

ough the market the toll of £21
pared with correse cattle and Pig
s. 1d. ; in the hay in the fowl and a total of £32 10s.
while in the corn 8 14s. 8d ; in the 1 skin market leaves a net ts of £6 11s. 9d.
from the provissified will be conoger seconded that potato market, be 50 a year.

derman M'Donnell
he amount to £60

ter amount, and it s from the commit-ence to their debt to £660 16s. 2d.

ad settled their ac-could not see how the committee.

yor the report was

—THIS DAY.

r. Moore, R. M.)

LITARY ROAD.

and Patrick O'Donand by Constable assault on Private Dragoons, on Sun-

vo of the prisoners.
nesses who were exed for trial at the es agreed to admit 20 each, and two ary complaints of

Flood—At Southsea, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel John Flood, 82nd Regt., of a son.
Scott—At Guernsey, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel Robt. Scott, Paymaster, late of the 87th R. I. Fusiliers, of a daughter.
Warren—At Little Heath, Old Charlton, the wife of Capt.
W. A. Warren, Royal Artillery, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Evans and Whitty—Jan. 31st, in Littleton Church, by the Rev. Richard F. Laurence, Treasurer of Cashel, uncle to the bride, Richard, youngest son of the late William Evans, Esq., of Henry-street, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Rev. John Whitty, Prebendary of Killanellick and Rector of Galbally, county Limerick.
Beamish and Crofts—At the Cathedral, Cork, the Rev. Geo.
Beamish, Rector of Templemalus, and eldest son of the late Richard Beamish, Esq., J.P., of Beaumont, Clonakilty, to Henrietta Martin, eldest daughter of the late George Crofts, Esq., of Temple-hill, Blackrock, Cork.
Goggin and Goggin—On the 1st instant, at St. Michael's Church, Limerick, by the Rev. R. C. Oulton, Robert Young Goggin, compositor, to Mary Anne, eldest daughter of Mr. Samuel Goggin, compositor, both of Limerick.
McGrath and Long—At the Parish Church, Wimslow, Cheshire, William Valentine M'Grath, Esq., of Alderley Edge, third son of George McGrath, Esq., of Dublin, to Mary Louisa, youngest daughter of the late J. Waithman Long, Esq., of Hazlecroft, Alderley Edge, Cheshire.
Tacon and Patterson—At Holy Trinity Church, Hounslow, Gude Wallace Tacon, M.R.C.S. Eng., to Henrietta Caroline, second daughter of the late Capt. F. T. Patterson, of H.M.'s 60th Royal Rifles.

DEATHS.

Young—At Upham Glebe, Killenaule, county Tipperary, Anne, the beloved wife of the Rev. Richard Young.
Carson—At his residence, Upper Ballineety, near Ardfinnan, Mr. Peter Carson.
Smith—At Blackrock, county Dublin, Charlotte, wife of the Rev. George Sidney Smith, D.D., rector of Drumragh, Omagh.
Clancy—At College-green, Dublin, Charles Clancy, Esq.
Dease—At Rayenswell, Bray, county Wicklow, Anna Maria O'Reilly Dease.
Holmes—At her residence, Waterloo-place, Upper Leeson-street, Dublin, Jane, widow of the late George Arbathnot Holmes, Esq., of Moorock, King's County.
Shaw—At Newtownlimavady, Frances Maria, wife of Bernard George Shaw, Esq.
Watson—At Hertford-street, Mayfair, London, Caroline Anne, third daughter of the late Sir Chas. Wager Watson, Bart.
Blake—At Leicester, Frances, relict of J. Brice Blake, Esq., J.P., late Captain H.M.'s 47th Regt., and daughter of the late John Drope McIlree, Esq., Belturbett, co. Cavan.
Rous—Suddenly, at Berkeley-square, London, the Hon. Mrs.
Rous, wife of the Hon. Admiral Rous.
Douie—At The Johnstone, near Stirling, Captain Andrew Douie, Royal (late Bengal) Artillery.
Johnstone—At St. Margaret's Convent, near Edinburgh, Jane Ann, Rev. Mother of the Convent of Our Lady of Mercy, at Glasgow, and eldest daughter of Admiral Sir William and Lady Hope Johnstone.
Daly—At Hong Kong, Denis Bowes Daly, Esq., youngest son of the late Henry DeBurgh Daly, Esq., Coolconey and Lurgan, in the county Galway.

sphere of its labours a steadily and largely incre has put the seal of His ap and aim by influencing inc meet these widening deman quosts—some by generous who decline "to let the their right hand doeth," steady subscribers fills Committee's thankfulness meet all claims as they ari casual incumbrance or deb praise!

"It would, of course, be before the friends of the s adequate idea of the benef resulting from well-timed, relief, given in a kindly sp words of encouragement a tian visitors. But if the s would oftener favour the c sence at their weekly m amply compensated, for so spent in beholding so wants and cares relieved, 'the luxury of doing good interest in the society's c feld. As it is, the comm giving to the apparently the report a voice to carr peals that often have acc Neither can they give exp thankfulness with which ceived by some, whose fate almost to despair. Again, the society's care present, pear to be, a dull, uninter age, wearing itself out ences only an amelioration help; but even these by saved from the more dr house, with all its fatal en testants.

"The committee feel cient support they have year from the district visi toil on with unwearied en in the footsteps of Him good,' and in obedience t
'go out into the highway in the poor and friendles