Anderson-Pelham and Hutton—At Gate Burton, near Gainsborough, Lincolnshire, the Hon. Evelyn Cornwallis Anderson-Pelham, second son of the Earl of Yarborough, to Harriet Frances, youngest daughter of the Rev. George Hutton, rector of the parish.

DEATHS.

Duncan—On the 24th inst., at her residence, No. 1, Charles-street, Limerick, in her 72nd year, Letitia, widow of the late Thomas Duncan, Esq., Clonmel, and daughter of the late Captain Rafter, 60th Rifles. It may be truly said of her, "She fell asleep in Jesus," for she walked with God through life, and rejoiced in Him even when passing through the valley of the shadow of death; almost her last words were "Christ is my all."

Palmer—On the 24th October, at Listowel, county Kerry, Annabella Pollock, relict of the late Robert John Palmer, Esq., of Banmore House, aged 73 years. She died in perfect peace, trusting alone in the merits of her Blessed Saviour.

Hynes—At his residence, Hynes-place, Kilkee, on Saturday, 26th October, Mr. James Hynes, to the inexpressible grief of his family and friends.

Going—At Cahir, county Tipperary, Thomas Going, Esq., aged 72 years.

Wright—In Dublin, Katherine Jane, wife of the Rev. W. B. Wright, vicar of Athleague, county Roscommon.

Shea—At Macroom, co. Cork, Mary, wife of Thomas Shea, Esq., aged 88 years.

Walker—At his residence, Longford-place, Monkstown, co. Dublin, James Walker, Esq., late Sub-Inspector R.I.C.

Richards—At Newry, Isabella, relict of the late Loftus Richards, Esq., R.R.C.S.I., and daughter of the late Captain Richards, of Clonard, county Wexford.

Wright—At Sandycroft House, Dundrum, county Dublin, Gustavus Hamilton Wright, Esq.

Slade—At Ryde, Isle of Wight, Lucia, the beloved wife of Lieut. John Ramsay Slade, Royal Horse Artillery, aged 19 years.
