

Warren De La Fonce Wright, Esq., son of Edward Wright, Esq., LL.D., Barrister-at-Law, of Flora Ville, county of Dublin, and of the Boltons, Brompou, Middlesex, S.W., to Mary, only daughter of Henry Connor White, Esq., Royal Dublin Society, and granddaughter of the late Henry White, of Golden Hills, county of Tipperary.

Taylor and Nash—At Adare Church, county Limerick, the Rev. Edward H. Taylor, to Mary Alice, daughter of the late Rev. Thomas E. Nash, Rector of Macroom, county Cork.

Perrott and Burrowes—At St. Luke's Church, Cork, William Perrott, Esq., C.E., of Prior's Lee, Salop, to Jeanie, daughter of Thomas Burrowes, Esq., Alderman, Mount Verdon Lodge, Cork.

Louth and McCallum—At the Presbyterian Church, Sandy-mount, county Dublin, William Louth, Esq., Superintendent Telegraph Engineer, to Jessie Jane, eldest daughter of Captain McCallum, Dublin Artillery.

Smyth and Sandys—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Frederick Henry Smyth, Esq., M.D., Royal Mail Service, to Emma, second daughter of William Sandys, Esq.

Kennedy and Read—At the Pro-Cathedral, Kensington, London, Hugh Vincent Kennedy, Esq., eldest son of J. B. Kennedy, Esq., of Dublin, to Jane Maria, only daughter of the late Thomas Read, Esq., of Kensington.

Sharples and Deane-Freeman—At the Cathedral, Bombay, by special license, Captain J. Sharples, Instructor of Musketry, 39th Regt., to Elmina L., youngest daughter of the late Rev. Richard Deane-Freeman, Clifton, Fermoy, co. Cork.

DEATHS.

Spaight—On the 24th May, at Montreal, George, only son of the late Rev. George Spaight, for many years Rector of Coleraine, aged 30 years.

Tomkins—At No. 4, Westland-street, Esther Frances Tomkins, a most interesting child, aged 9 years.

Lynch—At her residence, Mount Verdon-terrace, Cork, Mrs. Anne Lynch, relict of the late George Alexander Lynch, Esq.

Abbott—Charles Llewellyn, third son of the Rev. T. K. Abbott, F.T.C.D.

Haffield—At Dublin, H. B. Haffield, M.D.

Allen—At Douglas, Isle of Man, George Allen, Esq., late of the 88th Regt., formerly of Waterford.

Lewis—At Bedford-place, Russell-square, London, Hester Margaret, youngest daughter of the late General Sir Wm. Pringle, K.C.B., and wife of Dr. Waller Lewis, Physician to H.M. Post-office.

Selkirk—At St. Mary's Isle, Kirdkudbright, the Countess of Selkirk.

Steer—At Marazion, Cornwall, Lieut.-Colonel William Frederick Steer, late of the H.E.I.C.S.

Smith—At the Grove, Windsor, Ellen Theresa, widow of Major-General John Nicholas Smith, Bengal Army.

Bailey—At Melbourne, Victoria, the Hon. John Robinson Bailey, merchant, and late Postmaster-General, Victoria.

Peacocke—At Hazareebaugh, Bengal, Dr. George Peacocke, M.A., Surgeon H.M.'s 63rd Regt.

Innes—At Simla, from the effects of a fall, Major-General Peter Innes, of the Bengal Army.

M'Egan—Drowned at Halifax, U.S., Barnaby Constance M'Egan, Surgeon of the "City of Durham" s.s. Inman Company.

made a civil C.B.

THE BRITISH ASSOCIATION.— association to its members ha nouncing the meeting at Edin August, under the presiden Thompson, F.R.S., Professor of in the University of Glasgo afforded by the railway and s will probably render a large at can be no doubt of the cordial The city and its neighbourhood is of high historic interest, an for the geologist and naturalist. panies, by agreement among t vey members from any part of from Edinburgh by first and available from the 1st to the 11 days included.

PARIS—Order still reigns in ing rumours at La Villette hav MacMahon to send strong rein quarter. The state of siege is day we are told that the army ate the capital in two or thre going to Versailles and 50,00 further important arrests have Urbain, who is alleged to hav instigator of the massacre of th is said to be greatly improving de Paris coming in pretty weather bringing increasing c The report that 150 sham fir cuted at Versailles has been of and its publication in the Eng Times correspondent telegraph nation. The correspondent ad arrival of prisoners from Pari executions either at Versaille very few prisoners met their insubordination or aggression i prisoners are now being daily

William Younger and Co.'s burgh Ales, of the finest quali state of perfection, may be o and the principal Retailers. requested to observe signatur labels, as other brands are & Breweries, Edinburgh, Limer wick-street.