

Commission, such publication. And I have done it and practical object, ment to free us from cations by suspending the ets. I regard the indeli- repugnance and loathing, than the indelicate Acts is to remove. Nor could or shall I in the future, my publication that goes ity of the case in its facts r is it possible for such h practices as they sanc- and such a report and evi- publication by the House ned and canvassed, with- g that which will distress y comprehension. And if assertion is proved—that e inevitable as long as the

as pronounced against the has joined the Dollinger COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND thorough knowledge of the ern the operations of diges- by a careful application of ill-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps ast tables with a delicately h may save us many heavy price Gazette. Made simply or Milk. Each packet is & Co., Homoeopathic Che- , makers of Epps's Milky nsed Milk).

◆

◆
VESTA BOX WITH PATENT it and May have recently ul little Pocket Vesta Box and simple spring cover; it ay, and will soon come into g of metal instead of card, vestas, at one penny. Any Chemist, or Chandler, will Patrick Cahill, of Henry-street, to Miss Catherine Naughton, of William-street, both of the city of Limerick.

 Vaughan and Macnamara—July 25th, at Loughill, by the Rev. James Hogan, P.P., assisted by the Rev. John O'Shaughnessy, C.C., Constable Vaughan, R.I.C., to Maria Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. M. Macnamara, of Loughill.
 Forde and Pilkington—At Clomanto Church, Henry Forde, Esq., of Dublin, B.A.L., to Grace Geraldine, eldest daughter of William Pilkington, Esq., Borrismore, county Kilkenny, and Carrick, Queen's County.
 McNeile and Lush—At St. Paul's Church, Avenue-road, N.W., London, Hector McNeile, Esq., B.A., Fellow of St. John's College, Oxford, son of the Very Rev. the Dean of Ripon, D.D., to Mary Rosa, second daughter of the Hon. Mr. Justice Lush.
 Jones and Beechey—At St. Mark's Church, Worsley, Capt. Champion Jones, late 20th Regt., to Charlotte, daughter of the Rev. Canon Beechey, vicar of Worsley and Chaplain to the Earl of Ellesmere and Lord Grantley.

DEATHS.

Sikes—On Thursday, 27th inst., at Kilkee, Elizabeth Sikes, third daughter of the late Francis C. Sikes, of this city.— Her remains will be removed for interment from the Steamboat Quay on Monday evening, 31st inst., at five o'clock, p.m.
 Lynch—July 28th, at Canal House, Limerick, after a brief illness, Ellen, the beloved wife of Mr. Thomas Lynch, sincerely and deservedly regretted.
 M'Dermott—At Springfield, co. Galway, Michael, youngest son of Captain Owen M'Dermott.
 Staunton—At the Medical Hall, Galway, the residence of his son, Edward Staunton, Esq.
 Flinter—At his residence, Mayfield House, Lismore, county Waterford, John Dawson Flinter, Esq., late an officer of her Majesty's Customs, London.
 Hullett—At Rathgar-road, Dublin, Jane, wife of Thomas Hullett, Esq.
 Furey—At his residence, Old Castle, Dargan, Bryan Furey, Esq., eldest son of the late Nicholas Ormsby Furey, Esq.
 Lucas—At his residence, Montpelier-hill, Dublin, Mr. Wm. Lucas.
 Reidy—At Upper Quartertown, near Mallow, Mr. William Reidy.
 Burke—At his residence, the Square, Loughroa, Robert Burke, Esq.
 Topham—At Ballyhaise, county Cavan, Isabella, wife of Thomas Topham, Esq.
 Freer—At the Stone House, Kenilworth, Mrs. General Freer.
 Kearney—At his residence, Upper Brook street, Grosvenor-square, London, Lieut.-Colonel Charles Kearney, late of the Queen's Bays.
 Shirley—At Grove-terrace, Highgate-road, London, Henry James Shirley, F.R.C.S., late Surgeon Worcester Militia, and Assistant-Surgeon to H.M. Cavalry Staff, Canterbury and Shorncliffe.
 Darragh—At Kirkee, near Poona, Bombay, Major Darragh, Royal Engineers, eldest and only surviving son of the late Lieut.-Colonel Darragh.