

On October, until the 15th of the next month, is extended. No prosecution can take place against subscribers, or persons performing or who receive. A corps of the 7th Regiment of 306 horsemen, to be commanded at Le Mans, France, the Loire, and Seine et Oise, are to be Arab horsemen. The commander of these corps is Major-General Sir John Bull. The requisitions, persons, and arms. M. Gambetta requests the Government to order the creation of a corps for the instruction of the national guards.

INDO-CHINA CONFERENCE.
 Vienna, Tuesday.
 In order to render the conference possible, the point has been interchanged. The most important treaty to be legitimately set before the parties concerned. The plenipotentiaries have to hold the varied by the treaties, and to declare that the stipulations of the treaty are accepted by consent of all plenipotentiaries. An indispensable declaration of the treaty of '56 be proposed, the rights of a single person, the security and guarantees, it becomes an essential condition. What compensation should be offered in order to reimburse the claims. It is to be hoped that the treaty of Paris may be limited to concessions on the part of the Government.

FRANCE WITH FRANCE.
 A diastatic meeting of the workers was held last night in St. James's Hall, with Mr. Beesley in the chair. Mr. Marriott, and Bradlaugh were present, and the vehement denunciation of Prussia, and Count Bismarck, and Emperor Napoleon were replete with applause. The following resolutions were passed:—First, that this meeting in France in her struggle with Prussia, welcomes the restoration of the Republic, and the efforts of M. Gambetta and the other patriots to their patriotic efforts to their enemies. Second—that this meeting regrets the conduct of Mr. Gladstone, and his persistent refusal to France-Hayhurst—At Bostock Hall, Cheshire, the wife of Major France-Hayhurst, of a daughter.

 Geary—At Woolwich, the wife of Major Henry L. Geary, Royal Artillery, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Morgan and Graham—At St. Mary's Church, Clonmel, Wm. Morgan, Esq., Inland Revenue, to Caroline Fanny, daughter of Thomas Graham, Esq., Duncan-street, Clonmel.
 Palmer and Healy—In Kenmare, William Cuff Palmer, Esq., of Kenmare, county Kerry, to Mary Anne Healy, daughter of Mr. Timothy Healy, of Barnastocky, P. L. G.
 MacDougall and Forsyth—At Edinburgh, H. R. MacDougall, Esq., M. D., Surgeon Bombay Army, son of the late Admiral Sir John MacDougall, K. C. B., Dunollie, Argyllshire, to Caroline Harriet, daughter of the late James Forsyth, Esq., of Glengorm, Mull, Argyllshire.
 Donnelly and Dykes—At Bridekirk, Cumberland, Captain John Fretcheville Dykes Donnelly, R. E., to Adeliza, daughter of the late Fretcheville Dawson Ballantine Dykes, Esq., of Dovenby Hall, Cumberland.
 Southey and Davies—At St. James's Church, Swansea, the Rev. C. C. Southey, M. A., vicar of Kingsbury, Somerset, to Justina (Jessie), daughter of the Rev. Samuel Davies, of Tremont House, Swansea.
 Ottley and Stevenson—At Denbury, Robert Ottley, Esq., Wilmslow Park, Cheshire, to Caroline Matilda, daughter of I. N. Stevenson, Esq., of Hayne, Moritonhamstead, Devon, Lieut. Colonel South Devon Militia.
 Deedes and Barrow—At Christ's Church, Lucknow, Oudh, Herbert George Deedes, Esq., Major 60th Rifles, to Rosie Elinor, eldest surviving daughter of Major-Gen. Barrow, C. B., Financial Commissioner of Oudh.

DEATHS.

Guinane—On the 10th inst., at 3, Richmond-street, Bridget Mary, the beloved wife of Mr. Daniel F. Guinane, aged 25 years.
 Pearson—In Ennis, on Tuesday morning, Mrs. Pearson, wife of Richard Pearson, Esq., T. C. The deceased was universally esteemed for her kind and amiable disposition and the many virtues which rendered her truly estimable in both social and domestic circles.
 Quin—On the 9th inst., at her house, Sexton-street, Nurse Kitty Quin, whose loss many ladies in the county and city and all who knew her will much regret.
 Grubb—George Penrose Ridgway Grubb, of Calcutta, second son of B. Houghton Grubb, Esq., of Cahir Abbey, county Tipperary.
 Fogarty—At his residence, Bridge-street, Waterford, Thos. Fogarty, Esq.
 Ronayne—At his residence, Beresford-street, Waterford, Pierce Ronayne, Esq.
 Ryan—At Knockelly, Fethard, county Tipperary, John, son of Patrick Ryan, Esq., Minnowbrook, Terenure.
 Trevor—At Beech Hill, Donnybrook, county Dublin, Fredk. Wm. Trevor, Esq., Collector of H. M.'s Customs, Dublin.
 Black—At his residence, Rathmines-road, Dublin, James Alexander Black, Esq., formerly Collector of Inland Revenue, Bandon.
 Roch—At Woodbine-hill, county Waterford, Jane, relict of the late George Butler Roch, Esq.
 Aylesford—At his town residence, Grosvenor-square, London, the Earl of Aylesford.
 Walpole—At St. Mary's Parsonage, Port Glasgow, the Rev. Thomas Beaumont Walpole.
 Hadley—At Norwich, the Rev. James Hadley, M. A., rector of Bagthorpe.
 Graham—At his residence, Promenade-terrace, Cheltenham, Colonel W. Graham, formerly of the 4th (King's Own) Regiment.
 Watkins—At Buckingham-terrace, Edinburgh, Col. James Watkins, H. M. I. A., of Shotton Hall, Salop, and Calderbank, Lanarkshire.

DODD, the smallest approbation each. After leaving Mallow, Butteva rick. January 7

BRIGHT AND DININ
 With Fend
NEW PATTEI
 140, George-st

CATTLE

F. S
BEG to call their stock Palm-nut Meal, best description, and genuine. In increasing the as well as promote Farmers, that it The above most moderate Nov. 21.

CORNE CABINET WARERO

C. SHANNON thanks of the County of Clare and patronage so opened his Estab. mitting attentio will be, as he nonny, and the dertaken, and the Kingdom. removal of Hou December 15