The most unsatisfactory answer given by the member for Clara, on Monday evening, Sir C. Stansfeld, in going into Committee of the House, to call attention to the representation of Ireland, caused a great deal of the boroughs of Cashel to be done so he will submit a petition that in the opinion of the House is the duty of her Majesty's Government forward during the present session filling up these vacancies. Mr. Stansfeld has proposed a Criminal Bill which he intends presenting to the House on Thursday next. It is expected that in criminal cases shall be decided by ballot, and it will abolish the practice of setting aside jurors without
