

U. D., late 17th Lancers, of a son.
McMahon—At Epsom, Surrey, the wife of Captain Donat Edmond McMahon, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

Powell and Adams—At St. Luke's Church, Cork, William Powell, Esq., of Middleton, co. Cork, to Gertrude Caroline, widow of the late Hugh Travers Adams, Esq., of Prospect Lodge, Innishannon, and daughter of the late Chambre Corcor, Esq., of Cor Castle.

Kerr and Wilson—At Clontarf Church, Dublin, Geo. Alexander Kerr, Esq., Drogheda; to Annie L., second daughter of the late Francis Wilson, Esq., of Virginian Lodge, Clontarf, and Newcomen-place, North Strand, Dublin.

Hazlett and Harris—At St. Mark's Church, Armagh, George W. Hazlett, Esq., solicitor, Lurgan, to Sarah Louisa Caroline, daughter of Henry Harris, Esq., Armagh.

Kennedy and Gill—At Stoke Church, Devonport, Commander A. J. Kennedy, R.N., H.M.S. Implacable, to Cordella M., daughter of Thomas Husband Gill, Esq.

Gilbert and Maskew—At East Fordington, Dorchester, Henry John Gilbert, of the Wilts and Dorset Bank, Dorchester, eldest son of Thos. Gilbert, Esq., of Salisbury, to Alice, eldest daughter of the Rev. T. R. Maskew, Head Master of the Dorchester Grammar School.

Coates and Rickards—At Constantine, Cornwall, Albert Coates, Esq., of Manilla, third son of John Coates, Esq., late of Beechey, Manchester, to Lily, fifth daughter of the Rev. Robert Francis Bute Rickards, vicar of Constantine.

DEATHS.

Tuthill—On the 21st inst., at her residence, 8, Catherine-place, Limerick, Miss Susanna Tuthill, much regretted by those who knew her.

Moylan—Feb. 1st, at Kabenda, West Coast, Africa, Michael F. Moylan, R.N., Assistant-Surgeon H.M.S. Pert, second son of John Moylan, Esq., Abbey View Terrace, Rathkeale.

Prossor—March 21st, at the Bank House, Newcastle, county Limerick, Samuella Evans, the infant daughter of Samuel R. Prossor, Esq., aged two months.

Cullinan—On Friday, the 24th inst., at his residence, Woodstock, Ennis, James Cullinan, Esq. The deceased was esteemed by all classes in society for his strict integrity and the many other excellent qualities of mind which formed the attributes of his character through life. Mr.
Cullinan was about 60 years of age.

Brown—At his residence, Marino-terrace, Clontarf, county Dublin, the Rev. Matthew Cassan Brown, youngest son of the late Rev. Peter Brown, Dean of Ferns.

Blakely—At St. Ann's Hill, Cork, Mary William, widow of the late Very Rev. Theophilus Blakely, Dean of Down.

Lee—At her residence, Mespil-road, Dublin, Charlotte Ellen, widow of the late Very Rev. John Lee, D.D., Principal of the University of Edinburgh.

Forsayeth—At Templemore, Kate, wife of R. M. Forsayeth, Esq., M.D.

Onge—At Richmond, Templemore, Divo Onge, Esq.

Hodson—At Beechwood, county Roscommon, Leonard J.
Hodson, Esq., son of the late Leonard Hodson, Esq., of Hodson's Bay.

Porteous—At Frederick House, St. Martin's-road, Stockwell, London, Annabella Frances, wife of the Rev. G. B.
Porteous.

Wan
A LAUNDRESS, and Dairy. Wages, £1
Apply by sending copie
Parker, Castle Lough, Kilt

Case of Dee

THE MISSES GUBBIN
Gubbins, formerly i Cathedral of Limerick, we cumstances by their father, and all their money was to Their eldest brother, y them, was killed in th
They have since been depe brother, a curate in the di some time since, leaving th entirely destitute.

Contributions will be th
Dean of Limerick, Deans
Rev. J. T. Waller, Castlet and by the Rev. Charle Limerick.

ENGLISH AID FOR THE meeting of the English co Irish Church Sustainatio adopted embodying the fo ments:—Two Archbishop 10 bishops at £1,200 per clergymen at £250; ma 1,000 churches, at £20; £300,000 per annum. It scriptions were coming in the matter was being wa chester.

The Irish company in been disbanded, and the in Ireland any day hencef been asked to remain in t their present rank.

The Prince Imperial
the West Kent (Queen's
He was present at drill o
and will probably join th
for the Wednesday follo