

s," the chairman proposed "Our hren and Guests," and in the name gave them a most cordial welcome, ood would result from their visit.
J. J. M'Illyer responded, and ex-that this visit would be the inaugueries of visits among the Masonic th countries, and promised for these cordial reception in America. The hortly afterwards terminated. The lar leave for Glasgow to-night.

GE IN ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH, WA-the petty sessions court this day nine lads, whose ages vary from fifteen rs, were charged with entering St. arch, on the evening of Sunday, the , when they broke several panes of he vestry book, and desecrated the . Robert Champott deposed that after ked the vestry door leaving the key in e. He found the vestrybook defaced eral panes of glass were broken, and the held up one of the windows was cut ow down, through which opening it t the parties entered. Some prayer tolen. The church were strewn with did not see any injury done to the young fellow named Gibbs swore nbred over the wall facing Patrickossed the graveyard. He saw the door half open, peeped in but saw no one and
y. Subsequently he and a number of the church. He saw Woods, Downey, ones in the church yard. He saw no one as not there. They ran up the pulpit, em played the organ and another blew He saw no one cut the rope, nor any ken. The witness was severely cross Mr. Howard to deduce from him that party who cut the rope, entered the let his companions in through the vestry the witness stoutly denied. Other re examined to prove the breaking of and the tearing of the books. After ation, Woods Downey, and M'Donnell o the assizes. The others were dis-Waterford Chronicle.

B. La Touche, Captain Bombay Staff Corps, and second daughter of W. Muller, of Hillside, Shenley, Herts, Esq.
Smith and Dancer—At Trinity Church, Bath, Charles Wm.
second son of Captain Johnes Smith, of Hoole Lodge, Chester, to Helena Jane, second daughter of Sir Thomas B. Dancer, Bart., of Modreeny House, co. Tipperary.
Bell and Gosselin—At St. Luke's Church, Lower Norwood, Joseph Bell, son of Richard Bell, Esq., Belfast, to Madeline Hessie, youngest daughter of Major H. Gosselin, late H.M.'s 46th Regiment.
Russell and Queale—At St. Mary's Church, Domybrook, county Dublin, Arthur James Forbes Russell, Esq., Surgeon, &c., Birch House, Worksop, Nottinghamshire, son of the Rev. J. L. Russell, M.A., Norwich, to Emily, youngest daughter of the late Robert Queale, Esq., of Roebuck Grove, county Dublin.
Myers and Colin—At 1, Chatham-street, Dublin, Mr. Chas.
S. Myers, late of Liverpool, to Miss Sarah Colin, second eldest daughter of Abraham Colin, Esq., Lower Chandon-street, Dublin.
Boyle and Raven—At St. Mary's Church, Chatham, Alexr.
Boyle, Esq., eldest son of the late Alexander Boyle, Esq., of Dublin, to Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev. John Raven, rector of Mundford, Norfolk.

DEATHS.

Enright—On the 22nd inst., at Castleconnell, co. Limerick, Mr. John Enright, after a long and painful illness. His loss will be irreparably felt by many who were connected with him. He was universally respected and esteemed by all classes of society for his uprightness and generosity in his dealings with those with whom he came in contact.
"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, even so saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labours." Norman—In Rathkeale, on the 22nd June, 1871, Mrs. Ellen Morgan Latchford, the beloved wife of H. Norman, Esq.
Murphy—At Conyngham Lodge, Curragh, Emily, daughter of the late Mr. James Murphy.
Gilbert—At her residence, Carnew, Jane, wife of Joseph Gilbert, Esq., of Carnew and Tornacork.
Foy—At Hilton, Rathmines, county Dublin, Margaret Fox, widow of the late James Foy, Esq., of Rutland square, West, Dublin.
Biggs—At Bellegrave, Clontarf, Dublin, the residence of her brother, Teresa, youngest daughter of the late James Biggs, Esq.
Carson—At Fort Wayne, Indiana, U.S., Emily, wife of Hon.
Judge Carson, and eldest daughter of the late George Fleming, Surrock House, county Westmeath, Esq.
Hill—At Dublin, suddenly, George Hill, Esq., formerly of Tophill, Sussex.
Haly—At St. Leonard's-on-Sea, suddenly, Colonel George T.
Haly, retired full pay, of H.M.'s 108th Regt.
Higgins—At Sloane-street, London, Lieut.-General Thomas Gordon Higgins, Colonel-Commandant of the 13th Brigade of the Royal Artillery.
Gonne—At Gloucester-terrace, Hyde-park, London, Edith Frith, wife of Captain Gonne, 17th Lancers.
Haines—At Bangalore, India, Major Thomas Haines, late of the 9th Regt. Madras N.I.