

into Liverpool were 2,214 corresponding week last offered at 50s., winter-ss are saleable at 42s. to 48s. last week, and for all qualities. Irish 1,437 firkins Arrived from Ireland about 870 ment by direct steamers against 10,042 last year; tpton and Railway 11,742 and from America into 4,065 last year. Fine mild last week at 122s. to 124s. other kinds of Irish little of U. States and Canadian 114s., middling and badly ult to quit. The best de-ere scarce and 4s. to 6s. entiful and dull. To-day slowly at 134s. to 136s., 4s. to 128s., Danish and h, 98s. to 108s., Leer, 90s. 118s., Normandy, 108s., 96s. to 102s., Hamburg re-and Australian 40s. to 70s. (E. winds. American into Liverpool Liverpool in the correspond-emand quiet, but prices and in some instances 2s ad-5. s to 15lbs smoked and pale nes dull for bladdered and s offered at 4s decline sell ull and prices irregular, ellers.

lency the Lord Lieutenant Earl of Dartrey will take t preparations are being . Before leaving he will nty at a grand ball. The Militia have been ordered icy will be received by a fferent stations of the Irish y en route. The resident reston, Esq. has already ngements. It is understood missioners of Cootahill pur-ress. On the whole, the to with feelings of very A good day's sport in the rd Dartrey is also promised Barlow—At Pembroke-road, Dublin, the wife of Captain J. Barlow, of a daughter.

 Leslie—At Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, the wife of Capt. J. Leslie, of a son.
 Noel—At Maybury, Woking Station, the Hon. Mrs. Roden Noel, of a son.
 Campbell—At Glassary Manse, Argyllshire, the wife of the Rev. Donald Campbell, of a daughter.
 Singh—At Prince's-gardens, London, her Highness the Princess Duleep Singh, of a daughter.
 Fletcher—At Eaton-terrace, London, the Lady Harriet Fletcher, of a son.
 Drake—At Regent's-park-road, N.W., London, Lady Drake, of a son.
 Hurst—At Ridgewell Vicarage, the wife of the Rev. Francis T. Hurst, of a son.
 Wardell—At Valetta, Clarendon-road, Southsea, Hants, the wife of G. V. Wardell, Esq., H.M.'s 24th Regiment, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Brownrigg and Carr—At St. Stephen's Church, Westbourne Park, London, Thomas Marcus Brownrigg, Assistant Inspector-General Royal Irish Constabulary, eldest son of Sir Henry John Brownrigg, C.B., to Eleanor Hannah, daughter of the late David Carr, of Hawke House, Sunbury, Middlesex.
 Barne and Seymour—At St. Peter's Church, Eaton-square, London, Lieut.-Colonel F. St. John Barne, Scots Fusilier Guards, eldest son of F. Barne, Esq., of Sotterley Park and Dunwich, in the county of Suffolk, to the Lady Constance Seymour, fourth daughter of the Marquis of Hertford.
 Bailey and Grahame—At the Cathedral, Bombay, Wellesley Cosby, second son of Thomas A. Bailey, Esq., Bellevue, Castledermot, county Kildare, to Alice, only surviving daughter of the Rev. George Grahame, late H.M.'s Chaplain, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.
 Pennington and Hendry—At Reading, after banns, James Masterson Pennington, late 91st Highlanders, to Kate Hendry, widow of Captain Hendry, late Military Knight of Windsor, and formerly 19th Regt.
 Russel and Evans—At the Church of the Holy Trinity, Melrose, Alex. Russel, Esq., Edinburgh, to Helen, widow of Captain H. J. de Lacy Evans, R.H.A., and third daughter of the late Major Henry Carter.

DEATHS.

Hoare—Nov. 1, at Malvern, Worcestershire, aged 66 years, Eliza, last surviving daughter of the late Rev. John Hoare, Chancellor and Vicar-General of the Diocese of Limerick, and sister to the Dean of Waterford.
 Listowel—At Cork, Maria, Countess of Listowel, aged 67 years.
 Bradshaw—At Mossil Bay, Cape of Good Hope, Benjamin Wellington Bradshaw, Esq., M.D., late Medical Officer of the Bansha Dispensary District, and Secretary to the Tipperary Medical Protection Association.
 Wood—At his residence, Diamond-hill, Cork, Attiwell W. A. Wood, Esq.
 Glover—At her residence, Talbot-street, Dublin, Catherine Matilda, wife of Professor Glover.
 Mooney—At his residence, High-street, Trim, Wm. Leslie Mooney.
 Robinson—At Speen House, Newbury, Susan Hood Robinson, relict of Lieut.-Colonel Robinson, late of the Scots Fusilier Guards.
 Boyd—Lieut.-Colonel Edward Boyd, late of H.M.'s 29th Regiment.
 Swanton—At Winchester, the Rev. Francis Swanton.
 Frankland—At the residence of her son, Captain Frankland, R.E., Lady Frankland, wife of Sir F. W. Frankland, Bart, of Cheltenham.
 McCrummen—At Dunoon, N.B., suddenly, Norman S. McCrummen, Esq., formerly Captain in the 74th High-landers.

long, and three of 1 class butter market throughout the yea Immediately afte
 lowing valuable Sto be disposed of :—
 56 Really first-cl
 a half years of
 and in prime 7 Two and a colour and qu
 7 One and a ha
 4 Very prime F
 13 Young, well-l
 All the above s
 particularly free fr
 19 Pigs.
 3 Brood Mares
 Some promis
 Very fine Ge
 50 Tons prime w
 Farming Implen
 ing Machine, Eng
 Tedder, Hay Rake
 &c., &c.
 The usual comm
 in addition to the
 For further info
 MICHAEL
 George-st
 Or to Oct. 31.

Corpora

TO BE SOLD
 11th, Nov. 1
 collected at the G
 Sale at Two
 The Purchasers
 of their purchases
 Manure be not rei
 The Manure o
 moved to the Gre
 the attention of F
 In future 'all t
 sold at the Gree
 The present a forthwith remove
 By order of No
 JOHN

November 7.