

prices unaltered. Large supply of 1 sold, at fair price; demand brisk.

CORN MARKET—YESTERDAY.
English wheat neglected: foreign Town flour unchanged; country rather in buyers' favour. Barley cheaper. Maize 6d cheaper. Beans anged. British: Wheat 190 qrs; Foreign: Wheat, 5,720 qrs; barley, s, 15,120 qrs; maize, 2,820 qrs;
t, 6,620 barrels.

WESTMEATH BILL.
discussing this bill, remarks that the
as made out such a case for excep-on that the natural question is why her. It is acknowledged that the of the law has entirely broken down.
things is such that the leading cri-efs of the organization, the hirers of and the murderers themselves, are known. The Times would have ne machinery for the more speedy ment of prisoners. But, of course, to force on the Government more rs than it demands. Every wrong eople could complain has been ree conscience of Englishmen will dealing promptly and sternly with Views holds that the feeling which in the speeches of the Tory Lords, by contrast, to give the Ministerial of moderation, suggests the dangers sibly arise in working it. As a nconstitutional direction in which our Irish policy tend, it is imposok on it with regret. It is a recurdency of evil times. Should the mea-ther and more statesmenlike scheme which will remove not merely the ead this conspiracy, but the social misery which gave them opportus that exceptional as are the powers overnment has applied to Parliabe said that they are greater than nger and Co.'s India Pale and Edin the finest quality and in the highest ion, may be obtained from Bottlers ipal Retailers. Purchasers are reserve signature and trade mark on brands are frequently substituted.

burgh, Limerick Stores, 12, Bruns-October 22

daughter.
Brendon—At Anglesea, Hants, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel Brendon, Royal Artillery, prematurely, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

Battley and Graham—At Monkstown Church, co. Dublin, Rochfort Clothworthy Loftus Battley, second son of Major Doyle Battley, of Belvedere Hall, county Wicklow, and grandson of Rochfort, first Earl of Belvedere, to Anna Mary Sadleir, eldest daughter of Captain John Graham,
J.P., of Hymenstown, county Tipperary, and Mosaphir, Kingstown, county Dublin.
Fisher and Dempster—At Riverside, Newry, Joseph R.
Fisher, of Bessbrook, co. Armagh, eldest son of Reuben J.
Fisher, of Belfast, and formerly of Youghal, co. Cork, to Helen, eldest daughter of Robert Dempster, Esq., Newry.
Porter and Fitzsimons—At St. Stephen's Church, Dublin,
William B. Porter, Esq., of Killena Park, and Tamgor
House, county Wexford, son of the late Benjamin Porter, M.D., of Lorne County, to Jane, second daughter of the late Rev. William Fitzsimons, incumbent of Monamolin, county Wexford.
Sharples and Freeman—At Bombay Cathedral, by special license, Captain J. Sharples, H.M.'s 39th Regt., to Elmina L., youngest daughter of the Rev. E. Deane Freeman, Clifton, Fermoy, county Cork.
Wilson and Ryan—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Doctor Thomas Wilson, surgeon, Alton, Hampshire, eldest son of George Wilson, Esq., of Georgefield, N.B., to Aimee
Sarah, second daughter of Michael Ryan, M.D., F.R.C.S.
Eng., Upper Leeson-street, Dublin.
Thompson and Pim—At Friends' Meeting House, Belfast, Elias H. Thompson, of Slieve-na-Failte, Whiteabbey, to Elizabeth Clibborn, only daughter of the late John Pim, of Belfast.
Peters and Grantham—At Highgate, London, Edward N.
Peters, Capt. R.E., to Elizabeth Ellen, daughter of Capt.
Grantham, R.E.

DEATHS.

Myles—This morning, at his residence, Upper Mallow-street, Mr. John Myles, senior partner of the firm of John and Thomas Myles, to the great grief of his family and friends, but rejoicing in the prospect of a blessed inheritance with his Redeemer, on whose merits he had the fullest reliance.
Behan—At Kilkee, county Clare, suddenly, Mr. Patrick D.
Behan, grocer, aged 43 years.
Hanning—At Galtee Castle, county Tipperary, Mr. William Hanning, the respected forester of the Irish Land Company.
Bell—At her residence, Rathgar-road, Dublin, Mrs. Rebecca Bell, relict of Captain R. H. Bell, of Bellbrook, county Antrim, and daughter of the late H. Bowland, Esq., of Rock House, Arklow.
Tisdall—At Sunnyside, Clontarf, county Dublin, Thomas Tisdall, eldest son of the late Rev. James Tisdall, rector of Ballinderry, county Londonderry.
Hamilton—At Maxwell-road, Rathgar, county Dublin, Mary Anne, wife of James Hamilton, Surveyor of Income Tax.
Fortescue—At Monaghan, George Elrington Fortescue, Esq., County Inspector, Royal Irish Constabulary.
Grattan—At Fortwilliam Park, Belfast, John Grattan, Esq.
McGrath—At Chapel-en-le-Frith, Derbyshire, George Robt.
McGrath, Esq., of Dublin.
McDougall—At his residence, Oxford-street, Kilburn, Capt.
George Frederick McDougall, R.N.
Devonsher—At St. Anne's, Cheltenham, Louisa Charlotte, wife of Abraham Newenham Devonsher, Esq., Mountain Lodge, Rathormack, county Cork.
Mara—At Antigua, the Hon. Richard Weston Mara, LL.D., Attorney-General of that Island.
Crotty—At sea, on board the City of Paris, returning from America, Richard, son of Mr. Francis Crotty, of Cashel, county Tipperary.

needlew
tion to
by her
Appl:
rick.

FOR R
finest co
CO

The Inst.,
with P
Prison l
clusive.
The C
for Din will be dinner l
evening
The p
the nar
ment of Tende
with th
day of May

A SU
Head P
was rer
who had
and his widow a of subsi
behalf.
be than men :—
WM
WM
JOI
JOI
April