and no revival is expected until the turn of the year. Prices in all departments nominally the same as on Wednesday, but where sales are pressed a reduction must be submitted to.

LIVERPOOL CORN MARKET—Yesterday.

There was about an average attendance, and the business in wheat was on a moderate scale, sellers obtaining fully last Friday's prices, and American spring was rather dearer. Flour quiet, but steady. Beans and peas dull, and previous prices maintained. Oats and oatmeal quite inactive. Only a small business was done in Indian corn, and American, 31s 6d. to 31s 9d, prices being lower than during the past few days.

A further sum of the money taken from the Northern Bank, Newtown Stewart, by the murderer of Mr. Glass, on the 29th of June last, has been discovered. The notes were found in a lump, reduced to such a pulpy state by the action of the rain that at present it cannot be accurately ascertained what amount they represent.

upon the tuning, and as Mr. K. has the largest tuning connexion in the Kingdom, 3,000 families, cannot undertake to tune instruments purchased or hired out of other houses in Dublin, Limerick, or elsewhere, except those families he has been tuning for up to this date.

Mr. Keller has been honoured by the Countess of Dunraven with commands to attend at Adare Manor.

Mr. Keller's Pianos are all A 1 London manufacture. His Prices are considerably lower than houses that are continually advertising, and parties will find it very much their advantage to deal with Mr. K., as he can only promise to tune his own instruments, or in compliance with the wishes of his friends.

ADDRESS—48, GEORGE-STREET.

Mr. Keller has made arrangements to remain in town every Saturday from 1872.
