

Guarrane, near Newcastle a few nights since. The nnant of a sod of turf, and a partly burned cabbage leaf was found at the spot next morning. A heavy rain during the night saved a portion of a man whose geese had been destroyed by foxes, was heard to say the day before, "that the fox would never again hunt on that mountain." The necessary steps have been taken by the Club to recover £40 compensation.

CLARE INTELLIGENCE.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)
MASONIC REUNION.

On Thursday evening the members of Dunboynes Lodge 60 held their periodical festival dinner in the Grand Jury-room of the Court-house. Nothing could exceed the magnificence of the entertainment, which was fully appreciated by the unusually large number of guests who were present. The Worshipful Master of Lodge 60 for the current half-year, Brother W. Daxon, presided, having upon his right Lord Dunboynes, the deservedly popular Provincial Grand Master, and upon his left the officers of the Provincial Grand Lodge. The vice-chair was worthily filled by Brother Francis Morrice. Over sixty brethren sat down to partake of the good things so amply provided; and justice having been done to the edibles and viands, the usual loyal toasts were proposed and enthusiastically responded to; after which followed the toast to the Provincial Grand Master, which was replied to in his usually felicitous manner by his lordship. The healths of Brothers J. and C. Studdert, father and son, the former fifty-four years a member of Lodge 60, were afterwards proposed in a most complimentary speech by Lord Dunboynes, and ably responded to by both gentlemen. The toasts of the visitors, the caterers to the dinner, and others, were subsequently given, and about midnight the company separated, having spent the most agreeable evening ever recorded in the annals of Dunboynes Lodge. The several lodges of the province were represented by their Worshipful Masters. The following were among the visitors:—Brothers Hare, W. M. 13; H. Sikes, W. M. 73; T. J. Evans, W. M. 202; W. Barrington, Secretary P.G.L.; I. Banks, 73, 202, and D.P.S.W.; J. K. Brown, K.T. 73; J. Merrick, R.A. 73; J. F. M'Mahon, 73; G. Dartnell, 13; W. S. Studdert, 201; C. M. Wilson, P.M. 13;—Hunter, 171; S. Caswell, 333; H. Sterling, K.T. 73;—Henry, 171;—Chadwick, 54. Mr. Patrick Coffey, of Limerick, was caterer for the dinner, the wines being supplied by Mr. David Smith, Ennis.

Ennis, Friday Evening.

ENNIS PETTY SESSIONS.

To-day the ordinary weekly Court was held. The magistrates on the Bench were—Thomas Greene, chairman; Capt. W. C. Hamilton, R.M.; F. N. Keane and Patrick Barry.

Constable Keogh, of Clare Castle station, charged a man named Horan with assaulting him on Sunday evening; and the defendant also charged the Constable with a similar offence. Both cases being of a mere ordinary character were dismissed.

James Reddan, for rioting in the street at Clare Castle on Sunday, was bound in two sureties to keep the peace, or fourteen days' imprisonment.

Mary McMahon, alias Dea, a returned convict, was charged with robbery of a piece of cloth from Mr. John Barrett's shop. The prisoner was returned for trial; and after routine business the Court adjourned.

DREADFUL ATTACK BY A BULL.—On Monday a labouring man named Michael Burke was frightfully gored by a bull, the property of Mr. Gabbett, of Knockinira, between this town and Kiltrush. Burke is over sixty, and has been much injured about the lower part of the belly, where the horns of the enraged animal entered. He lies in a precarious condition in the County Infirmary, where he is receiving the greatest attention.

ACCIDENT.—A man named Thomas Walton, who had been engaged a few days at Clare Castle in unshipping coal, had his skull fractured by a heavy lump of the coal falling from a bucket on his head. The poor man is progressing favourably in the County Infirmary, where he at present remains with a prospect of recovery.

The application concerning the alleged illegal constitution of the County Cork Grand Jury was again brought before Mr. Justice Morris yesterday, and the arguments having been heard on both sides, his lordship reserved judgment.

written in the Queen's own hand:—

"Miss Nellie Grant—I have instructed Lady—to convey to you this note, and we shall receive you as the daughter of your honourable parents without the intervention of our high officers of State. I shall accept your visit as that of an 'American girl,' and there shall be no other significance in the fact than your kindly-expressed desire to see the lady and not the sovereign. I shall find it pleasant to forget that I am Queen in receiving you to-morrow afternoon at our palace at Windsor. "VICTORIA."

The visit took place at the time, and under the circumstances indicated, and was very pleasant.

The Rome correspondent of the Daily News says the Pope has given instructions to the English and Irish Roman Catholic Bishops to protest, by means of pastoral letters, against the determination of the British Government to prosecute the Galway priests.

LONDON CORN MARKET.—YESTERDAY.

Very moderate attendance, and scarcely any business doing. Prices of all articles nominally the same as on Monday, with the turn in buyers' favour.

LIVERPOOL CORN MARKET.—YESTERDAY.

There was only a thin attendance, and the business in wheat was to a moderate extent, at 1d. per cental decline from Tuesday's rates. Flour quiet, and in buyers' favour. Beans in more demand, at an advance of 6d. per quarter. Peas, 6d. per quarter cheaper, Canadian, 35s. to 55s. 6d. Indian corn strong, 3d. to 6d. per 280lb. higher.

DUBLIN CATTLE MARKET.

(L. Cuffe and Son's Report.)

5, Smithfield, Dublin, July 25, 1872.

An increase in the supply of beasts, together with a slow export demand in consequence of the recent determination of the Manchester buyers against paying the present high rates for meat, had rather a depressing effect on to-day's market, the top price of last week being rarely obtained, while for inferior sorts a fall of 10s. to 15s. per head may be quoted. Supply of sheep smaller, yet the demand was also slow, all purchases being made on easier terms. Lambs fully as dear.

Prime beef, 72s 6d to 77s 6d per cwt.; secondary and inferior, 67s 6d to 72s. 6d. per cwt.; ewe, 7d. to 8d. per lb.; prime wether, 9d. per lb. Supply—Beasts, 2,190; sheep, 6,616.

In anticipation of the projected wholesale prosecution of Irish Roman Catholic priests a member of the Reform Club, in a letter to the Times, relates the following circumstance:—About 12 or 14 years ago the late Father Conway, described in Mr. Justice Keogh's judgment as "that audacious and mendacious priest," was prosecuted by an order of the House of Commons for intimidation at a Mayo election. I was on the jury, which contained six Protestants and six Roman Catholics. There were four or five counts, on all of which but one the jury were evenly divided. On a trivial count a verdict on which would yet have been sufficient to mark the opinion of the jury, the jury were eight to four for conviction, but no closer approximation could, after several hours, be attained, and the jury were discharged after a trial lasting five days, in which the present Lord Chancellor of Ireland and three present judges (then barristers) were engaged. It may be, and I think it is, right that a prosecution should be instituted in the present instance, but what are the chances of a verdict?"
