

ertained that the establishment
public patronage and support, having stated that a new hotoke-consuming patent machine order to render the baths all l, the meeting adjourned.

THE ORDER OF PREACHERS.
er the superintendence of Rev.
Limerick, terminated on yes-weeks duration. The Rev. Mr.
three fellow labourers were con-ing, en route for Limerick, by gates with banners. The local
Mr. Quaid, P.P., O'Callaghan's
The Rev. Mr. Carbery, in said he looked on the display
r attachment to their religion nal compliment.

—To-day the general muster of place, under Major McDonnell, officers, inspected the corps, of 405 rank and file. The men orderly appearance; and in a few
will be reviewed, fully accoutred, und on the Clare road.

the Premier is about to offer a y Roe, Esq., the munificent re-urch Cathedral, Dublin.—Court

SURRENCE NEAR SALCOMBE.—On
ght years of age, named Drew, a boat, from near Salcombe, in half-imbecile man, named Steer.
in the evening without his com-
at he had left him birds'-nesting
-a desolate spot some miles away
ion. Subsequently the body of on the sea shore and his hat on oove.

er and Co.'s India Pale and Edin finest quality and in the highest
, may be obtained from Bottlers Retailers. Purchasers are reve signature and trade mark on ands are frequently substituted.
argh, Limerick Stores, 12, Bruns-October 22

the United Parishes of Rathnegan and Dunshaughlin, co.
Meath.

Forrest and Grace—At the Roman Catholic Church, Rath-mines, county Dublin, John James, second son of Michael Forrest, Esq., Co. to Mary, eldest daughter of Major Grace, late 3rd Regt., W.I.R.

Hearne and Glinden—At the Roman Catholic Cathedral, Kilkenny, James Hearne, Esq., to Marie Catherine, youngest daughter of George Glinden, Esq., of Callan, co.
Kilkenny.

Read and Odell—At West Hackney Church, the Rev. Geo.
Read, incumbent of Christ Church, Clapton, to Mary Price, youngest daughter of W. Tillman, Esq., H.M.S.
Customs, and widow of Iship Odell, Esq.

Lloyd and Robertson—At the Church of St. Andrew, Aberdeen, Lewis Lloyd, Esq., of Birmingham, and Cradley, Worcestershire, to Maggie, daughter of David Robertson, Esq., Broomhill House, near Aberdeen.

Perkins and Broadley—At Galle, Arthur Fred. Perkins, Esq., of H.M.'s Ceylon Rifle Regt., eldest son of Frederick Perkins, Esq., J.P., Southampton, to Edith, only child of the late William Broadley, Esq., Durham.

DEATHS.

Sargent—On Sunday morning last, the 21st inst., in the city of Limerick, David Sargent, grandson to the late Alderman Francis Sargent, of this city.

Scanlan—On the 19th inst., at Kilrush, of scarlatina, Helena, aged one year, second and only surviving daughter of James Scanlan, Esq.

Bayly—At the Park, Queenstown, county Cork, Ellen Josephine, widow of the late Rev. Edward Bayly, Rector of Donoughmore, Queen's County.

Armstrong—At his residence, Patrick's-hill, Cork, Charles Armstrong, Esq., M.D.

Gray—At Upper Baggot-street, Dublin, Warner Wall Gray, Esq., formerly Captain in the British Auxillary Legion (served under General Sir De Lacy Evans in Spain, and was severely wounded at the storming of St. Sebastian—medal), third son of the late William Wall Gray, Esq., J.P., Rockbrook, Queen's County.

Brady—At Ballybrack, Patrick Brady, Esq., solicitor, Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, late of Danby, Ballyshannon.

Hall—At Middle Abbey-street, Dublin, Albert Hall, Esq., late of the G.P.O.

Phelan—At his residence, Shanganagh-terrace, Ballybrack, Denis Phelan, Esq., M.R.C.S.L.

Warner—At Montebello, Killiney, county Dublin, Henrietta Maria Warner, daughter of the late Henry Bidduiph Warner, Esq., J.P., of Marvelstown, county Meath.

Barry—At Great Malvern, James Hugh, son of Arthur and Lady Mary Smith Barry.

Montagu—At Montagu House, Portman-square, London,
the Hon. Mrs. Spencer D. Montagu.

Clarke—At Grove House, South Hackney, the residence of his nephew, the Ven. George Clarke, Archdeacon of Antigua.

Wahab—Suddenly, at his own house, Royal-terrace, Edinburgh, Lieut.-General Wahab, Madras Army.

Ford—At his residence, Spencer Villa, Southfields, near Wandsworth, Colonel George Edward Ford, late of the 72nd Regt., Bengal N.I.