

advanced by him as treasurer for the of the institution. The committee re- led payment of the full amount—£434 hills proposed the adoption of the which was seconded by Mr. Bannatyne, ed.

point observed that there was due to-day Militia authorities a sum of £25, which e pd to him nominally, but on receipt of h purposed handing it over to Mr. Car- retty to the Harbour Commissioners. The hold pay him the rent as lessor.

unt was then drawn up under the direc- M. Murphy, law adviser, by which the siders were to take formal possession of lding; also a form by which the militia eed one tenants to the board.

ght then proposed the following resolu- tion was seconded by Mr. J. M'Donnell, se:—"That the seal of the Commissioners e to the contract (in duplicate) for the of the Sailors' Home premises to the City Militia Artillery, as now read and ap- o"

HE PROPOSED NEW CORN STORE. (roll read a long lease containing the the letting of portion of the dock premises nnatyne for building purposes. In M'Donnell enquired what entrance d be to the store?

annatyne said the last time Mr. M'Donnell at inquiry he was not in a position to m. Now, however, he was happy to be ate that the hoisting would be carried on ut the delivery would be from the out-

'Donnell—The reason I asked this question red lest the hoisting should be carried on because if it were of course it would be a onvenience to the public.

annatyne—Oh, certainly, but we have ob- hat.

ayer—Well, gentlemen, will you adopt e as it stands.

Bannatyne observed that there was one t it to which he took exception, inasmuch d the effect of preventing him sub-letting mises to an eligible tenant. He did not this as fair, because no one could foresee ght occur rendering such a step necessary ie term of the lease would expire.

[Donnell—There can be no objection to nnatyne being allowed to sub-let the ause of prohibition was then struck out as understood that Mr. Bannatyne's suc-

of William W. Anderson, Esq., M.D., of a daughter.
Evans—At Charleston-avenue, Rathmines, county Dublin, the wife of Henry Evans, of a son.
Gildea—At Waltham-terrace, Blackrock, county Dublin, the wife of Bridgman Gildea, Esq., of a daughter.
Bond—At Farragh, Longford; the wife of James W. Bond, Esq., of a daughter.
Hardy—At Camden-hill, Staplehurst, the wife of J. Stewart Hardy, Esq., M.P., of a daughter.
Tickell—At Weymouth, the wife of Captain Arthur Tickell, H.M.'s 77th Regt., of a daughter.
Santafiora—At Genzano, the Countess of Santafiora, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

Russell and Deane—At West Bradenham, Norfolk, John Norris, only son of the late Francis William Russell, Esq., M.P., to Isabella Margaret, youngest daughter of James Parker Deane, Esq., Q.C.
Short and Hall—At the Parish Church, Modreeny, county Tipperary, Thomas Henry Howard Shortt, Bengal Civil Service, second son of William Shortt, Esq., M.D., to Elise, second daughter of the late Robert Hall, Esq., of Merton Hall, county Tipperary.
Steele and Pigott—By special licence, at St. Anne's Church, Dublin, Colonel A. Loftus Steele, Madras Staff Corps, to Olivia, second daughter of the late Captain George Pemberton Pigott, of Slevoey Castle, county Wexford.
Bannatyne and Jamieson—At Park-gardens, Glasgow, Wm. Bannatyne, Esq., Captain 8th (The King's) Regiment, to Aimee, daughter of the late James Jamieson, Esq.
Scobell and Royds—At the Priory Church, Great Malvern, Colonel Scobell, of The Abbey, Pershore, High Sheriff of Worcestershire, to Susan Jane, only daughter of A. H. Royds, of Fallinge, county of Lancaster, and of Eilerside, Great Malvern, Esq.
King and Francklyn—At St. James's Church, Hereford, J. R. King, Major Royal Artillery, to Kate Elizabeth, second daughter of Major-General J. H. Francklyn, C.B., Royal Artillery.

DEATHS.

Apjohn—At Abington House, on the 27th September, Mrs. Mary Anne Apjohn, relict of the late Michael Apjohn, Esq., aged 74 years.
Cox—On Saturday last, the 28th September, at her father's house, Ballinacorney, in this county, of malignant scarlatina, Mary Eliza, the beloved child of Robert Cox, Esq.
Blackburne—At Longford-terrace, Monkstown, co. Dublin, Jane Isabella, widow of the Right Hon. Francis Blackburne, late Lord Chancellor.
MacCarthy—At Portarliffington, Mrs. Mary MacCarthy, in her 85th year.
Coyle—At Hawth View, county Dublin, Thomas Frankfort Coyle, Esq.
Jackson—At his residence, 1, James's-place, Booterstown, county Dublin, William Jackson, Esq.
Johnson—At Tullylest, Kildare, Anna, wife of Robert Murray Johnson, of Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Esq.
Mathews—William Mathews, Esq., of 2, Brighton-terrace, Bray, and late collector of Inland Revenue, Wexford.
Foott—At Peasfield-terrace, Blackrock, co. Dublin, Elizabeth Anne, relict of Wade Foott, Esq., C.I. R.I.C.
Stanley—Charlotte Margaret, only daughter of the Hon. H. T. and the Hon. Mrs. Stanley.
Jackson—At Upton Park, Slough, Amelia, Lady Jackson, widow of the late Sir Keith Alexander Jackson, Bart., of the 4th Light Dragoons.
North—July 19, at Ipswich, Queensland, Major William North, late of H.M.'s 68th Light Infantry, an old Peninsular officer, aged 91 years; and, April 3, Sarah, his wife, aged 89 years.