

e a case sufficiently strong der to put ourselves in a eave nothing undone in a I am instructed to ask for
 day. If you said a week le the company to produce ce they require, and we your Worships that such
 ing.
 r. Hayes if he were in a
 e case.
 at he was not altogether

ask the magistrates for a mand?
 ease, sir.
 of Mr. O'Connell if he had
 o the application.
 afraid, after the statement
 regards not being in a posi-e evidence, that I cannot lication. I shall only ask be granted, the accused be the money that was taken ors has been discovered, and
 , as well as all the circum-
 rest, I think you may fairly the charge is a very serious entire matter has been very importance has been given not deserve. The offence of felony, and that is bail-

eyes, what do you say to st been conferring with the Gas Company—Mr. Tracy
 whilst they do not wish to er, still the charge is one of
 and is attended with the prisoner has already ab-difficulty was experienced the sum he took with him nd in the face of that it is any, who are obliged to dis-o adopt the course that has led on refusing the applica-er to bail.

 length of remand do you
 d time—eight days.
 l you say Monday next?
 o the suggestion.
 would wish to have the in-

- Yeatman Clark, 17th Lancers, of a daughter.
- Fitzhugh—At Richmond-place, North, Dublin, the wife of Mr. Wm. H. Fitzhugh, of a daughter.
- Gregg—At Abercorn-terrace, Sydney-parade, Dublin, the wife of J. W. Gregg, Esq., of a son.
- LeFanu—At Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin, the wife of Wm. R. LeFanu, of a son.
- Lambton—The Lady Victoria Lambton, of a son.
- Hussey—At Richmond, Surrey, the wife of Captain C. E. Hussey, 20th Regt., of a daughter.
- Smith—At Springfield Cottage, Guildford, the wife of the Rev. Clement Smith, of a daughter.
- Murray—At The Keir, Wimbledon-common, the wife of the Rev. G. Hope Murray, of a daughter.
- Knollys—At Belgrave-road, S.W., London, the wife of Major Knollys, the Sutherland Highlanders, of a son.
- Beech—At Auckland, New Zealand, the wife of John Blennerhassett Beech, Esq., of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

- Higginbotham and Quintin—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Richard F. Higginbotham, Esq., of Ballyfad House, co. Wexford, to Annie, widow of the late Daniel Quintin, Esq., and youngest daughter of the late Thomas James Leonard, Esq., of Carnew, county Wicklow.
- Walker and Donald—At Ormond Cottage, by special license, Alexander Walker, Esq., Ayr, Scotland, to Mary, eldest daughter of Robert Donald, Esq., Ormond Cottage, Borrisokane, county Tipperary.
- Redfearn and O'Leary—At the Church of St. Andrew, Westland-row, Dublin, Richard F. Redfearn, Esq., of Belfast, to Miss Ellen O'Leary, of Stephen's-green, West, Dublin, daughter of the late Michael O'Leary, Esq., Land Surveyor and C.E., Milltown, county Kerry.
- Handy and Hole—At St. Andrew's, Belfast, Samuel Townsend, third son of the late Samuel Handy, Esq., of Liverpool, and New Ross, county Wexford, to Anna Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Frederick Hole, Esq., of Belfast.
- Watson and Steinbach—At St. George's, Bloomsbury, London, Charles Cradeck Watson, late of the Royal Navy, and third son of Dr. Watson, of Southampton-street, Bloomsbury, to Amalie Carolina Steinbach, eldest daughter of the late Karl Steinbach, of Carlsruhe, Baden.

DEATHS.

- Campion—On the 13th inst., at her residence, Washington-place, Limerick, Mrs. Catherine Campion, relict of the late Patrick Campion, Esq., Castle Trench and Coole, Queen's County.
- Taylor—On Nov. the 9th, at No. 1, Clifton-villa, Limerick, of bronchitis, Frances Caroline, twin daughter of David Taylor, Esq., aged 10 months.
- O'Grady—At Plattenstown, co. Wexford, suddenly, George O'Grady, Esq., J.P.
- Stoney—At Weston, Dundrum, county Dublin, Margaret, the infant daughter of G. Johnstone Stoney.
- Bagge—Simon Bagge, Esq., J.P., of Ardmore House, co. Waterford.
- Biggs—At the Manor, Waterford, Matthew Wade Biggs, Esq.
- Harris—At her residence, Summer-hill, Dublin, Frances, wife of John E. Harris, Esq.
- Dunne—At Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Christopher, aged 24 years, youngest son of M. W. Dunne, Esq., Punctestown House, county Kildare.
- Owens—At Castle-street, Dublin, Mrs. Owens, aged 91.
- Stewart—At St. Patrick's-place, Cork, Mary, wife of Arthur Stewart.
- O'Sullivan—At New Orleans, Eugene O'Sullivan, aged 67 years, a native of Kihrush, county Clare, and a resident of the above city for the past 25 years.
- Blake—At New Orleans, Patrick Blake, aged 58 years, a native of the parish of Kilballyowen, and a resident of the above city for the past 25 years.

King, is Plaintiff,
 ant, the Creditors o
 hill, in the County
 in or about the mor
 before the 4th day
 post, pre-paid, to M
 of No. 8, Wellingt
 the Solicitors of the
 one of the Adminis
 christian and surna
 and in the cases of
 and style or title of
 their claim, a state
 nature of the securi
 in default thereof,
 cluded from the be

Every Creditor h
 duce the same befo
 Master of the Rolls
 Dublin, the 13th d
 of the Clock in the
 pointed for adjudic
 Dated this 4th d

B.
 I
 Nov. 14.

To Gro
WANTED, a
 attend a
 First-class referenc
 Apply to A. Ro
 Nov. 12.

WANTED. a
 Man.
 Apply to John
 neety.
 Nov. 12.

FOR the Coun
 Poultry work
 Apply to the Of
 Nov. 14.

A CHILREN
 stands her
 before. She mus
 have satisfactory
 Apply to the Of
 Nov. 14.