

with him until his death, since which period he continued his service with Sir Vere Hunt, Bart., until within the last ten years, when he retired (although yet in perfect health) to a cottage built for him within the demesne. He was married to eight wives, by seven of whom he had children; his last he married in his 103rd year. He lived in the reign of six monarchs, and saw, as he recorded before his death, five generations of most of the families of this county, of the vicissitudes of which honest John Leahy was the stationary spectator for near a century, and before his death (retaining his senses and perfect memory to the last moment) he declared that he never suffered a day's illness nor an hour's pain, unless for the death of a friend, or occasionally for the loss of a wife! His remains were interred in the churchyard of Nantinan on Sunday last, attended by the entire neighbourhood, by all of whom he was regarded and regretted.

BY
MR. MANGEON, of Dublin, who may be Consulted for 14 days only, at HIS CONSULTING ROOMS,
 44, CECIL-STREET.

TESTIMONIALS:

From the Rev. Michael B. O'Shea, Catholic Archdeacon of Cork.
 I consider it due to Mr. Mangeon to state that he has operated with singular ability and skill on the ingrowing toe-nails of both my feet, which for many years past have occasioned me most excruciating pain. The operation has been performed with complete success and exemption from pain.
 August 20th, 1868. MICHAEL B. O'SHEA.
 John C. Delmage, Esq., J.P., Castle-Park.
 Mr. Mangeon has given me considerable relief and without pain.
 June, 1860. JOHN C. DELMAGE.
 From the Very Rev. Dean Kenny, P.P., Ennis, Co. Clare.
 Mr. Mangeon has extracted Corns from my feet without giving me the slightest pain. The relief given to me by his judicious operation is very considerable. I thoroughly recommend him to any person suffering from Corns.
 JOHN KENNY, P.P., Dean, Ennis.

J. N. Webb, Esq., Knockoran, Knocklong.
 Mr. Mangeon operated on me at Limerick some weeks ago, he caused no pain, and I have felt no inconvenience from corns since.
 August 17, 1860. J. N. WEBB.

From Edward Cruise, Esq., Limerick.
 I have very great pleasure in bearing my testimony to the painless manner Mr. Mangeon has relieved me by the extraction of a corn from between my toes, and strongly recommend him to all parties requiring his aid.
 Nov. 18. EDWARD CRUISE.

From D. M. Maunsell, Esq., J.P.
 Mr. Mangeon has extracted a corn from me with much skill, he has effected an immediate cure, and has relieved me by its total removal from much annoyance.
 June 13, 1860. D. M. MAUNSELL, J.P.

From G. M. Fitzgerald, Esq., 1, Tontine Buildings.
 Mr. Mangeon has extracted some corns from my feet without giving me the slightest pain, and at a moderate charge.
 June 11, 1860. G. M. FITZGERALD.

From Dr. Berry, Mallow.
 I feel much pleasure in stating that Mr. Mangeon operated on me in the year 1861, for bad corns, since which time I have had the greatest comfort.
 P. BERRY.

Cork, 10th Feb., 1870.
 From W. K. Tanner, Esq., M.D.
 I am well acquainted with Mr. Mangeon, whom I consider an excellent chiropodist.
 Cork, July, 1868. W. K. TANNER, M.D.

From W. Jackson Cummins, Esq., M.D.
 Mr. Mangeon operated successfully on me seven years ago for a bad corn, which has not returned, he has now removed several others most skillfully and painlessly. I can, therefore, conscientiously recommend him as a safe and successful practitioner.
 July 25th, 1868. W. JACKSON CUMMINS.

From W. Gibson, Esq., M.D., J.P.
 Mr. Mangeon has this day removed three corns from my feet, without giving me the slightest pain; he displays great skill in his manipulation. I therefore, with confidence, recommend him as a skilful and safe operator to all suffering from corns.
 9th July, 1860. W. GIBSON.
