

n of the Bank of Eng-of its directors and er details equally with in the most important of the currency of this g the fortunes of all manner, vote at the
the regulation of than one hundred gs. Mind has no
gle to abolish slat is the basis of the success by peaceable,
is. We t of physical strength, are is not military, it is We rely entirely on mmon to both sexes."
ag ago, are reproduced zine devoted to the int to guide the present the question of women's uk, near Odessa, 800

these fires are of constant ed to fanatical sects of d Carnarvon, and Mr.

the Times denying their e new social movement.
denials have a certain sters of the Marquis of Sir Stafford Northcote
n authorized diplomatist with the working men. ls that the propositions nd, essentially and radi-rance Sale

EARTHENWARE,
STON,
W-STREET,
OCTOBER 23rd,
5 evening days.

Monday will commence Lots from the past great risk. Afterwards a great Ornamental China, Glass lots, for the Trade and at 12 o'clock.

BERNAL, Auctioneer.

Fairfax—At Tanoumes, ~~interviewed~~, Lient.-Colonel Fairfax, Grenadier Guards, of a daughter.
French—At Kingston, Canada West, the wife of Lient.-Col.
George Arthur French, R.A., of a daughter.
Lloyd—At Rajkote, Bombay, the wife of Captain J. Hayes Lloyd, Staff Corps, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Feneran and Bleazby—At Ballymartle Church, William T.
F. Feneran, late Captain of the 70th Regiment, youngest son of Colonel Feneran, Newport, Isle of Wight, to Catherine, only daughter of the late John Bleazby, Esq., of Ballinacurra House, Kinsale, county Cork.
Beamish and Somerville—At Myross Church, John Beamish, eldest son of Thomas Beamish, Esq., of Cashelmore, to Elizabeth Townsend, second daughter of James Edward Somerville, Esq., M.D., Puck Cottage, Cork.
Galloway and Knox—By special license, at the residence of the bride, George, eldest son of Mr. Charles Galloway, Ballymoney, to Bessie, only daughter of Mr. Robt. Knox, Currysicken.
Burke and Pinions—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, John, youngest son of the late Thomas Burke, Esq., Minmore, to Elizabeth Mary, daughter of Edward Pinions, Esq., Hollyfort, county Wexford.
Butler and Brickenden—At All Souls' Church, Langham-place, London, William Theobald Butler, Esq., Capt. 8th (The King's) Regiment, to Anne Robina, only surviving daughter of Major Lambert Brickenden, late 71st Highland Light Infantry.
Graham and Hay—At St. John's Episcopal Church, Edinburgh, Captain John Gordon Graham, Royal Dragoons, to Susanna Elizabeth Touchet, eldest daughter of the late Sir John Hay, Bart.
Kennedy and Harris—At Secunderabad, Lieut. R. G. Kennedy, 18th Hussars, to Agnes Fanny, daughter of the late
A. Harris, Esq.

DEATHS.

Ward—On the 17th instant, at his residence, Hartstonge-street, universally regretted by a large circle of fellow-citizens and friends, Francis Ward, Esq., aged 69 years.— His remains will be interred at the New Cemetery on Friday morning, at 8 o'clock.
Parker—On Wednesday morning, Oct. 18, at Castle Lough, Killaloe, Anna Christina, the dearly-beloved wife of Anthony Parker, Esq.
Blood—At Dublin, Frances, daughter of the late Neptune Blood, Esq., of Brick Hill, county Clare.
Carew—At Tipperary, Johanna, relict of Jeremiah Carew, Esq.
Potts—At his residence, Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin, Joseph Trunperant Potts, Esq., J.P.
Synge—At Bishopwearmouth, Sunderland, the Rev. Edward Synge, vicar of St. Peter's, Bishopwearmouth, fourth son of the late John Synge, of Glamore, co. Wicklow.
MacCartie—At Gortmore, Charles MacCartie, eldest son of the late Daniel MacCartie, Esq., Ardnageeha, co. Cork.
Harrison—At Hume-street, Dublin, Sophia Mary Harrison, eldest daughter of the late Robt. Harrison, Esq., M.D.
Bolster—At Currabower, Anne, relict of the late George Bolster, Esq., and daughter of Corliss Hawkes, Esq., of Carhue, co. Cork, where she was born in the year 1775.
Basset—At Eastbourn-terrace, London, Major Basset, of Beaupre, county of Glamorgan, late of the 74th Highlanders and 94th Regt.
Egerton—At St. James's-square, London, the Hon. Loftus Charles Egerton, youngest son of Lord and Lady Egerton of Tatton.
Young—At Buckingham Palace-road, London, Richard Young, Esq., Sheriff of London and Middlesex.

Business was resumed
July 11.

THE HONG T

THE Undersigned b
New Season's Tea
their fresh strong scent
The Tea at 3s. per l mended, 7lbs. for 20s.
with the Assam grow
great strength

Finest Continental
Finest Raspberry
bottle.

All Orders personall
prior,

ROBER

May 11.

Election of a H

NOTICE is hereby 23rd of October Electors qualified to sent the Harbour Ra Harbour Board Room
the hour of 12 o'Clock electing a Commission room of James Spaight
ex-officio Member of th
The Ballot Box
o'Clock.

Candidates must b Secretary (in writing
day, the 20th Instan

WILLI
S
C
October 19, 1871.

To H

JAMES PEACOC
tion to his Cr
at 4s. per stone, & Comic.

THE LIMERICK S
22, WILLIA
Te