

ite they were altogether for the moment the ques- ; but I was absolutely e treasure and shedding trymen on behalf of could comprehend, as was ever able to explain ear—we find the Govern- overment, I will under- sagacious and patriotic, heir occasional errors, as had—a Government in Prime Minister and Lord ely connected with your ortant member—yet this isely and necessarily, to was considered the prin- with Russia, a surrender been necessary, because forced upon Russia was powerful country would the right hon. gentleman ountable things in history es—not the great body of ent, Parliament, and the st influential members of y of them—should for a with a rebellion the sole ich was to perpetuate for s of human beings. I did ; I said from the first, au, in a few observations use of Commons, “Leave ates are powerful enough ies. I believe they will et was to counsel what at ous and not an unriendly o witness, and the whole er, if we had pursued the lity, we should not have negotiations, concessions, we have been subjected hope, and believe in ali s which have arisen will the conduct of the Go- hing which people could his subject ; and I speak of the most intimate cha- ; no gentlemen in this s for all difficulties to be United Kiagdom and the ve together in perfect have the responsibility at inistering the Executive cy.”

putation dined with Mr. the presentation of the

- Esq., of a daughter.
 Russell—At Southampton-row, Russell-square, London, the wife of George H. Russell, of a daughter, stillborn.
 Mure—At Cadogan-place, London, the Hon. Mrs. Mure, of a daughter.
 Home—At Walker-street, Edinburgh, the wife of Sir George Home, Bart., of a son.
 Harvey—At Hale-erescent, Farnham, the wife of Captain G. R. Harvey, 99th Regt., of a daughter.
 Kirkwood—At Kamptee, the wife of T. Moore Kirkwood, Assistant-Surgeon 44th Regt., of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

- Baker and Reeves—At St. Stephen's Church, Dublin, Chas. Cecil Baker, late 15th Regt., only son of the late Captain Charles H. Baker, R.N., of Walmer, Kent, to Caroline, youngest daughter of the late Joseph R. Reeves, Esq., of Athgarvan House, county Kildare, and Fitzwilliam-place, Dublin.
 Low and Read—At the Rutland-square Presbyterian Church, Dublin, George Low, Esq., Burghtown, county Kildare, to Helena Marion, widow of the late George Read, Esq., Helston, Cornwall.
 Hardy and Kirkpatrick—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, William, fourth son of the late Robert Boyd Hardy, Esq., of Cooley Hill, Tandragee, to Nannie Atkinson, eldest daughter of the late Alexander H. Kirkpatrick, Esq., of Larne.
 Keegan and Ansell—At the Catholic Church, Loughbrickland, John J. Keegan, eldest son of James Keegan, J.P., of Brooklyn, Holywood, Belfast, to Anna Mary, youngest daughter of the late Major Edward C. Ansell, 74th Highlanders.
 Corr and Morton—At St. Mary's Catholic Church, Clapham, Thomas Bernard Corr, of Parsonstown, Ireland, to Mary Eliza, only daughter of Robert Morton, Clapham Park, Clapham, London, S.W.
 Armit and Eyre—At Knowsley, Lancashire, John C. Giffard Armit, Esq., of Castlejordan, King's County, to Mary, daughter of the late John Eyre, Esq., of Eyrecourt Castle, county Galway.
 Morphy and Tomson—At St. Stephen's Church, Bayswater, London, Martin Morphy, Captain 40th Regt., son of the late Richard Morphy, Esq., J.P., Killarney, co. Kerry, to Isabel, second daughter of the late Wm. Tomson, Esq., Clifton Lawn, Ramsgate, Kent.

DEATHS.

- Fraser—In London, on the 9th inst., William Fraser, War Office, eldest son of William Fraser, Esq., late Manager, Bank of Ireland, Limerick.
 Daly—On the 11th inst., at Charleville, in the 45th year of his age, Richard Daly, Esq., J.P., late Manager of the Munster Bank, Charleville, regretted by the whole community.
 Bredin—July 11, at Myshal Rectory, county Carlow, Mary, the beloved wife of the Rev. James Bredin.
 De Butts—July 11, at Brennan-terrace, Bray, co. Wicklow, Frederick De Butts, late Colonel in the Austrian Service, O.E.K.O. 3, eldest son of the late Frederick De Butts, formerly of Springfield, near Bray, aged 68 years.
 M'Master—At his residence, Dunbarton House, Gilford, co. Down, John Walsh M'Master, Esq., J.P.
 Bird—In London, Alexander M'Clintock Bird, Esq., formerly of Newtown House, county Louth.
 Massey—At Portland-place, London, Frances Carleton, wife of the Right Hon. W. N. Massey.
 Wallace—At Eltham-road, Lee, Catherine Matilda, wife of Major-General Sir R. Wallace, K.C.S.I.
 Macartney—At Tunbridge-wells, London, Maryanne, eldest daughter of the late Andrew Macartney, Esq., Rosebrook, county Armagh.
 Langton—At Albano, near Rome, Henry Michael Faustinus Langton, of Dungannon, county Kilkenny, Captain in the Louth Rifles Militia.
 Grainger—At his residence, in Bruges, William Edward Grainger, formerly of Caurestown, county Meath.

MR.

IS favoured with in- teen, who has Se term of ~~year~~, to Sell 22nd July Inst., the consisting of set mahc centre table, handson loo and fancy tables, 1 room, dining room a curtains, sun and law four, dining room and steels, pier and chinn cabinets, chimney orn and engravings, dinne china, cut glass decan cruit frames, bread knives and forks, hall carpeting and rods, t stand, &c.

B 7 in number, are fully hair mattresses, feat hogony and painted w toilet ware, towel aire bedsteads, curtains ar carpets, commodes, bi

TH Is fully supplied with able family.

Sale : Ter.

N.B.—Parties furn favourable opportunit

July 13.

FURTH

MOWING

J. & Have received th

HORNSBY

COMBI

FOR

Limerick Agricu

11, & 12, V