

ies, cushions, uevils, normous, and large and presents were r prima donna's feet. oms, elegantly bound,allery on wires, with the following inscrip-
 "A kind farewell to een of Song; a cead on her next visit to excitement became so be lowered and a body on the gallery to reggle ensued, and the y flung over into the at prima donna again immediately restored, last Rose of Summer," e could have heard a re upwards of 4,000 he opera and fresh wreaths had been s made for the stage titiens' carriage, and e in triumph. Not- ch was pouring down ast midnight, upwards esent in the roadway ens, in order to escape ation, had to disguise crowd by the gallery et, where a cab was in " from which she by a er hotel by a private wd outside the theatre not thinking that the age had been decorated ent adrift, and the pole twithstanding repeated rter had taken her de- t on the stage-door, up to the stage and to ey became convinced of n marched up to her g down heavily, gave persed.

a Paris that on the 1st a Government will give the Commercial Treaty twelvemonth.

ESTA BOX WITH PATENT and May have recently little Pocket Vesta Box simple spring cover; it and will soon come into metal instead of card, stas, at one penny. Any mist, or Chandler, will Owen and M'Combe—At St. Mark's, Dublin, by special license, Barker Hely Owen, Esq., Belmont House, Rathdowney, to Matilda Mary Eliza, eldest daughter of Rowan M'Combe, Esq., Castleview House, Graigue, Carlow, both of Queen's County.

 Swindell and O'Grady—At St. Anne's Church, Dublin, Wm. Frederick Swindell, Esq., of Horse Manor, Somersetshire, son of the late John Swindell, Esq., of Grove House, Middlesex, to Wilhelmina Anne Matilda, youngest daughter of the late Edward Stamer O'Grady, Esq., of Merrion-square South, Dublin, late of the 4th Dragoon Guards.
 Nicholson and Swinton—At Brighton, Benjamin Nicholson, Esq., Knavenstown, county Kildare, to Mary Anne Jane, youngest daughter of the late Robert Hepburn Swinton, Esq., of Swinton, Berwickshire.
 Money and Hornby—At Llandygydd, Cardiganshire, the Rev. W. B. Money, curate of Bakewell, Derbyshire, son of the Rev. J. D. Money, to Edith Belina Hornby, daughter of Sir Edmund Hornby, Judge of the Supreme Court of China and Japan.
 Bradshaw and Hussey—At the Pro-Cathedral, Kensington, London, J. S. B. Bradshaw, Valenciere, Herault, France, to Maude Mary Josephine Hussey, daughter of T. Hussey, Esq., of the county Kerry.
 Forster and Walker—At Patea, New Zealand, Arthur Sandys Brooke Forster, Esq., J.P., of Roshine Lodge, county Donegal, Sub-Inspector New Zealand Armed Constabulary, to Emily Ruth, second daughter of William Walker, Esq., Great Charles-street, Dublin.
 Thomson-Carmichael and Drummond—At Christ Church, Mussoorie, Maurice Thomson-Carmichael, late Capt. 9th Gordon Highlanders, eldest son of Michael Thomson-Carmichael, Esq., of East-end, Lanarkshire, to Alice Henrietta Isabella, second daughter of Colonel Walker Drummond, Bengal Cavalry.

DEATHS.

Mayers—On the 28th Sept., at Ellenboro'-crescent, Weston-super-Mare, Wilhelmina, the beloved wife of Lt.-Colonel Mayers, of Pendell Court, near Bletchingley, Surrey, and late 86th Regt., aged 43.
 Ferguson—At Albert Cottage, on the 28th ult., Eliza Alice, widow of the late James Ferguson, Esq., of this city.
 Pitts—At his residence, Newcastle West, Edward Pitts, Esq., aged 52 years.
 Collis—At his residence, Leeson-park House, Dublin, Robt. Going Collis, Esq.
 Hackett—At Egremont, Monkstown, county Dublin, Richd. Hackett, Esq., J.P., of Elm Grove, Parsonstown.
 Hardy—In Dublin, Mary Hanoria, widow of the Rev. John Hardy, of Kilcullen.
 Alexander—At Spring Lodge, Athy, county Kildare, Mr. James Alexander.
 Lynott—At Belclare, Westport, co. Mayo, Bernard Lynott, Esq., solicitor, of North Great George's-street, Dublin.
 Forsyth—At Dublin, Jane Fullerton, eldest daughter of the late William Forsyth, Esq., of Belfast.
 Bradford—At Vincent-terrace, Glasnevin, Dublin, Susan, wife of Dillon Bradford, Esq.
 Byrne—At the residence of his mother, Carlisle-terrace, Kingstown, Edward M. Byrne, of Ulster-terrace, Stillorgan Park, eldest surviving son of the late G. Byrne, Esq., Merrion-avenue, Dublin.
 LaGrange—At Bray, county Wicklow, Henrietta, daughter of Charles LaGrange, Esq., Riversdale, Bray.
 Seton—At Stephen's-green South, Dublin, Maude, infant daughter of Major Seton, Royal Dublin City Militia.
 Wight—At the Gresham Hotel, Dublin, Alexander Wight, of Prestwich Park, manager of the Manchester and County Bank.
 Walden—At Walden Cottage, Chislehurst, Helene, Viscountess Walden.
 Carnegie—At Merau, Tyrol, Lady Margaret Carnegie, only daughter of the Earl of Northesk.
 Hamilton—At Elgin-crescent, Notting-hill, London, Thomas Talbot Hamilton, late Lieut.-Colonel of the 19th Regt.

JAMES PEACOCKE
 tion to his Crown
 at 4s. per stone, hard nomic.
 THE LIMERICK SOAP
 22, WILLIAM-ST
 Terms

Scotch
M. DAWSON & SO
 400 Tons of S
 These Coals will be Sold purchased before late ad
 September 23.

Limerick and Foy
 and Newcastle J
 RATHKE
 MONDAY, 16

A SPECIAL TRAI
 (for accommodati
 Limerick at 5.0 a.m. fo
 day, calling at intery
 from Rathkeale with S
 Buyers are requeste
 good time at Rathkeal them to be forwarded l
 T. AIN
 Limerick Terminus, l
 October, 1871.

Limerick and CLONROAI
 SATURDAY,

A SPECIAL TRAI
 Carriages will Ennis, on 14th October
 tioned below :—
 Limerick Departure,
 Long Pavement,
 Sixmile-bridge,
 Cratloe,
 Ballycar,
 Ardsollus,
 Clare Castle,
 Ennis Arrival,
 Returning from En
 12.40., p.m., provided
 and booked.
 T. AINS
 Limerick Terminus