

Kent, Esq., Leinesterglass, county Wicklow, to Edith, only daughter of William Woods, Esq., Killeen House, Borrisokane.

Fair and Duke—At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, Alexander William Fair, Esq., 48th Regiment, eldest son of Captain T. Fair, Kingstown, to Annie, second daughter of Valentine Duke, Esq., M.D., Blackrock, co. Dublin.

Gaven and Murphy—At St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Glashtule, James Aloysius Gaven, Assistant Surgeon, Royal Marine Artillery, eldest son of James A. Gaven, Esq., of Leinster-road, Rathmines, to Alice Mary Stack, youngest daughter of Jeremiah Stack Murphy, Esq., J.P., Mount Vernon House, Kingstown, county Dublin.

Clayton and Murphy—At the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Marlborough-street, Dublin, Mathew, eldest son of P. Clayton, Esq., of Galway, to Louisa Jane, daughter of the late John Murphy, Esq., of Outerard.

Magrath and Greene—At Christ Church, Lee, Kent, Major Beauchamp Magrath, Madras Staff Corps, to Manie, eldest daughter of the late Henry Greene, Esq., C.E., of Bray, county Wicklow.

Cockburn and Harison—At Seaford, Sussex, Charles Frederick Cockburn, Esq., Captain Royal Artillery, to Edith Kate Hearn Harison, second daughter of the late Colonel N. E. Harison, Royal Artillery.

Rogers and Thornton—At Harrow, the Rev. Reginald Wellford Rogers, vicar of Cookham, to Emelia Sophia, eldest daughter of Edward Thornton, Esq., C.B., late of the Bengal Civil Service.

DEATHS.

Forster—On the 20th inst., at Stisted Rectory, Braintree, Essex, aged 82 years, the Rev. Charles Forster, brother of the late Ven. James W. Forster, Archdeacon of Ardfert and Aghadoo, deeply regretted by his family and friends.

Parker—This morning, at his residence, Lower Hartstengestreet, to the inexpressible grief of his widowed mother and friends, Master James Parker, aged 16,—an amiable, clever, and interesting lad.

Craig—At Garram, near Cashel, Margaret, wife of Robert M. Craig, Esq., and eldest daughter of Thos. De Quincey.

O'Mahony—In Cork, Captain Jeremiah O'Mahony, of the ship "Kate Agnes," from St. John's, New Brunswick.

Peirce—At Charleville-race, Tullamore, Elizabeth, infant daughter of John Peirce, Esq., A.M.

Baller—At Mellefont View, Monkstown, co. Dublin, Mary Elizabeth, last surviving daughter of the late James Baller, Esq.

Scott—At Shrewsbury House, Newport, Isle of Wight, Mary, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Percy Scott.

Willoughby—At Hyde-park, London, Major-General F. Willoughby, C.B., late Royal Artillery (Bombay).

Mellish—At Orston Vicarage, Notts, Sophia Stafford, wife of the Rev. W. J. Mellish.

Dundas—At Eastbourne, Caroline, widow of Admiral Sir John Burnet Dundas, Bart.

Jones—At Down End, Fareham, Hants, Frances Loftus Jones, eldest daughter of the late Captain Lewis Tobias Jones, of Ardnaglass, county Sligo.

Barry—At South Preston-terrace, near Tynemouth, Catharine, wife of George Barry, and daughter of the late Christopher Moore, Esq., of Newry, county Down, and Stranfield House, county Louth.

Barwell—At Lansdowne-place, Brighton, Capt. W. Barwell, Royal Navy.

Mercer—At Huntingtower, William Drummond Mercer, Esq., of Huntingtower, Perthshire, formerly Major in H.M.'s 16th Lancers.

In Gentry, and inhabit vicinity, that he has en for

THREE NIGHTS
With the Grand

MR. J. L.

From the Principal London assisted by the Leading Royal Dublin Company, 1

MR. G.

ON TUESDAY EVENING
Will be performed the celebrated written by H. J. Byron and performed upwards entitled,

DEARER THOU

MICHAEL GARNER (his original character)

To conclude with the
THE W.

SIMMONS, (as played by desire, and in the presence the Prince and Princess)

On WEDNESDAY EVENING
Will be performed for the first time the last new Drama, written expressly for M. J. L. To conclude 200 nights in London, entitled

UNCLE DICK

DICK DOLLARD (a cheap comedy)

To conclude with the
ICI ON PARI

SPRIGGINS (his original character)

Doors open at Seven o'clock

mence at half-past Seven

Tickets and places to be had of
BETT and SON'S, Music

Prices of admission—Box 1s ; Gallery, 6d.

August 24.

NEW METAL POCKET SPRING COVER.—Bryant introduced a very useful and ingenious article with a most ingenious and is a novelty in every way very general use—being and retailed, filled with Tobacco, Grocer, &c. supply it.