

ries in ever-increasing circles he metal is capable of sending ting of the present injured bell, ent of the entire peal, I trust the old pleasure to which you one that remembers the Cathe-expense and trouble devoted to Lord Limerick, can cease to years of comparative silence em. But we shall renew the ing the music of the Limerick rvals upon the ear est, now dying all away, ud again, and louder still, rous, as the gale comes on!"
 very truly yours,
 JAMES MANGAN.

FROM KILMALLOCK TO LI-MICK VIA BRUFF.
OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
 een by the Cork papers that a n Newmarket, Co. Cork, to furnection with a tramway from neighbouring towns. Lord Ban-of worth and influence, made a those present to do all in their e matter. I have some know-ry, and I must say that it cannot ness of this county. I do say that they should not way; but I mean to say that a tramway from Kilmallock to ane to Limerick, via Kilmal-I see no better prospects for a a paying line than the above There are at present two four-ally employed working on that mmense traffic by carts; there er markets held at Kilfinane and d add considerably to the traffic.
 ask some persons of influence to have this matter brought fore-like manner, as it would be of it to the general public. Let y take pattern by Lord Bandon and let our county members assist e shares would be taken up very raders and residents along the would be more desirable and less opposition than a railway ar, and besides it would answer It would in my opinion, also rates, as it would not cost half this important road in repair if a it. Besides the road from Kilick is a very wide one, being the ad, so there is ample room for all respectfully,
 A TRADER.

daughter.
 Vincent—At Lowndes-square, London, S W., the Lady Margaret Vincent, of a son, who survived his birth but a short time.
 Chaplin—At Harlestone House, Northampton, the wife of Captain John W. Chaplin, 8th Hussars, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

Harris and Worthy—At the British Episcopal Chapel, Valparaiso, by the Rev. W. H. Lloyd, chaplain, Walter Norman, commander of P.M.S. Valdivia, son of the Rev.
 T. Harris, rector of Shircock, Ireland, and grandson of the late Chief Justice Bushe, of Ireland, to Arabella Catherine Henrietta, daughter of Lieut.-Col. Worthy, H.E.I.C.S., Norfolk Villa, Brighton, and granddaughter of the late Sir Jonah Barrington, Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, Ireland.
 Goodbody and Pim—At the Friends' Meeting House, Monks-town, county Dublin, Robert, eldest son of Marcus Goodbody, Esq., J.P., of Inchmore, Clara, King's County, to Isabella Dora, eldest daughter of Thomas Pim, Esq., of Glenegeragh House, Kingstown.
 Barlow and Lambert—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Thos.
 L. Barlow, Esq., son of the late Major Cuthbert Barlow, to Bessie J., third daughter of John W. H. Lambert, Esq., Aggard, county Galway.
 Kelly and Foley—At Marlborough-street Church, Dublin, William Kelly, Esq., J.P., Ashbrooke, county Galway, to Clara Kate, youngest daughter of the late Peter Trant Foley, Esq., J.P., Ballyard House, county Kerry.
 Berry and Jones—At St. Paul's Church, Rondoboch, Cape Town, Thomas Berry, Esq., Manager of the Standard Bank, Beaufort West, Cape Colony, son of the Rev. Thos.
 Berry, Brooklawn, Athlone, Ireland, to Louisa Anwyne, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Jones, Esq., of the firm of Rudd, Jones, and Co., Cape Town.

DEATHS.

D'Esterre—At his residence, Prospect Hill House, on Sunday, the 24th instant, after a long and painful illness, Arthur Henry D'Esterre, Esq., M.D., M.R.C.S.I., aged 47 years. He leaves a sorrowing wife and young family, to whom he was a fond and affectionate husband and father, and was loved and regretted by all who knew him. His remains will be interred on Wednesday morning, at nine o'clock, at the family burying-place, Sixmile-bridge, Co.
 Clare.
 Dring—On the 20th inst., at Rockgrove, Little Island, Co.
 Cork, Reginald Napier, youngest son of Simon Dring, Esq., aged 2 years and 10 months.
 Lett—At Moore Lodge, Finvoy, county Antrim, Charles Marcus Lett, Esq., aged 36 years, late Captain in the Queen's Royal Antrim Rifles, eldest son of the Rev. Chas.
 Lett, rector of Finvoy.
 Crofton—At Royal-terrace, West, Kingstown, co. Dublin, Susanna Crofton, daughter of the late Rev. Henry Crofton, aged 93 years.
 Blake—At Pembroke-road, Dublin, Edgar Henry Blake, of Renvyle, county Galway, Esq., Commander, R.N., aged 58 years.
 White—Armstrong White, Esq., of 25, Lower Gloucester-street, Dublin, late of Mallow.
 Fitzgerald—At 7, Adelaide-place, Cork, Denis Fitzgerald, Esq., aged 44 years.
 Vincent—At Lowndes-square, London, the Lady Margaret Vincent, aged 38 years.
 Brown—At the Antrim Arms Hotel, Portrush, John Brown, Esq.
 Kelly—At Jamestown House, Finglas, co. Dublin, James Kelly, Esq., of Ballymoe, county Galway.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Mrs. Ward most thankfully acknowledges the following kind contributions:—The Dowager Lady Massy (Milford House), £1, a donation to the Protestant Aid Society; Archibald Murray, junr., Esq., £1, to the Kilmurry Clothing Society for 1872.
 Mr. Samuel E. Lee thankfully acknowledges the receipt of £10 from the Very Rev. the Dean of Limerick, towards the Economy Fund, St. Mary's Cathedral; also from E.
 Lloyd, Esq., National Bank, £1.

Adare Manor
 Mr. K. will
 Grand Piano
 Nov. 23.

Hardwa
FOR Harn
 Whips,
 Sold at the Lo
 Establishment
 Second-hand
 Single and Do
 This Winte
 Clippers, Tab
 ceived.

In BAD saved proved
 Hay Spice.
 Stock, general
 J. LAIRD &

AT NO. 7,

P. M'CAI
 by Pu
 2nd, at 12 o' Limerick) the comprising table, easy cl and steels, lounge, din ware, and ta rooms, with The entire chasers payi
 Cent.

Nov. 26.

BY virtu to m
THURSDAY,
 11 o'Clock,
 Auction, a Limerick, t the Defend viz.:—
 The Sto
 Whips, Ho
 Dated th