

one regiment of infantry, series. Numerous Carlist northern province. Carlist Carlists as completely masters provinces, and state that an expected to be fought in

MARKET—THIS DAY.
PORTS.

	MILD	CURED.
5	Firsts,	...	125s
5	Seconds,	...	108s
5	Thirds,	...	97s
5	Fourths,	...
5	Fifths,	...
5	Sixths,	...

MARKET—THIS DAY.
Options of stock much less quality above the average for weeks met quick sale at a week. Dull trade in sheep, beef hardly obtainable. Beef sheep in wool 9½d to 10½d; calves 7d to 10d.

MARKET.—THIS DAY.
Wheat, barley, or oats. Trade business done in Black Sea of 6d to 1s on the rates of last our firm at the recent improved 6d. Weather fine.

MARKET.—YESTERDAY.
Demand at market. English in 2s. to 3s. dearer than on y flour, 2s., and American 1s. and maize 6d., and oats 3d. and 1s.; peas, firm.

MARKET.—YESTERDAY.
Supply of stock, and owing to sales progressed slowly. There are on offer, and a few foreign are—Beasts, 7d. to 9d.; wool clipped, 8d. to 9½d.; lambs, 30s. numbers were—Beasts, 1,260; 30.

Burgh is about to become one of the members of the Civil Service Musicians.

Esq., of Mount House, Kildare, youngest son of the late Major Jessop, C.B., of Butterley Hall, Derbyshire, to Matilda Jemima, eldest daughter of Sir Thomas Dancer, of Modreeny House, county Tipperary, and Queen-square, Bath.

Laurie and Ferrier—At St. Bridget's Church, Castleknock, William Forbes Laurie, Esq., of Kandy, Ceylon, to Marion Maxwell, second daughter of Alexander Ferrier, Esq., of Knockmaroon, county Dublin.

Shaw and Bell—In the Presbyterian Church, Rathgar, co. Dublin, by special licence, William Shaw, Esq., M.D., Lurgan, to Mary Elizabeth, younger daughter of the late Richard Bell, Esq.; Dundalk.

Terry and Malcolmson—At St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, London, Courtenay Forbes Terry, Esq., Captain 60th Rifles, second son of Lieut.-Colonel Thomas Terry, of Burvale, Esher, to Barbara Stark, youngest daughter of the late James Malcolmson, Esq., of 35, Gloucester-square, Hyde-park, London.

DEATHS.

Mansergh—At Portarlington, on the 9th inst., Raphael W. Mansergh, Esq., formerly of the 25th Regt., in the 69th year of his age.

Shine—At Coolreagh, near this city, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with Christian fortitude, John Shine, Esq., eldest son of the late Mr. P. Shine, of Carrigparson. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his loss, and is also sincerely and deservedly regretted by his neighbours.

Dancer—At Queen-square, Bath, Sir Thomas B. G. Dancer, Bart., of Modreeny House, county Tipperary, aged 66.

Maguire—On yesterday, the 13th inst., in Mill-street, Ennis, in the 24th year of his age, Mr. John Maguire, jun. The deceased was the nephew of Mr. John Maguire, hardware merchant, and his premature death is a source of great regret to his family and friends.

Tymons—At his town residence, Gardiner's-place, Dublin, James Tymons, Esq., of Baskin Hill, county Dublin, aged 71 years.

Foster—At Montenotte, Cork, Anne, widow of the late Lieut.-Colonel Foster, formerly of H.M.'s 68th Regiment, aged 72.

Eagar—At Ballymacfarrar House, Killorglin, aged 91 years, Mrs. Annabella Eagar, relict of the late Alexander Eagar, Esq., M.D., of Trales.

Raymond—At the residence of her son, the Rev. William Raymond, Kilfynn, in her 80th year, Mildred, widow of the late George Raymond, Esq., Lieut. in the 57th Regt.

Stannus—At The Elms, Portarlington, Caroline, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Stannus, Esq., aged 86 years.

Eames—At Queen-street, Derry, Dr. Eames, in the 70th year of his age.

Beamish—At Wellington-road, Dublin, Lucy, wife of George Beamish, Esq., and daughter of the late Samuel Cross-thwaite, Esq., of Bagnalstown, county Carlow.

O'Heny—At Dublin, Margaret Mary, wife of James O'Heny, Esq., Brittas, Cashel, county Tipperary.

Wogan-Browne—At Ashbrook-terrace, South Circular-road, Dublin, George Augustus Wogan-Browne, son of Captain Thomas Wogan-Browne, of Castle Browne, co. Kildare.

Bell—Suddenly, at his residence, Newtownforbes, county Longford, James Bell, Esq., C.E.

Bunbury—At his residence, Noremount, near. Kilkenny, Benjamin Bunbury, Esq.

Lynch-Staunton—Lost at sea, on the 7th of April, from the clipper ship Patriarch, on the homeward voyage from Sydney, in his 20th year, George, eldest son of M. Lynch-Staunton, Esq., and grandson of George Lynch-Staunton, Esq., D.L., of Clydagh, county Galway.

do these things but in the ga the way to u honest. The au exclusively from t sequences of that with their assume shame and a d people in doubt, bishops said, in would take the re on their should authority of the f an England audie their flocks wh should know, and their friends. V priest who dare out bringing d censure of the with facts pre of people held simply appalling on these points i Catholics, which gregation, woul those men did n doing. He shou because he could in matters so sa the amount of p character of the besought his hea by such authorit who boasted of t own hands.—Te SHOCKING DE an inquest on S lebone Workho Pockock, residin square. Deceased in her left arm the night when a candle and wa screams brought he wrapped the the carpet, by flames, but the serious a natur remove her to t Wednesday las of death was al on the severe n turned a verdic