

aid within uction was
n auction
, and the d down to signed by

agreement,
not being
the admis-
um of 10%.
for him ;
meat, [also ndant) was counts were
as going to
or the hire
f the horse is (defendpromissory
it's wife.
uction was erty not foretween the
these things £15, but I
the auction
, and I gave
erest for the 20 per cent.
vrit for £10,
as no interest
ment calling
ll the perso-dding was to n presence of
on the whole
was examined rchase of the
rt examined,
no auction at 39, at which
ers attended.

Littleton—At Tendring Hall, Stoke-by-Nayland, the wife of Captain the Hon. E. G. P. Littleton, Grenadier Guards, of a son.
Hill—At Whittington Rectory, Chesterfield, the wife of the Rev. J. Stanley Hill, of a son.
Montgomerie—At Landour, Himalayas, India, the wife of Captain Aylmer Montgomerie, H.M.'s 20th Hussars, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Smyth and Mason—On the 12th inst., at Bourney Church, by the Rev. E. Lloyd, John J. Smyth, Esq., junr., of Rathcoursey, county Cork, to Jane Anne, elder daughter of William Mason, Esq., of Derrylahan, county Tipperary.
Walton and Woods—At the Wesleyan Church, Tullamore, by the Rev. F. Elliot, assisted by the Rev. S. Bates, Saml.
Walton, of Cloughjordan, to Martha, eldest daughter of Mr. C. Woods, Tullamore.
Finlay and Smyth-King—At Mountrath Church, the Rev.
John Finlay, curate of Clonenagh and chaplain of Ballyfinn, to Isabella Anne, eldest daughter of the Rev. W.
Smyth-King, rector of Clonenagh.
Jebb and Jebb—At Monkstown Church, co. Dublin, Arthur Trevor Jebb, Esq., son of Richard George Jebb, Esq., of The Lythe, Shropshire, to Eglantyne Louisa, daughter of Robert Jebb, Esq., of Killiney, county Dublin.
Whitworth and Orrell—At St. James's, Piccadilly, London, Sir Joseph Whitworth, Bart., of Stancliffe, Derbyshire, and The Firs, Manchester, to Mary Louisa, widow of Alfred Orrell, Esq., of The Grove, Cheadle, and The Cottage, Grasmere.

DEATHS.

Conolly—At the Convent of the Faithful Companions of Jesus, Dee House, Chester, Maryanne, in religion Mother Maryanne, eldest daughter of the late Andrew Conolly, Esq., of Limerick, aged 46 years.
Handcock—At Clonmel, Tobias Handcock, Esq., 27th Regt., brother of the late Lieut.-Colonel Handcock, 46th Regt., Balnain, Cheltenham.
Newbold—At Clonbroney Glebe, co. Longford, Margaret, wife of the Rev. J. J. Newbold.
Budds—At the Wicklow Hotel, Dublin, Henry Budds, Esq., fourth son of the late Thomas Budds, Esq., of Timogue House, Queen's County.
Quigley—At Maryborough, Mr. Michael Quigley, bacon merchant.
St. George—At the Provincial Bank House, Parsonstown, Nannie J. B., wife of T. B. V. St. George, Esq.
Hayden—At Ballinasloe, Mr. Martin Hayden, proprietor of Gill's Hotel, a native of Nenagh, county Tipperary.
Fynn—At Kingsland Park, South Circular-road, Dublin, Peter A. Fynn, third son of the late James Fynn, Esq., of Galway.
Murphy—In Dublin, Henry de la Poire Murphy, Assistant Engineer Harbour Defences, Bombay, and only surviving son of Henry Murphy, Esq., Dublin.
Burnett—At Scotby, Carlisle, Mrs. Burnett, for many years of Beech Cottage, Booterstown, county Dublin.

racter, &c.
Apply to O. S. W., LIMERICK
April 11, 1871.

PARLOUR MA

WANTED, by a Young P
has served as Parlour Clergyman's family for highly recommended a
and make up fine things well on or before 1st May.
Applications to K. F., Knock

CHILDREN'S M

WANTED, a situation
able young girl ;
a Protestant. Would go family ; would prefer the Apply G. M., Office of this
April 15.

The Right Hon. Russell (Southampton on Thursday night oppose the Government Ballot Bill for a limited extension of the Franchise to women. He spoke favourably of the Taxation and Licensing Bills. On Thursday the Coastguard boarded a French vessel, which was engaged in smuggling brandy. An Indian chief, near Cheltenham, though he is only 40 years old, has scalps and has had the delirium times.

William Younger and Co.'s Edinburgh Ales, of the finest quality and state of perfection, may be obtained from the principal Retailers. Requested to observe signature labels, as other brands are frequently imitated. Breweries, Edinburgh, Limerick-street.