Testimonials also from the leading Nobility, Clergy, and Gentry through the United Kingdom, and sustained by the most eminent medical men in Ireland, and can refer to them; they can certify to the skill of J. M. in the removal of corns, bunions, chilblains, irregular and ingrowing toe nails, disarranged joints, and all ailments that prevent the free use and comfort of the feet, without pain or inconvenience.

Can be consulted each day, at 44, Cecil-street, from 11 to 4 o'clock up to the 8th of April. Out visits before and after hours of practice.

He begs to annex the following, from the numerous Testimonials he has received:—
From the Rt. Revd. Dr. O'Brien, R.C.B., of Waterford and Lismore.

Mr. Joseph Murphy, 11, Cathedral-square, Chiropodist, has extracted from my feet several Corns, without creating the slightest pain. I suffered much for several years from these Corns, and applied to persons of high character as Chiropodists, but without success. I can now walk with great ease, and feel quite comfortable; and recommend Mr. Murphy's method of extraction as being most successful.
D. O'BRIEN, R.C.B.

From Gen. Sir John Gough, K.C.B.

Sir John Gough begs to inform Mr. Murphy that his treatment of his son has been most successful, and that he is now completely cured of the corns from which he had been suffering. Sir John has also been informed by other friends of his that Mr. Murphy has been equally successful.

From William Molony, P.P.

Mr. Joseph Murphy, Chiropodist, has extracted several corns from my feet, and has removed a very troublesome bunion without causing me the slightest pain. I strongly recommend him to all similarly affected as I have been. He is very obliging, and most skilful in the various branches of his profession.

WILLIAM MOLONY, P.P.,
Donoughmore, Limerick.

Nov. 17, '70.

From John J. Cleary, T.C., P.L.G.

Mr. Joseph Murphy has extracted several corns for me, and I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the great relief he has given me. Any person requiring his services will find him a skilful Chiropodist and careful in his operations.
JOHN J. CLEARY, T.C., P.L.G.,
Proprietor Cruise's Royal Hotel.

From R. F. Tobin, Esq., M.D., Royal Artillery.

I have much pleasure in testifying to Mr. Murphy's skill as a Chiropodist, as I have seen his treatment attended with complete success.
R. F. TOBIN, M.D.

From John H. Prosser, M.D., Bagwel-street, Clonmel.

I feel great pleasure in recommending Mr. Joseph Murphy, Chiropodist, having been successful in curing me of two bad bunions, which had disabled me for a long time. Mr. Murphy has been successful with parties known to me.
JOHN H. PROSSER, M.D.

From Wm. Carroll, Esq., M.D.

Mr. JOSEPH MURPHY, Chiropodist, has operated on several persons well known to me with complete success. I believe him to be a skilful practitioner in his art.

W. CARROLL, M.D.
