

and dangers of es:—I went up
 town of Issy
 position between
 g fusilade, occurs, in the holnt of me. The ves there gave nd they were d to the top of
 d" by the fort,
 o get with my
 ghting ground,
 d informed me
 ting a target.
 the afternoon.
 being seen still ehind a hedge
 uch preferred
 ing killed after trying points of e.

Times observes
 by the Paris in-
 end by hauling
 de Ville and the
 ting men may have received a gotten; but the suspicious, and ally, and more on of her own olutionary fire of st possible crust
 disorders of the addition of secu-France, is that the Governrance (the Times
 d, and it will ill iggestions to our might offer any
 ymen, some sec-
 vour this or that ce is not fit
 ek safety under ould beg them to rance than they ion of the most
 that country is
 would have no
 ly to perish, like
 it, in the first
 ise.

- Crosbie and Coke—At the British Consulate, Nice, Alpes Maritimes, France, Lindsey Bertie Crosbie, Esq., Lieut. R.N., second son of W. Talbot Crosbie, Esq., of Ardferth Abbey, county Kerry, to Annie, fifth daughter of Lieut.-Colonel E. T. Coke, of Debdale, Mansfield.
- Figgis and Harris—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Henry Wingfield Figgis, Esq., eldest son of Edmund J. Figgis, Esq., Palmerstown Park, county Dublin, to Emily, third daughter of Colonel R. R. Harris.
- Jones and Adams—At Trinity Church, Rathmines, county Dublin, Ormsby Colvill M'Clintock, second son of Major James Jones, D.L. and J.P., of Mount Edward, co. Sligo, and 18, Leeson Park, Dublin, to Margaret Anna, eldest daughter of John Harvey Adams, Esq., J.P., Northlands, county Cavan.
- M'Dermott and Mackintosh—At the Presbyterian Church, Kingstown, county Dublin, Bryan S. M'Dermott, Assist.-Surgeon, R.N., to Ellen Jane, youngest daughter of the late Major Mackintosh, 4th (King's Own) Regt.
- Smith and Bayly—At Kiltiernan Church, co. Dublin, Henry Wilson Smith, of Banbridge, co. Down, Esq., to Rachel Henrietta, youngest daughter of Emmanuel James Bayly, of Kilgobbin, co. Dublin, Esq.
- Gage and Bell—In St. Paul's Church, Poona, Bombay, John Olphert Gage, Lieut. and Adjutant H.M.'s 45th Regiment (R. Sherwood Foresters), second son of the Rev. Robert Gage, of Desertghill, co. Derry, to Catherine Elizabeth, eldest daughter of H. W. B. Bell, R.E., Poona.
- Morphew and Balls—At St. Mary's, Bury St. Edmund's, Suffolk, A. Morphew, Surgeon 1st Battn. the Royal Regt., to Harriott, third daughter of H. Balls, Esq.

DEATHS.

- Knox—At Mount Trenchard, in this county, Geoffrey, only son of Octavius and Lucy Knox, aged 14 months.
- Hunt—At High Park, county Tipperary, Mary Anne, widow of the late Rev. John Hunt, rector of Toem, Diocese of Cashel.
- Coote—At Mallow, county Cork, James Richard Coote, Esq., M.D.
- Morrogh—James Morrogh, Esq., of Kilworth House, county Cork, for 35 years Manager of the National Bank, Fermoy.
- Wilkinson—At York-street, Dublin, Rebecca Wilkinson, daughter of the late Nicholas Wilkinson, Esq., Clonmel.
- Power—At her residence, Dublin-street, Clonmel, Miss Mary Power.
- O'Malley—At Newcastle, co. Mayo, George James O'Malley, Esq., J.P.
- Eves—At his residence, Rathmines-terrace, Dublin, James Eves, Esq.
- Reid—At Belfast, Elizabeth, widow of the late Rev. James Seaton Reid, D.D., M.R.I.A.
- Gardiner—Margaret, wife of Arthur Gardiner, M.D., College-square, Belfast.
- Clement—At Wicklow, Dixie Clement, Esq.
- Moore—At Lisbon, the Rev. Joseph Moore, ex-Sch. T.C.D.
- Wilson—At Ormonde-terrace, Regent's-park, London, Geo. Miller Wilson, Esq., of H.M.'s Paymaster-General's Office, eldest son of the late Rev. Charles Wilson, M.A., prebendary of the Cathedral of Tuam, and rector of Achill.
- Jones—At her residence, Glendaragh, Teignmouth, Devon, the Lady Harriet Jones, only daughter of Arthur James Plunkett, eighth Earl of Fingall.
- Scott—At the Rev. Edmund Warre's, Eton College, Sir Edward William Delman Scott, Bart., of Great Barr Hall, Staffordshire, aged 18.
- Wodehouse—At the British Consulate, Dunkirk, France, Fanny, wife of Colonel the Hon. Berkeley Wodehouse, C.M.G.

Apply, by letter only, to Paper.
 April 1.

WANTED
A COACHMAN, who th his business, and can
 for sobriety.
 Address, S. B., Office of tl

A YOUNG WOMAN
 Upper Kitchen Maid
 under a Housekeeper; und thoroughly, and has good re
 Address, Z. S. Waterpar
Mrs. Phelps

The Planting
FOREST and Fruit Trees Roses, covering 40
 finest condition for Planting Priced List on
CORK—THE LOUGH

Free Emig
TO MELBOURNE,
FOR SINGLE WOMEN
OF CHARACTER, who hav Domestic Service. As on required, immediate person
 made to THOMAS M'MA
C.E., whose approval mus whom a certificate of cha Priest or other Clergyman
 mitted.
OFFICES, 33, CE
LIMERICK

Hours of attendance—Wed
 10 to 4 o
THOMAS M'MAHON
 Appointed by the Governm
 Counties of Limerick,
 Feb. 16.

At an inquest at Portsm
 the Rev. Mr. Price, chapl hanged himself in his cabin
 was returned of "Tempori