

ply; all sold; 72s. top for s to 70s; inferior, 60s to best graziers. Young stock

MARKET.—YESTERDAY.
ce; market quiet, with ing. English and foreign ive. Flour of all descripy and oats firm. Maize, —The will of the Right Dowager Countess of Lis-: Hen, William second Earl l in London, on the 25th sonalty, by her son, the l of Listowel, and her son a Becher, the joint acting ; and to each for their acy of £500. The will is , and her ladyship died at ore, Cork, on October 31st her ladyship bequeaths her her second marriage, and Lady Alfred Paget, her rriage. There are numeric bequests to her near legacies to her servants.

Elizabeth Gollsmick, for amily, a legacy of £4,000 cottage of Ballywoly; 1,500. She directs that buted among the families y, Bloomfield, and Con-een at any time in her real estate, and the resiaves to her second son, ladyship gives her son, a of purchasing, for the diamonds and pearls, s, plate, and furniture nvariably not otherwise

Dickens," by Mr. John d at Berlin in a German f Herr F. Althaus. are preparing for pub-George Jackson, K. C. B. o the battle of Talavera, to 1809. is placed at the disposal nd Scientific Institution uragement of technical

Thornton—At Lathom Park, the wife of the Rev. John Thornton, Chaplain to Lord Skelmersdale, and Almener of Lathom, of a son.
Phelps—At The Terrace, Kennington-park, London, the wife of the Rev. P. E. Phelps, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Barry and Fitzgerald—On the 11th instant, at Boher R. C.
Church, by the Rev. Dr. O'Flanagan, P.P., Thomas Barry, Esq., Ballybricken, co. Limerick, to Margaret, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Fitzgerald, Esq., of Kishkirk, Boher, county Limerick, and sister-in-law of John Liddy, Esq., Town Wall Cottage, Limerick.
Lynn and Wynne—At the Parish Church, Monkstown, co.
Dublin, the Rev. Robert Young Lynn, son of Robert K.
Lynn, Esq., M.B., Sligo, to Katherine Marion, second daughter of the late Richard B. Wynne, Esq., Hermitage, Sligo.
O'Donnell and Mehan—At the private chapel of his Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop, Dublin, John Charles O'Donnell, Esq., R.M., Belfast, to Kate, eldest daughter of the late Andrew M'Manus, Esq., Kilbeggan, and widow of the late John Mehan, Esq., J.P., Londonderry.
Renahan and Murphy—At the R. C. Church, Kanturk, co.
Cork, Patrick Renahan, late of Lower Bridge street, Dublin, second son of Mr. John Renahan, Glen of Aherlow, county Tipperary, to Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. Bartholomew Murphy, Kiskeam, county Cork.
Lees and Floyd—At Kildare Cathedral, Lewis Mountain Lees, Esq., H.M.'s Inland Revenue, to Doriada, only surviving daughter of the late James Floyd, Esq., of Gorey, county Wexford.
Wrench and Bellingham—At Dunany Church, co. Louth, Frederick Wrench, of Killycoona, Clones, Esq., to Charlotte Mary, third daughter of Sir Alan E. Bellingham, of Castlebellingham, county Louth, Bart.
Merriman and Somerset—At St. Stephen's Church, South Kensington, London, William Merriman, Captain Royal Engineers (Bombay), to Emily Jane Anna Elizabeth, daughter of Colonel Fitzroy Somerset, Royal Engineers.

DEATHS.

Adamsen—Suddenly, at his residence, Kiltiplan, on Sunday morning last, Christopher Adamsen, Esq.
M'Carthy—At her father's residence, Richmond-street, Mary Anne, the beloved daughter of Mr. John M'Carthy, aged 88 years.
O'Halleran—At Maxwell-road, Rathgar, county Dublin, Margaret Mary, third daughter of Mr. John S. O'Halloran, Grawn House, Fe. hard, county Tipperary.
O'Reilly—At his residence, Ballyjamesduff, Richd. O'Reilly, Esq.
Cambie—At Brookfield, Sarah, sister of the late Charles Cambie, Esq., of Castletown, county Tipperary.
Glynn—At St. Vincent's Hospital, Dublin, Mr. Francis E.
Glynn, reporter.
Taaffe—At Foxborough, county Roscommon, Elise, wife of Patrick Plunkett Taaffe, Esq.
Taylor—At the Mansion House, Warrenpoint, Mary Elizabeth, only daughter of the late James Taylor, Esq., Surgeon, Bailieborough, county Cavan.
Wallnutt—At Blackrock, county Dublin, William John Wallnutt, Esq.
Beamish—At Salcombe, Devon, the Hon. Catherine Savery De L'Isle, widow of the late Francis Bernard Beamish, Esq., M.P.
Donelan—At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Mrs. Donelan, widow of the late Malachy Donelan, Esq., of Ballydonelan, county Galway.
Whyting—At Warley-place, Essex, George Henry Whyting, Esq., Manager of the North British and Mercantile Insurance Company.

prisoner was a quence of his gooculated of Lord body will be tal-deep mourning, a for a friend." T
Duke of Edinburg
India.

THE LIVINGSTON
meeting of the Roday night, Sir H Livingstone search
Dawson, R.N., I
Oswald Livingstoset sail three days patched from the 7 subscriptions to th which upwards of alone; Edinburgh little town of Ha-Livingstone, £200 amounted to £1,00 opened at Zanzibar and the other £2,00 the return of the e have been accompli-of her Majesty, hac of Zanzibar, appria and objects of the that any assistance or beyond the limits gratefully accepted, ledgments of the whole British nation warded from the consul general at Z the £670 balance of ment for a somewhat posal of the expediti all the advice and as as from time to time intelligence he migl gress. Sir Henry two letters received ready published, a Wales was the real which Sir Samuel is geographical or othe the credit of them wi to the influence of hi added that three day ceived from Sir Samu sul general, at whic still all well. The intelligence was that a year elapsing bef Samuel again.