork, Henry Wm. Stoker.
Brennan—At his residence, Main-street, Dungarvan, Edwd. Brennan, Esq., late post-master.
Boylan—At Upper Clanbrassil-street, Dublin, Mr. William Boylan, formerly Librarian of the Royal College of Surgeons.
Landers—At Talbot-street, Dublin, Mr. William Landers, of Kilkenny.
Spiers—At Rathgar, county Dublin, John Spiers, Esq., of Navan.
Quin—At Kildare-street, Dublin, William Charles Quin, Esq., of Burleigh, county Wexford.
Porter—At Cape Town, Cape of Good Hope, Wm. Porter, jun., Esq., second son of the Rev. John Scott Porter, of Belfast.
Kingstone—At Fort George, Bombay, Surgeon Henry Courtney Kingstone, M.B., F.C.D., son of Arthur J. Kingstone, of Mosstown, county Longford, Esq.
Seymour—At St. George's-square, South Belgravia, Sarah Lydia, Lady Seymour, relict of the late Sir Wm. Seymour, and eldest daughter of the late Lieut.-General Sir Henry Oakes, Bart.
Prescott—At Clevedon, Harriet Ann, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Prescott.

rity, that the ass
according to whic
tholic deputation
the war he woul
tion with other
Italian occupati
ply on the occasi
or any similar fo
pressed. The d
his Majesty's gen
tions and interest
a future time.
troops to France
course may be d
efficiency of the country.

DU

Wharton, Conser
Thompson, Libel

THE

The Judicial
has dismissed M
his case with cos

CORK BUT

ORDINARY

Firsts,
Seconds,
Thirds,
Fourths,
Fifths,
Sixths,
1250 firkins in

DUBL

L. C

5, Smit

Although we both sheep and cannot report a mutton, both of rates.

Prime beef, 7
and inferior, 6
to 9½d per lb.
25s to 38s each.
Beasts, 1,37½

Demand for much lower, a
tered.