

United States, or war. Besides, Mr. Adams claims were not included by him in his Government for a question. The and to Mr. Adams the redress of individual conventions conference to any claim damages. In fact, ed by Mr. Sumner, damages never oc- evidently an after the claim put for- ngation of the war insult to the United ngation of the war rt given to the Con- cruizers being on the courage and con- erate armies. The thdraw the indirect rs it would be the retract them, espe- e is condemned by Atlantic.

-At Mr. Michael Cloumel, there was a small copper coin, and in a fine state following inscription: ne side, and on the of Clonmell, 1664." he name of the town family of Hamerton ies a prominent posed that this Richard ld coin bears, kept a fterwards that either n, took part in the illed at the battle of y who built the fine y became converted, outward appearance, " and is now one of This building was erton's, being outside not far removed from od at the end of the et. It was a hospita- ll preserved tradition sed against the way- welcomed there and mel Chronicle.

stmoreland Wrestling at the Welsh Harp was thin, and the Geisler—The wife of Dr. Charles Geisler, Professor, Queen's College, Galway, of a son.

 Johnson—At Park View, Castleknock, the wife of Alfred G. Johnson, Esq., of a son.
 Fetherston-H.—At Granby-row, Rutland-square, W., Dublin, the wife of W. Fetherston-H., jun., of a son.
 Richardson—At Aberdelghy Hall, Lisburn, the wife of Alexander A. Richardson, Esq., J.P., of a son.
 Baskin—At Charleville-road, Rathmines, county Dublin, the wife of Stewart Baskin, Esq., of a daughter.
 Lanesborough—At Great Stanhope-street, London, the Countess of Lanesborough, of a son Desart—At Hans-place, London, the Countess of Desart, of a daughter.
 Blackwood—At Upper Norwood, Lady Blackwood, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Wright and Shaw—On the 18th of May, at St. Stephen's Church, Dublin (by special licence), by the Rev. Professor Mahaffy, M.A., Chaplain to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, assisted by the Rev. James Walsh, M.A., Domestic Chaplain to the Lord Bishop of Limerick, Edward Perceval Wright, M.A., M.D., F.R.C.S.I., Professor of Botany in the University of Dublin, to Emily Charlotte (Amy), second daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Pensonby Shaw, late her Majesty's Madras Army.
 Bushe and Harper—At St. Michael's Church, Aberystwith, Lieut.-Colonel W. D. Bushe, 7th Hussars, Kilmorane, co. Clare, to Mary Maitland, widow, and youngest daughter of the late John and Jane Harper, of Chester's Craig, Belses, N.B., and Naptown, Naul, county Dublin.
 Bailie and North—At Kilgerran, near Cardigan, William Alexander Bailie, Esq., Major unattached, late 82nd Regiment, to Emily Mary North, eldest daughter of the Ven. Archdeacon of Cardigan.
 Haywood and Inglefield—At St. Jude's Church, Southsea, Walter Wightwick Haywood, Captain in her Majesty's Bombay Army, to Florence Mary Otway, second daughter of Lieut.-Colonel S. H. S. Inglefield, R.A., Commandant of the Hants Artillery Militia.
 Oliver and Galt—At Toronto, William Silver Oliver, M.D., Staff Surgeon, to Elizabeth Alice, daughter of the Hon. Mr. Justice Galt, of Toronto.

DEATHS.

Downing—On the 17th instant, in her 54th year, Jane M'Carthy, the lamented wife of M'Carthy Downing, Esq., M.P.
 Downes—On yesterday, in Nelson-street, Arthur Michael, aged 8 months, youngest child of Mr. Andrew Downes, grocer and spirit merchant.
 Carroll—At his mother's residence, Cappoquin, co. Waterford, Daniel Francis Joseph Carroll, Esq., youngest son of the late Clement Carroll, Esq., formerly of Ballingarry House, county Tipperary.
 Summers—At Evergreen-terrace, Cork, Stephen Summers, late manager of the County Kerry Club, Tralee.
 Shannon—At Tramere, county Waterford, George Shannon, Esq., Mountmellick.
 Pim—At North William-street, Dublin, John Joseph, son of Edward Pim, Esq.
 Moore—At his residence, Grafton-street, Dublin, William B. Moore, son of Walter B. Moore, of Barleigh House, near Bandon, county Cork.
 Brooke—At his residence, Summerhill-road, Kingstown, county Dublin, William Samuel Brooke, Esq.
 Bushe—At an advanced age, daughter of the late John Latham, Esq., of Meldrum, county Tipperary, and widow of Gervaise Parker Bushe, Esq., of Dangan, county Kilkenny, barrister-at-law.
 White—At Hereford-road, Baywater, Margaret, widow of the late John White, Esq., of Percy-place, Dublin.
 St. Clair—At sea, off the West Coast of Africa, Commander the Hon. Archibald St. Clair, R.N., H.M.S. Bittern, second son of Lord Minto.

of one of the spare yards sick children of the poor Limerick," irrespective Institution.
 Moy 18.

Notice to

THOMAS COSTELLA receive Tenders for Out-Offices, and a Stew according to the Plans at at the Office of M. G. Sh rick.
 Tenders to be address Esq., Farnane House, up to the 25th Instant.
 The Lowest or any T be accepted.

SAD
 A
 H A R MANUFACTUR
 by Skilled W
 Reasonable P

GEORGE

33, Patrick-st
 Saddles and Harne
 October 5.

County of L

NOTICE is hereby g Dromcoller, Jan Moore Benson, of Cahir Limerick, were, under Esq., Q.C., Chairman (dated respectively 15th Bill Officers for the serv viz. :—The said Roger Rathkeale, and the said Benson for the Divie County.

Dated this, 18th da
 JOHN HARDIN

May 21