

O'Connor, merchant, of a daughter.
 Poer—At Atlantic Lodge, Ardmore, county Waterford, the wife of Samuel Poer, Esq., of a son.
 Graham—At Ellerslie, Park-avenue, Sandymount, county Dublin, the wife of J. J. Graham, of a son.
 Moore—At Ardee, county Louth, the wife of Thos. Joseph Moore, Esq., M.D., of a son.
 Brassey—At Queen's-gate, Kensington, London, the wife of Henry A. Brassey, Esq., M.P., of a daughter.
 Tupper—At Hyde-park-square, London, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel D. W. Tupper, of a son.
 Walker—At Queensbury-place, South Kensington, London, the wife of Colonel J. Walker, R.E., of a daughter.
 Thesiger—At Simla, East Indies, the wife of Colonel the Hon. Frederic Thesiger, C.B., Adjutant-General, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

Browne and Haines—On the 18th instant, at St. Nicholas's, Cork, by the Rev. Dr. Webster, assisted by the Rev. John Haines, cousin to the bride, James Maxwell, son of the late William Maxwell Browne, Esq., to Eula, youngest daughter of the late Charles Yelverton Haines, Esq., M.D., both of Cork.
 Lynn and Griffin—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, the Rev. William H. Lynn, T.C.D., curate of Anghalureher, county Fermanagh, to Matilda Mary Anne, eldest daughter of the Rev. James Griffin, 3, Clifton-terrace, Ranelagh, co. Dublin.
 Lynch and Jones—By special licence, at the Wesleyan Church, Harrogate, Gilbert Lynch, Esq., only son of Geo. Lynch, Ulyerton House, Dalkey, co. Dublin, to Adelaide Jones, youngest daughter of the late Edward Jones, Esq., Dublin.
 Kennedy and MacGregor—At St. Gabriel's, Pimlico, John William Alexander Kennedy, Colonel Royal Marines Light Infantry, to Annie Amy MacGregor, youngest daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Malcolm MacGregor, late 21st Royal Scots Fusiliers.

DEATHS.

Cree—On the 19th inst., at her residence, Sweetmount House, Dundrum, county Dublin, Jane, the widow of the late James Cree, Esq., of Thomond-place, in the city of Limerick. Her remains will be removed from the Terminus at Limerick, for interment in St. Munchin's churchyard, at half-past eight o'clock on Saturday, the 22nd inst.
 Walpole—June 18, at River View, North Strand, the infant son of Rev. Walpole.
 Holden—At Leeson Park, Dublin, Emily Margaret, the beloved daughter of the Rev. D. Holden, aged 15 years.
 Mooney—Suddenly, at 18, Great Charles-street, Dublin, Joseph Turner Mooney, second surviving son of the late Rev. Robert Jerald Mooney, and grandson of the late Daniel Mooney, F.T.C.D.
 Church—At her residence, Montenotte, Cork, Anna Matilda, relict of the late Commander William Harvey Church, Royal Navy.
 Blount—At Dargle Cottage, near Bray, Constance Mary, the beloved child of Major and Mrs. Blount, aged 6 years.
 O'Connell—At the South Presentation Convent, Cork, Mrs. Mary Francis Xavier O'Connell.
 Williams—Mr. William Williams, steward of the Queen's College, Cork.
 Hoole—At his residence, Myddelton-square, London, the Rev. Elijah Hoole, D.D., one of the general secretaries of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, aged 74.

Makers.

Competent Men sent out to a

J. P. Evans

Munster Agricultural Imple

Thomas-street, Shanno

Howley's Qu

Limerick.

June 18.

9 Elms Portland

WE are now landing a Co famed Cement, and favour if our friends will give may deliver direct from the w

J. P. EVANS

THOMAS-STREET, SHANN
 HOWLEY'S-QUAY,

June 18.

A RESPECTABLE young situation as house and needle; is a Protestant; has or country. Please address Paper.

Wanted

SITUATIONS as Upper H
 Maids, Two Respectab have been carefully brought
 The highest character can be
 Application to J. K., Office