

rect, same to be paid after existing registered holders (one tax)."

all proposed, and Mr. Bancroft's remuneration of the directors terminated on the 1st July last.

passed unanimously.

ed that they were not in a way their excellent manager, but, considering the admirable line had been worked last year, propose a bonus of £25 for the

the resolution, which was complained that third-class carriages were instantly attached to trains. It is said that was quite useless to confer with the Waterford too good that they had directed that they should be attached to every order had been given that it should have been carried out in the matter in future.

Mr. Spaight, a vote of thanks was given to the chairman for presiding, and the meeting was adjourned for the purpose of the sale of ordinary shares hereafter to be called for non-payment of calls,

RALD STUDDERT, Esq.—We regret the departure from this world of Mr. Thomas De Clare Studdert, Esq., of Castle, Co. Clare, for many years past. He was a member of the Co. Limerick, the ancient family in that county. The respected gentleman must be in connexion with his official position at the National Bank of Kilmurphy, where he was so highly appreciated. It is regretted that as a gratifying proof of the nation, in which Mr. Studdert was a large and important district, for two years he was officially the Public Accountant in the Province of Munster, is about being presented with an address, testifying to his character as an officer, and to his character as a man. We sincerely congratulate him on receiving this deserved tribute of affection, and we are sure it will be a very gratifying to his feelings in the responsible position which he has held for a long series of years.

Williams—At Kingstown, county Dublin, the wife of Henry M. Williams, of a daughter.

Hoey—At the residence of her father, Clonskeagh, county Dublin, the wife of James T. Hoey, Esq., of twins—a son and daughter.

Elkington—At Gillingham-street, Eccleston-square, London, the wife of A. G. Elkington, Esq., Surgeon-Major Grenadier Guards, of a son.

Bennett—At the Vicarage, Mansfield, the wife of the Rev. H. Leigh Bennett, of a son.

Sandys—At Tilbury Fort, the wife of Edwin W. Sandys, Esq., Captain Royal Regiment of Artillery, of a son.

Malcolm—At Rochester, the wife of Major Malcolm, Royal Engineers, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

O'Sullivan and Evans—On the 18th inst., at Jersey, by special licence, at the residence of the bride's father, Gothic Villa, St. Helier's, by the Very Rev. the Dean of Jersey, Eugene O'Sullivan, Lieutenant of the Royal Artillery, eldest son of Captain John Sullivan, late 3rd K. O. Light Dragoons, and grandson of the late Eugene Sullivan, Esq., of Bawnmore, county Limerick, to Grace Lucy, eldest and only surviving child of S. Patterson Evans, Esq., M.D., J.P., Moggylane, county Clare, and South Hill and Rathbane, county Limerick.

Meares and Durham—At Trinity Church, Rathmines, co. Dublin, Thomas Sydney Smith, second son of the late James Meares, Esq., solicitor, of Dublin, to Anna Elizabeth, elder daughter of Andrew Durham, Esq., M.D., Deputy-Inspector-General of Hospitals, late of H.M.'s Indian Army.

Torney and Woods—At St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, R. Torney, Esq., M.D., to Eliza Jane, eldest daughter of John K. Woods, Esq.

Blizard and Prosser—At Waterford, Conway Blizard, of Ranelagh-road, Dublin, to Eliza, daughter of the late Joseph Prosser, Esq., of Tipperary.

Edmonds and Lennon—At Roscommon Church, John Edgar Edmonds, son of the late Rev. John Edmonds, Tully, Edgeworthstown, county Longford, to Jennie C., only surviving child of Landon W. Lennon, Esq., Roscommon.

Briggs and Stephen—At Christ Church, Plymouth, John Arthur Julian Briggs, Captain 18th Royal Irish Regt., to Emily, second daughter of the late John Wills Stephen, Esq., Devon.

DEATHS.

Croker—At Limerick, on the 19th inst., in his 72nd year, the Rev. Thomas Croker, Vicar of Adars, and late of Croom Castle and Maryville, county Limerick.

Mathews—Sept. 18th, at Kildeemon, county Clare, William Mathews, Esq., aged 48 years.

Thornhill—At Milestown, county Louth, the Rev. William Thornhill, of Huntingdonshire, aged 51 years.

M'Dermott—At Parliament street, Kilkenny, Mary, wife of P. M'Dermott, Esq., Sub-Sheriff, county Kilkenny.

Massy—At Brookville House, Manorhamilton, Violet Frances, infant daughter of R. A. Massy, Esq., R.M.

Senior—At Postrevor-terrace, Clontarf, co. Dublin, Isabella Emily, daughter of Captain Senior, R.N.

Humfrey—At Tullow, county Carlow, aged 36 years, Capt. Alexander Humfrey, late of the 28th and 102nd Regts.

Kidd—At Merrion square, South Dublin, Lillian Elizabeth, daughter of Leonard Kidd, M.B., Surgeon 51st King's Own Light Infantry.

Montgomery—At Homburg, Leslie S. Montgomery, Esq., of 48, Stephen's-green, Dublin, Barrister-at-law, Professor, King's Inns.

O'Brien—At the Vicarage, Henfield, Sussex, the Rev. John O'Brien, A.M., Vicar, in the 64th year of his age.

Harrison—At Tunbridge-Wells, London, suddenly, Colonel Robert Seppings Harrison, late R.M. Light Infantry, of Bognor, aged 51 years.

character. If the most powerful rule not only not to disserve, but also not the part of any other be realized, but what The meeting has proposed who reckon on an Germany and Russia the futility of projecting if France would upon the work would be no small But how long this tion."

CORK BUTTER

ORDINARY.

Firsts,	...
Seconds,	...
Thirds,	...
Fourths,	...
Fifths,	...
Sixths,	...
3610 firkins in ma

LONDON COTTON

Market quiet, wheat steady, at dearer; country and beans and peas

LIVERPOOL COTTON

The market open, continuing to operate white, and 2d. per wheat on the rate firm, at full prices Beans, 6d. per qu more active demand an advance of 6d

DUBLIN

(L. Cu 5, Smi

A smaller supply had the effect of beef, and although yet the extreme retained. Number quantity of store of mutton may for which was also Prime beef, 70s inferior, 60s 0d ewe, 7½d to 8½d Sheep, 7190.