

in, M.P., supported the resolution, was put, and adopted. A motion moved the next resolution, as the last eighteen years of the past land had an independent Parliament in arts, commerce, and general progress even to herself; but since nature has taken the country under her prosperity, her commerce, more than three millions of her

Donald seconded the resolution, led by Galbraith, who rejoiced at being testant clergyman, to address a diocese in the Catholic county of linked God for that, and would be could contribute, in the slightest own the abominable barrier that n from such good men as stood t occasion (cheers). In the great ment which they were there to shmen—Conservatives and Lis and Catholics; and he would ice always to bear in mind that Conservatives were as true as ; but the diabolical and fiendish differing from both had kept herto (hear, and cheers) He acts from the speech delivered gton in the beginning of this sion of the distribution of prizes of the Royal Dublin Society and an introducing "the Westmeath which he avowed himself inex- ish affairs, and observed that the ch statesmen to the management s like handing over a sick patient , with whom communication could ter. He concluded by expressing t the union which, he said, was ng all classes of Irishmen, and red this but continue, nothing what- t them from gaining the great ob- ew—the right of governing them-ven Markey formally moved, and erty briefly seconded the follow- ing calls on the Government to Home Rule; and thus enable her

- J. Strangman, son of the late John Grubb, Esq., of Deer Park, Carrick-on-Suir, county Tipperary, to Lizzie, second daughter of Henry Rix Cox, Esq., Grosvenor-square, Rathmines.
- Fletcher and Cooper—In the Union Chapel, Lower Abbey-street, Dublin, Hugh Croal Fletcher, of Dundee, N.B., to Harriett Haweis, youngest daughter of the late Rev. Wm. Haweis Cooper, of Dublin.
- Haskins and Woodburne—At St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, William Haskins, Esq., of Shillelagh, county Wicklow, to Elizabeth, widow of the late John Woodburne, Esq., and third daughter of the late Rev. William Haweis Cooper, of Dublin.
- Vance and M'Ilwaine—At the Cathedral, Cork, William Nicholas Vance, Esq., M.D., Bristol, Tennessee, U.S.A., to Helen, youngest daughter of the late Mr. William M'Ilwaine, of Ballyronan, county Derry.
- Hales and Elton—At the Parish Church of St. Margaret's, Lee, Kent, the Rev. R. C. Hales, M.A., only son of the late Major J. Hales, formerly aide-de-camp to Governor-General the Marquis of Hastings, to Ada Young, second daughter of the late J. F. Elton, Esq., of H.M.'s 40th Regt.
- Palliser and Cotton—At St. Stephen's, South Kensington, London, Lieut.-Colonel Charles Henry Palliser, C.B., 10th Bengal Lancers, son of the late Major-General Henry Palliser, Royal Artillery, to Harriet Bertha, daughter of the late Rev. Charles Cotton, of Etwell Hall, Derbyshire.
- Brine and Knapton—At Boldre Church, Captain Lindsey Brine, R.N., to Emily Ethel, elder daughter of the Rev. Augustus James Knapton, M.A., of Boldre-hill, Hants.

DEATHS.

- Mason—On yesterday morning, in Dublin, Richd. H. Mason, Esq., of Athlaca Cottage, Athlaca, in this county.
- O'Sullivan—On the 16th inst., at 16, William-street, Margaret Anne, the beloved daughter of T. G. O'Sullivan, Esq., M.D., aged 2 years.
- O'Halloran—On Monday morning, in Mill-street, Ennis, in the 58th year of her age, Margaret, wife of Mr. John O'Halloran, merchant, of that town. The deceased was universally respected for the excellent qualities and many virtues which she possessed, and a large and respectable funeral cortege showed the public esteem in which she was held.
- M'Donnell—At the Carmelite Convent, 56, Aungier-street, Dublin, the Rev. Matthew M'Donnell, O.C.C., aged 29.
- Walshe—At Ashgrove, Dundrum, county Dublin, Nicholas H. Walshe, second surviving son of the late Thos. Walshe.
- Synnot—At Lisnascia, county Down, Robert Synnot, Esq., M.D., late of 2, Royal-avenue, London.
- Cochrane—At Belgrave-place, Brighton, Mary, wife of Wm. Marshall Cochrane, Lieut.-Col. 1st Royal Lanark Militia, and 2nd Administrative Batta. Surrey Rifle Volunteers.
- McCally—At Royal-crescent, Notting-hill, London, Major-General Andrew Munro McCally, late of the 28th Madras Native Infantry.
- Turner—At Wimbledon, Annette, widow of Lieut.-Colonel William Turner, Bengal Army.
- Staveley—At Kildare-gardens, Bayswater, Sarah, widow of Lieut.-General William Staveley, C.B.
- Crozier—At the residence of his sister, The Marina, Freshwater, Isle of Wight, Colonel Rawson J. Crozier, late Bombay Army.
- Hayes—While bathing in Lake Michigan, Robert Beatty, only son of Robert H. Hayes, of Church Villa, Rathmines, county Dublin, aged 21 years.

steels, large bound.
 Comprises cot, hair m press and gl &c.
 First-class capes in oil,
 Tables, d starch pot, bed, fire gr
 Also the all the Fixt spectable (license bein per annum. Sale at 12 2 o'Clock, Terms at August 1
WANT atte mended. Apply A August 8
 William burgh Ales state of per and the p quested to labels, as o Breweries, wick-street
 AM EVE Journal say are subject tually remo afternoon c being the r addition, b or tin is la pathic Che Milky Cacc May 16.