From the rest by direct steamers 10,992 casks were against 14,751 last year; from France via London and Railway 14,634 packages against 14,634 from America into London and Liverpool against 450 into Liverpool last year. The Economist remarks that, "with the great supply of floating capital, we need not be alarmed at the rate of discount being only 2 per cent. at the last weekly clearing-house return, which is the enormous sum of £122,000,000 (or more than the corresponding week of 1871). Nor is there the same likelihood as in 1871 of our floating cash being diminished by the stoppage of payments for foreign bills, and consequently the prospects of our home market improved, and we may fairly hope that we shall have to pay any such sums for foreign bills as we did in 1871. The fact that the rate of discount in Persia is still pressing with great force on the mass of the population. Cities in the East have been deserted by those who are unable to do so. The remainder starve. The Government are being organised in India.

It is at such a time as this, when we see a neighbouring nation shaken to its centre by a God-nying people, that we can, in some degree, appreciate the blessings of that Gospel which proclaims "Peace on earth and good will to men," and can exclaim in the language of the prophet "How beautiful are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings; that publisheth peace; that saith unto Zion thy God reigneth!"

Accept then, Rev. and Dear Sir, our best and warmest wishes for the temporal and spiritual welfare of yourself and family; and we earnestly pray that your future labours may be abundantly blessed of Him who has called you to be a Minister in His Church!

We beg your acceptance of the accompanying Testimonial as a small token of our friendship and regard, and remain yours faithfully and affectionately.

REPLY

TO THE

PARISHIONERS OF BALLYMODAN, MY DEAR FRIENDS—I must accept—with very mingled feelings—the gift of your love. It is no small cause of thankfulness that I should have won your estimation and regard, but I cannot help feeling deeply sensible how far short I have come of being amongst you that I desire to be a good minister of Jesus Christ." This expression of your approbation humbling, whilst it encourages me, may it, in thus reminding me of my merits and my deficiencies in the past, prove profitable to any future labours to which it may please God to call me.

You speak of the Cottage Lectures (the chief of which, however, was not commenced by me) and the Boys' Sunday School. Endeavour to uphold them: they are valuable means of grace.

Whilst we think of the horrors of the judgment in a neighbouring country, let us tremble at the thought of Atheism and infidelity, and "Take heed lest there be in any of us an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God," and more hold fast the words of Jesus "This is the eternal life that they might know Thee the only true God and Jesus Christ whom Thou hast sent."

Seek to submit your reason to the word of God and appropriate the Lord Jesus by faith as the way, the truth, and the life for your own souls, holding forth the word of life, that I may rejoice in the day of Christ that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

Mrs. Fawcett joins me in thanking you for your affectionate wishes and generous gift. We shall not soon forget your kindness. "Brethren pray for us." "Finally, brethren, farewell, be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace shall be with you."

"The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen."—Your late worthy Minister and obliged friend,

B. C. FAWCETT.
