

to 558 deg. Fahr. Gunpowder erature of 560 ; but long before t was reached, it was expected would be volatilized, when the tents would be robbed of their f. irable to put the magazine to an as in testing guns the charge is ed till the bursting point is was a wish to ascertain how long old stand fire without exploding ries were posted at night with s, and they reported yesterday as which contained 10lb of powder er of canisters, exploded at 2.20 rning. The furnace which ened at 10.30 a.m. on Wednesday his magazine had held out, not rly 16 hours. In No 3 there was loose powder, contained in "headed up," and No 3 m., having held its own till that ., on Wednesday, or close on 19 d is too much accustomed to desily startled from its propriety, able portion of the Arsenal were of night, old inhabitants would in their sleep and doze off again with the thought that it was ers again." Any shipping, how-y the marshes must have felt un-ard these mysterious explosions ss of the night, and must have give the practice range as wide a But No. 3. magazine was the urch defied all the efforts of the h it was fitted. It was of tion than the others. They mbers, that is, the iron plates rmediate layers of stuffing alum) were of that thickness. chambers, and was constructed to rserve its contents from explosion of six hours. It might have been ed this magazine also up to the However, there was a natural de-representatives of provincial fire ain attended yesterday, the final riment, so at half past 9 a.m. the upon No. 4 furnace from a respect-gradually the burning mass, con-x or seven tons of coals, cooled e gunners could approach it, and ld be disintombed.

Church, Jersey, by the Rev. E. Gume, Colonel Saunders, retired, Indian Army, to Lucy, widow of the late W.
 Ormsby Rose, Esq., of Merrion-square, Dublin, and eldest daughter of the late Henry Steward Burton, J.P., D.L., of Carrigaholt Castle, county Clare.
 Lucas and St. George—Oct. 10, at Kilcolgan Church, Thomas Lucas, Esq., J.P., Ballingaddy, county Clare, to Olivia St.
 George, daughter of Christopher St. George, Esq., D.L., Tyrone House, county Galway.
 Preston and Taylor—At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, the Rev. John Evans Preston, A.B., son of the Rev. D. W.
 Preston, rector of Killinkere, county Cavan, and grandson of the late William Preston, Judge of Appeal, and the Hon. Frances Dorothea Preston, to Elizabeth Adelaide, youngest daughter of the late Rev. John Taylor, LL.D., formerly rector of Killinkere.
 Rutherford and Bredin—At St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, the Rev. Wm. A. Rutherford, D.D., Royal Navy, H.M.S.
 Asia, Portsmouth, to Elizabeth Frances, third daughter of Hall Bredin, Esq., M.D., 181, Great Brunswick-street, Dublin.
 O'Donovan and Glascock—At St. James's, Horetown, Wm.
 John O'Donovan, Esq., LL.D., of Foxcroft House, Portar-lington, to Anne Beata, daughter of the late John Glascock, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.
 Straghan and Pile—At Bath, Captain A. Straghan, 74th Highlanders, to Rachel, only daughter of the Hon. Jones Pile, of Warleigh, Barbadoes.
 Rashleigh and Walpole—At the Parish Church, Brighton, Capt. Colman Battie Rashleigh, eldest son of Sir Colman Rashleigh, Baronet, of Pridaux House, Cornwall, to Geraldine Frances Walpole, eldest daughter of Lieut.-Gen.
 Sir Robert Walpole, K.C.B.

DEATHS.

Doris—Lost at sea, on the night of the 5th September, by the foundering of the barque Newcastle, off the Tuscar Rock, Richard Joseph, only child of the late Richard Doris, Esq., formerly of the 1st W. India Regiment, and grandson of the late George Ieyers Bolster, Esq., of Tullerboy, in this county, to the lasting sorrow of his bereaved mother, in the 24th year of his age.
 Barron—On Saturday, 28th Sept., at Twenty-fifth-street, New York, Anne, wife of Michael Barron, Esq., late of John's-square, Limerick, and youngest sister of the late Alderman William Sheehy. She was interred in Calvary Cemetery, by the side of her eldest sister, Mrs. Tute, late of Adare, county Limerick, followed by a large number of the Limerick Aid Society, of which her husband is treasurer.
 Keyes—On the 12th instant, at St. Mary's Convent, Bruff, Mary Amenda, eldest daughter of the late Joseph Keyes, Esq., Mitchelsdown, in this county.
 Stoney—October 15, at Weston, Dundrum, county Dublin, Margaret Sophia, the wife of G. Johnstone Stoney, Stephens—At his residence, Duncannon, Thomas Stephens, Esq., brother of Abraham Stephens, Esq., Chairman of Waterford and Limerick Railway Company.
 Howley—At his residence, Rathellan, in the 67th year of his age, P. C. Howley, Esq., in twenty years resident magistrate in Longford, Waterford, Tipperary, and Sligo.
 Harvey—At South Frederick-street, Dublin, in the 41st year of his age, William C. Harvey, Esq., Treasurer for the county Wexford.
 Bird—At Bantry, George Bird, Esq., aged 65 years.
 Hewitt—At Barlach, Oudh, Arabella, wife of Major James R. B. Hewitt, and daughter of the late Edmund Burke, Esq., J.P., D.L., Tyaquin, county Galway.

The Retreat,
 Jonas Studde
 August 31.

STREAM WITH POSS

IT contains house, C Verdure Ga
 rere, WATER
 Rent only 1

App

V

Office,

Also, NEV street, (next of rates, Wa
 Tenant will g

To

WANTE
 need whom liberal be given.
 Apply to I
 September

A

WANTE
 gent pleted his Book Busine
 salary in a situation in the Monster
 a Counting
 Apply—X
 Oct. 8.