

DUBLIN, WEDNESDAY, ... to Bride Josephine, daughter of James Purcell, Esq., Thomas-street, Limerick.
 Irvine and Barrington—At St. Selskar Church, Wexford, Thomas Thompson Irvine, Esq., 44th Regt., to Emily Mary, second daughter of John Barrington, Esq., Rivers-field, Wexford.
 Nolan and Casey—At St. Mary's, Irishtown, Clonmel, David Nolan, Esq., merchant, Waterford, to Mary Josephine, daughter of Patrick Casey, Esq., T.C., Clonmel.
 Carington and Warden—At St. Martins-in-the-Fields, London, Captain Hon. W. Carington, Grenadier Guards, M.P.
 for Wycombe, to Juliet, daughter of Francis Warden, Esq., Avenue des Champs Elysées, Paris.
 Bateman and Dashwood—At Stanford-on-Soar, Capt. Hugh Osborne Bateman, 43rd Light Infantry, son of the Rev.
 John Bateman, rector of West Leake, to Lydia Charlotte Dashwood, daughter of the Rev. Samuel Vere Dashwood, of Stanford Park, Notts.
 Grant and Smythe—At St. Mary's, Bryanston-square, London, William John Grant, third son of the late Lieut.- Colonel John Castle Grant, J.P., to Isabella, daughter of the late Rev. Thomas Smythe.
 Smith and Bonnor—At Edinburgh, Major Charles Bean Lucie Smith, Madras Staff Corps, to Jane, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Bonnor, Esq.
 Boyle and Neill—At St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Edinburgh, Andrew Thomas Boyle, Esq., 88th Connaught Rangers, to Julia Helene, youngest daughter of John Neill, Esq., of Lixmount, Edinburgh.

DEATHS.

Tippett—On the 28th instant, at the residence of his son-in-law, 2, Upper Mallow-street, Limerick, Thomas Tippett, Esq., late Chief Officer, Coast Guards.
 M'Carthy—At his residence in the town of Kilfinane, Henry M'Carthy, Esq., aged 50 years, deeply and deservedly regretted.
 Murphy—At his residence, Wellington-square, Cork, Maurice Murphy, Esq., Inspector Cork Butter Exchange.
 Jones—At Dublin, Charles Edward Jones, Esq., Assistant-Surgeon, 31st Regt.
 Browne—At Dublin, Mary Catherine, fourth daughter of James Browne, Esq., formerly of Browneville, Galway.
 Harris—At Dublin, Wesley Harris, Esq., eldest son of the Rev. Dr. Harris, formerly of Elton, county Wicklow.
 Harton—At Belfast, Eliza, relict of the late Captain John Harton, H.E.I.C.S.
 Rice—At Wilton, co. Cork, Ellen, relict of the late Thomas Rice, Esq.
 Kelly—At Ellis's-quay, Dublin, Hubert Kelly, Esq.
 Hunt—At her residence, Upper Merrion-street, Dublin, Dorcas Hunt.
 Topham—Wm Topham, of Christ Church and St. Patrick's Cathedral choirs, Dublin.
 Corken—Snowden Corken, Esq., Ingham, Lisburn, only surviving son of the late Rev. John Corken, vicar of Aghalee, county Antrim.
 Chancellor—At Chessington, the Rev. Francis Chancellor, M.A., Brasenose College, Oxford, Assistant Minister at St. John's Chapel, Hampstead, son of George and Elizabeth North Chancellor, of Chessington Hall, Surrey.
 Hore—At Kensington-square, Kensington, London, Edward George Hore, Capt. R.N., for eleven years Naval Attache to the British Embassy in Paris.

Oats opened firm, but closed dull Meaze, beans, and peas firm,

A public conference on the traffic legislation was held in Bir-day, the Mayor presiding. A passed unanimously expressing the remedy calculated to diminish the fluence of the liquor traffic would or meet the necessities of the con-it combines with other provisions the people, by a majority of two the sale of intoxicating liquors district where the inhabitants from the primary cause of national crime."

The death is announced of Mr.
 many years identified with the of the celebrated Stud Farm at tham, and from whose liberal guineas to the Middle Park Pla-event was established. Mr. Blsixty-third year.

The Congress of the "Peace Leat Lausanne on Monday. Let the principles of the League were zini, Louis Blanc, Quinet, Mich-Mdme. Thuringe. M. G. Lemon-to the divergency between the the Peace League, advocated an and the re-establishment of a jou-States. Herr Sonnemann, the of the German Reichstag, br-greeting from the Democrats of stated, were opposed to the anand Lorraine. He deplored the public spirit in Germany, and ex-tion that France and Germany extend hands to each other, not Bonapartists and Bismarcks. It applause with which these se-ceived by the meeting was but fe-defended the Internationale, and the League should oppose the subject, if passed, and that all Internationale. Moderate opiniadds, prevailed on the whole, of Lausanne was utterly indiceedings.