

called for the watchman Casey, who came up and arrested him.

In answer to Mr. Gleeson, witness denied that he called Mr. Berry a blackguard; he did not use any threats to him, and he did not catch him by the throat as Mr. Berry had described.

Michael O'Brien, who was in witness's company at the time of the alleged assault, was next examined as a witness to prove Daly's charge. He repeated the words which passed between them as given by Daly.

Mr. Doyle then addressed the Bench on behalf of Daly, which was replied to by Mr. Gleeson on the other side.

After some consultation, the Mayor announced that the Bench were unanimous in the opinion that an assault had been proved against Daly. The charge of assault against Berry was dismissed. The only difference of opinion was as the amount of fine to be imposed. The majority were, however, for fining Daly 10s. with one solicitor's costs. The other side to pay the cost of one solicitor.

Three young urchins, named James Mack, James Daly, and Michael Doyle, were charged by an official on the part of the Waterford and Limerick Railway Company with committing trespass on their premises near Boherbouy. The defendants were fined 1s. each with a caution not to be guilty of such an offence again.

There were in all about 44 cases before the court, a great many of which were ruled no appearance. The court also held over several cases to next week in consequence of some members of the Bench and Bar having to attend the Municipal Council for the purpose of electing a Mayor for the ensuing year.

KILRUSH INTELLIGENCE.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.

Kilrush, Friday.

On this day the old half-yearly fair of Ballykett, out a mile from town, was held. There was a very fine supply of cattle of every description, and these were generally good, and especially for superior quality meat, which was in much demand. There was a very large number of bacon pigs which were readily purchased at advanced prices, viz:—Milch cows, and in-calf of good quality, £18 £22. Prime beef 67s per cwt.; second class Three-year-old heifers £12 to £15; two-year-old 10 guineas on an average; yearlings also ranging £8 to £10. Wether sheep 7d per lb. Pigs £2 to £2 10s; slips 18s to 25s. There were a great number of buyers from the adjoining counties.

Power, a blacksmith, residing at Ball's-bridge, near Dublin, was fired at by one of three men while standing at his own door. The men drove by in a dog cart. One of the three men fired a revolver point blank at Power, fortunately doing him no injury. The same party fired into the house of Mr. Byrne, and after into the medical establishment of Dr. Ashford, doing no injury. There is great excitement in consequence.

THE HEALTH OF THE PRINCE OF WALES.

LONDON, FRIDAY.—The bulletins of the health of the Prince of Wales to-day are not quite satisfactory. No unfavourable symptoms have appeared, but the course of the fever is severe, and it appears from private despatches that this evening the pulse of the Prince was extremely rapid, and that he was delirious. There is, however, as yet nothing to cause grave alarm; but the death of Lord Chesterfield this morning, from the same disease as that under which the Prince is suffering, has necessarily tended to increase the anxious feeling which exists. The noble earl was seized with illness, like the Prince, after his return from visiting Lord Londesborough. The attack, however, did not commence until four days after that of the Prince, and it has throughout been more severe. The noble lord had, however, progressed favourably till last night, and the suddenness with which, in the end, he succumbed is necessarily a disquieting incident.

DEATH OF THE EARL OF CHESTERFIELD.

The Earl of Chesterfield died early on Friday, (yesterday morning) at his seat, Bretby Hall, Burton-on-Trent, from typhoid fever. His illness from the first assumed a very severe form, and in consequence of the serious character of the symptoms so early as the end of the first week, Dr. Murchison was summoned from London on Sunday last, in consultation with Dr. Evans, of Birmingham, and Mr. Lowe, of Burton, returning next morning. The symptoms subsequently took a more favourable course, and the patient appeared to be progressing satisfactorily until last evening, when syncope set in, which, after some hours, terminated fatally.
