

Herbert Spencer came as a face. It is certainly strong in tasted and tested the advant-The examples of Lady Hester James Brooks, of Lady Ellen-strength of this desire for the ty of nature which, with a ent, sent Thoreau 'to drive life, a corner, and get the marrow of Walden pond!'"

NEW ARMY UNIFORM—The
 he troops, recommended by the sat recently at New York, has a general order of the War De-entire army, it is believed, will new dress before January 1st, '73.
 ed frock coat is now to be worn grades, but the skirts are to be resent style, and the cuffs are to sh gold stripes on the upper side.
 coat, introduced during the Reed, with some simple ornamen-ightly frock coat (of the enlisted o be worn, and a neatly-fitting ly ornamented on the breast and colours of the different arms to be substituted. The brass displaced by a cloth shoulder sed for keeping cross belts in o dress a navy blue blouse, ast and gathered in by a waist The trousers of generals and of o be dark blue, and regimenta r light blue trousers with wide colour of their respective arms antiquated "stock" is no longer e felt hat is to be retained as an eaddress for officers. General ire to wear the French chapeau plume on dress occasions;
 re to wear a black felt helmet, ings and hair plumes; and re to wear a dress cap, with e of cock's feathers—red for for infantry. Foot soldiers are instead of plumes. Mounted gh troopers' top boots; sashes be worn by general officers. In iers' overcoats, with appropriate e, may be worn by officers, and o draw the fire of sharpshooters in the field. General officers overcoat," but other grades are reasted coats, with moveable e minor changes are the intro-die-cloths and the use of fabrics orms adapted to the peculiar arying seasons of the country.

daughter.
 Knox—At Rosslare, co. Sligo, the wife of Hercules Knox, Esq., of a daughter.
 Walker—At Kenley House, Kenley, Surrey, the wife of J.
 Selby Walker, Esq., 40th Regt., of a daughter.
 Clarke—On board H.M.S. Himalaya, proceeding from Portsmouth to the Cape, the wife of Captain E. D. Clarke, 75th Regt., of a son.

MARRIAGES.

Harris and Baird—August 11th, 1872, at Golden, Colorado, U.S.A., by the Rev. H. Vandeußen, Arthur C. Harris, to Helen Baird, only daughter of the late Judge Baird, of Golden.
 MacDonald and O'Grady—On Tuesday, in Tralee, Mr. D.
 MacDonald, Church-street, Ennis, to Miss Kate O'Grady, of The Mall, Tralee.
 Scott and Egan—At Kingstown, county Dublin, Richard, youngest son of the late William Scott, Esq., Knoppogue Castle, county Clare, to Emily Elizabeth, youngest daughter of the late W. J. Egan, Esq., formerly of Rockville, Dundrum, county Dublin.
 Browns and Webbe—At St. Stephen's Church, Dublin, the Rev. Peter Browne, rector of Ahascragh, county Galway, to Anna, widow of the Rev. H. G. Webbe, rector of Ballynakill, Queen's County.
 Christie and Waters—At Kiltoghert Church, Carrick-on-Shannon, the Rev. William J. Christie, incumbent of Dunseverick, to Maud, only daughter of A. Slater Waters, Esq., County Inspector, R.I.C.
 Rogers and Ebbs—At the Parish Church of St. Peter, Dublin, John W. Rogers, Esq., M.D., L.R.C.S.I., to Emily Frances, youngest daughter of the late John Ebbs, Esq., J.P., Johnstown House, Tinahely, county Wicklow.
 McNeill and McNeill—At St. Giles' Church, Camberwell, Alexander McNeill, Esq., of the Middle Temple, youngest son of the late Malcolm McNeill, Esq., of The Corran, county Antrim, to Hester Law Moward, second daughter of the late Forbes McNeill, Esq., and widow of the late John McNeill, Esq., Lieut. 3rd Bombay Fusileers.

DEATHS.

Blake—On yesterday (Wednesday), at Ballyglunau, county Galway, at a very early age, the wife of Peter Blake, Esq.
 The deceased lady was the daughter of Cornelius Creagh, Esq., of Dangan, county Clare.
 Smith—On the 28th inst., at No. 9, The Crescent, Archibald Smith, Esq., of Greenock, aged 30 years. During his stay in Limerick, Mr. Smith was universally esteemed.
 Blue—At Cappo, Kilmash, aged six years, Robiena, only daughter of Captain Blue, "Vandeleur" steamer.
 Moore—At his residence, Stafford-street, Dublin, Herbert Gillman Moore, Esq., fifth son of the late Sir Emanuel Moore, Bart., county Cork, aged 48 years.
 M'Allister—At Canning-place, Passage, co. Cork, William George, infant son of Captain M'Allister.
 Jenings—At Portarlinton, Queen's County, in the 19th year of her age, Lizzie Henrietta Mary Jenings.
 Crowe—At Avoca-terrace, Blackrock, county Dublin, Geo.
 Crowe, Esq.
 Griffith—At Castle Lambert, county Galway, Ada Florence, only child of Captain Griffith, of Killery, county Sligo.
 Ardagh—At Orilla, Canada, John Ardagh, Esq., M.D., formerly of Waterford.
 Cherry—At Kingsteignton, Devon, Mr. William Cherry, of the Seville Steam Works, Dublin.
 Tomkinson—At Willington Hall, Cheshire, Lieut.-Colonel Tomkinson, late of the 16th Lancers, aged 83 years.
 Wallington—At Beauchamp-walk, Leamington, in his 83rd year, Lieut.-Colonel J. C. Wallington, late of the 10th (Prince of Wales') Royal Hussars, in which distinguished regiment he served through the Peninsular campaign, and was present at the battle of Waterloo.

some small co pain, and fee
 such a thing
 August 23
 From Dr.

Mr. Siemn
 corns from i tion, entirely in recommen
 August 23
 From Dr. W
 From care!
 I am sure he August 22
 From Dr.

Having se every reason
 August 22
 From Mr. V

Mr. Siemn
 from my feet great pleasu
 August 22
 From Mr. W

Mr. Siemn
 without the
 him to all sin

HOL
 17,

Oh

P

THE Spl
 of Ind
 CORK
 May 4.

PATENT

8