

BIRTHS.

Bass—On the 27th inst., at 2, Mallow-street, the wife of the Rev. J. C. Bass, Wesleyan Minister, of a son.
 Alexander—At Coolgrove House, Queen's County, the wife of the Rev. John Alexander, of a daughter.
 O'Rourke—At the Rectory, Inchigeela, the wife of the Rev. P. O'Rourke, of a son.
 Smithwick—At Larch Vale, King's County, the wife of Robert Smithwick, Esq., of a daughter.
 Vane—At Rathrum, county Wicklow, the wife of James Vane, Esq., M.D., of a son.
 Webb—At Belgrave-square, Rathmines, county Dublin, the wife of Thomas Henry Webb, of a daughter.
 Egan—At Upper George's-street, Kingstown, co. Dublin, the wife of Arthur Egan, of a daughter.
 Grattan—At Ethel Cottage, Sandford, county Dublin, the wife of Robert H. Grattan, Esq., of a son.

MARRIAGES.

Evans and Wilton—Oct. 26, at St. Peter's Church, Dublin, by the Very Rev. the Dean of Ardfert, assisted by the Rev. J. J. MacSorley, Tyrrell Evans, Esq., eldest son of the Rev. Tyrrell George Evans, vicar of Corcomohide, co. Limerick, to Mary Frances, youngest daughter of George J. Wilton, Esq., Vergemount, county Dublin, and Omard House, county Cavan.
 Harte and Moore—On this morning, at the Cathedral Church of St. Mary's, by the Ven. the Archdeacon of Limerick, John W. Harte, General Post Office, Dublin, to Lizzie Mayne, youngest surviving daughter of the late Joseph Harte Moore, of Tipperary.
 Ellifson and Bromell—On the 26th instant, at Queenstown, county Cork, Captain B. M. E. Ellifson, of Moss, Norway, to Susan, daughter of the late John Bromell, Esq., of Limerick.
 French and French—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Wm. George Braddell, son of the late Shepherd French, Esq., Russelstown, co. Kilkenny, to Augusta Emily, youngest daughter of the late John French, Esq., New Ross, co. Wexford.

DEATHS.

Crozier—Oct. 27, at 8, Glenart-avenue, Blackrock, county Dublin, the Rev. Graham P. Crozier, late rector of Tawnagh, and Prebendary of Kilmacallan, county Sligo, aged 71 years.
 Begg—In Lower Cecil-street, on yesterday morning, Michael Joseph, the infant son of Captain Begg, aged four and a-half months.
 Dundon—On the 22nd instant, at the house of her cousin, No. 1, Anne-street, Polly, the only surviving daughter of the late Michael Dundon, formerly of Brookville, Newmarket-on-Fergus, county Clare. American papers please copy.
 O'Neill—At Knockbride Rectory, county Cavan, suddenly, of disease of the heart, the Rev. Hugh O'Neill, aged 67 years.
 Shea—At the Dispensary, Grand Canal-street, Dublin, Anne, wife of Dr. R. F. Shea, and daughter of the late James Monks, Esq., of Sherrard-street, Dublin.
 Hudson—At Lower Mount-street, Dublin, aged 80 years, Mrs. Ellen Hudson, widow of the late William Hudson, Esq., M.D.
 Hamilton—At 115, Upper Leeson-street, Dublin, Elizabeth, Louisa Hamilton, second daughter of the late Capt. Chas. Thomas Hamilton, aged 21 years.

day school, and by your prizes, the pupils were encouraged attendance and anxiety to receive. Many of us have known you from infancy, and now that we must well, we shall not easily forget the the true friend, and warm-hearted

TO THE PARISHIONERS OF THE RATHKEALE.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,—It is with of gratification and sorrow that affectionate address on the occasion tion after a residence of so many you, and it is with no ordinary feel and thankfulness that your ad received on the occasion of the t which so long bound us together: parishioners, for whilst it is a mat gratitude to the God of all grace t vices as a minister have been accep cannot but feel deeply sensible how come of what your kind friendship to have been, and if ever I was en the distressed or to comfort the d out the way of salvation only, t great Mediator, Jesus Christ, to praise.

With sorrow were we obliged to and parish, but God in His grac weakened my strength and I was to the urgent decision of my medic

I thank you most cordially for y brance of Mrs. Hassard. She ev taking a warm interest in all parishioners, and we trust that God your hands, so that the choir, society, and other societies may supported. We do indeed feel m your kind and affectionate regar which can never be forgotten.

And now, my dear friends, we farewell, and "commend you to power of His grace, which is able and to give you an inheritance a are sanctified thro' faith in Christ

Believe me, my dear friends

Your affectionate friend

EDWARD H

17, Cambridge Road, Brighton, S
 October 24, 1872,

W. Norman

6.9.9
6